LONG & MCKINNEY

It is a strange thing that the only presidential candidate of the two old parties prior to 1912, who received no support, financially or otherwise, from the trusts, was the man Bryan, from Nebraska. Bryan stands out alone and unscathed from campaign contributions, at all times, of a nature inimical to the best interests of government. It is no wonder, therefore, that the American people believe in Bryan's honesty and integrity, even though repeatedly defeated for the highest office in the land. And, glory be to the old-time American, his last service to the American people was his fight against the interests at Baltimore, in which he won against great odds.

Gov. West is after the official crooks in Portland, and notwithstanding he is being reviled by many of them, in unison with the parasites and polluted of the parishes, he seems to be getting along pretty well, thank you.

Congress has adjourned, and perhaps the weather will now clear.

Let everybody pull together for the big street fair. Hillsboro always makes good, but let us make this the best of all.

FAREWELL GATHERING

Over forty people attended the "farewell" given by Mr. and Mrs. P. Lind at their lovely country home at Santa Rosa, last Sunday, prior to their leaving for Portland.

The guests were seated to a sumptuous dinner, after which ice cream was served. The remainder of the day was spent very pleasantly in conversation, music, and the singing of hymns.

A delicious supper was then served, and the guests dispersed, all deeply regretting the coming departure of their friends.

Among those present besides the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Sundberg and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carlson, Santa Rosa; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Johnson and grand-daughter, Charlotte Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hagg and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Moline and daughter, Mrs. Anna Taylor and children, Mr. C. F. Bergstrand, Reedville; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Fink, San Francisco. The Misses Ethel Sandberg, Portland; Golda Bloom, Wallace, Idaho; Edith Hagg, Hannah and Ida Bergstrand, Reedville; Gertrude, Ethel and Ruth Lind, Santa Rosa.

Messrs. A. W. Frank, and E. J. Carlson, St. John's; Edgar and Herman Lind, Santa Rosa.

Milton Smith, Seth Vermilia and Carl Peterson were fined $15, Barras Tupper, $10, and Ervine Swift and Clifford Boyd were given suspended sentences, by Judge Smith, the other day. The last two were given leniency because they were extremely youthful. The lads had been disturbing choir practice in the M. E. church, at Dilley. All pleaded guilty.

Homer Emmott and son, Ray, have returned from their trip to the Lincoln County coast. They went overland, and had a two weeks' trip. They went through the Siletz, and saw J. N. Gardner, who formerly ran the Rose sawmill, near Orenco, while going through the Beaver Creek section.

A record breaking run with a thresher was made at the Oregon Nursery Company's farm, last Saturday. A. L. Croen's machine turned out 3,795 bushels of grain in a one day's run—the best record in fourteen years of harvest work. Who can beat it?

A Victim of the Mormons—exposing mormonism. Showing how a young lady is induced to become a Mormon, and is rescued by her people. A magnificent three reel feature. Will be shown at the People's Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

Dr. W. E. Pittenger, the dentist, returned yesterday from an extended vacation at Rockaway Beach. He states that G. A. Patterson and family are still there, and Gus spends the most of his time watching the heavens with compressed lips.
