WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH FOREST GROVE

With Many Fine Fellows Women Want Foreign Intervention TWO WOMEN WRITE SPECIFICATIONS

South Forest Grove Aspirants Write Seattle Mayor for Men With a town full of princes of good fellows, many of them being bachelors, a call goes up from Forest Grove for two men who are willing to take up the life of benedicts.

Judging from the inclosed, clipped from this morning's Oregonian, that you are conducting a matrimonial bureau, we write to say that the fair adviser for a husband is not alone in her search. There are others—two of us, in fact, who are just as lonely, well known, slightly gray, dark eyes, hair once black, medium height, weight, etc.

The men must be rather large, well built, as near physical perfection as possible, not under 35, must be immaculately clean as to personal details, and must have sufficient income to support a wife, used to at least all the comforts of modern convenience, and must be fairly well educated and an all-around good fellow and terribly affectionate.

The Hillsboro Grays went down to Sherwood, Sunday, and bumped against a defeat, 12 to 3. Sherwood was given only three hits, which was good enough pitching to have won almost any game. Hillsboro, however, was not accustomed to a rough diamond, and did not give the best of support.

H. L. Kline, of Laurel, was in town Tuesday. Born, July 26, 1912, to C. A. Stephens and wife, of Shady Brook, a daughter.

John Matthes, of Chehalis Mountain, was in town the first of the week. Wm. Musgrove, of near Orenco, was in the county seat yesterday.

John Ireland, of Greenville, was in the city yesterday, transacting business at the court house. Dr. W. D. Wood and family departed Tuesday for a week in the big Nestucca and Tillamook points, making the trip by motor.

Richard Wiley went up to the Thos. Murphy place, above Mountaine, Tuesday, to camp with the Hillsboro boys now on their vacation. Frank Smith, a fireman on the O. W. R. & N., is down for a two weeks vacation, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, of South Tualatin.

H. B. Johnson, Hon. Ira E. Purdin, C. L. Hinman, and a number of other Forest Groveites were down yesterday, on the paying injunction case. A. L. Grebe, of Laurel, raised some clover which was over four feet in height, this season, and his neighbors say that he cut forked sticks to prop up the crop just to see what he could do in the line of raising hay.

County Surveyor McGee is again contouring the Lousignont Lake property for another drainage ditch. The old provisions of putting it through, last year, fell through because of some irregularity in the proceedings, and the work must all be revised.

For our meats are the choicest and tenderest to be had. A taste of them means a desire for more, especially as our prices are as low as any. HILLSBORO MERCANTILE CO.

Dr. S. T. Bowser returned the first of the week from a trip to the Nehalem Valley, where he visited with his daughter, Mrs. Oscar Donelson. He reports crops fine in the timber region and says that Saturday evening the heaviest thunder storm of the season held sway in the tall timber. Born, to Samuel Wear and wife, of Tongue Addition, Hillsboro, July 30, 1912, a son.
