SCHOLL'S FURNISHES WORLD'S CHAMPION

Will Minor, Now of the Wallowa, Rides for 30,000 People

WINS CHAMPIONSHIP AT ROUND-UP

Rode Horse, "Angel," Famous Outlaw, to a Standstill, Saturday

Washington County has given to the Northwest, a new champion vaquero, and today Will Minor, well known here several years ago, stands as champion bucking-horse rider of the world. Minor rode "Angel," a noted outlaw, and the worst buckner ever witnessed in the roundups, to a standstill, Saturday afternoon, in the presence of thirty thousand pairs of eyes. Minor rode "straight-up," pulled no leather, and helped the celebrated equine out in his contortions to unseat his rider. The decision called for a demonstration never before heard at the great annual gathering, as he had fairly won the $250 saddle and $200 cash prize. Minor rode for McCrea, who was unable to take the saddle, and he was a new one to the Roundup visitors.

Minor is aged 28 years, and has been riding the range since he was fourteen years of age. He is a graceful horseman, and knows every "back," from the "sundish" variety, down to the "rockaway" and "toboggan." When he mounted Angel, the worst performer of the noted outlaws, no one expected him to keep the mount. Angel gave the one best exhibition in the arena, and for five minutes he harassed his master. The judges were unanimous in the award. The champion is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Garner Minor, of near Scholls. He was in Hillsboro a few years ago, and rode several bad bunch-grassers. For some time he has been riding in the Wallowa Valley. His mother was appraised of the honors won, Monday, by the Argus office. She states that the son was born in Michigan, and that as a boy he was a natural horseman.

J. B. McNew, of Beaverton-Rossville section, was up to the city the first of the week.

Mrs. Frank Reed, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. F. Glascoe, Sunday.

Jas. Boyd, of Portland, representing the Oregonian, was a Hillsboro visitor the first of the week.

C. O. Roe, of Forest Grove, was down to the city Monday morning.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

Our old Shady Brook friend, Sam Johnson, of Blockhouse, Wash., has been in the Golden-dale hospital for several days, having been injured by a horse. Sam was riding the animal when he was thrown and kicked, suffering severe injuries. He is coming on all right, and unless his injuries are permanent, expects to qualify for the big bucking contest at Pendleton, next year. Sam was riding "Snow-bird," a mare well known here in the past. The animal was bred and foaled on the T. H. Tanguet ranch, and has ever been a fine driving animal. The bunch grass up in the hills filled the old girl with too many anties to make her a safe mount and Sam is now paying the bills.

Lost Man's dark coat, containing bill book with various papers. Lost on Baseline road between Hillsboro and Oreno, Sept. 28. Can easily be identified by papers in pockets. Finder please notify owner at Oreno, or leave at Argus office.—J. E. Bennett.

H. H. Cochran, who owns a strawberry ranch two miles north of Hillsboro, brought in a box of berries, Saturday, the fruit having all the appearance of Spring bearing, both in size and color, as well as in flavor. They were of the new Oregon Improved variety. So long as the best can be produced here it appears that there is little use in importing Fall bearings, and this feature will grow each year.

The Shute Savings Bank pays its depositors over $10,000 yearly for interest on Savings Deposits. If you do not participate in this start an amount, $1.00 is all that is required. Its what you save, not what you earn that makes you rich.

For Sale or Trade—11 acres improved; in cultivation, with food, implements and stock. Price, $4,500; half mile from good town on Oregon Electric Railway. Will take house and let clear of incumbrance as first payment; terms on balance. Answer by mail, giving full particulars in first letter.—M. F. Babbit, Oreno, Ore. 29-30

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into steewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

Wm. Bronaugh, with the Krehs saloon, departed Monday for Kansas City, Mo., from which point he goes to Woolridge, Mo., to visit his mother and his boyhood home. He left there seven years ago this coming Saturday, and expects to arrive home on the seventh anniversary of his departure. He will remain a month and then hit the trail to Hillsboro.

D. P. Corrieri always keeps the finest fish in the county. All kinds in season. Also a fine supply of the freshest vegetables. Try him. Second Street, one door South of Koeber's. 25-tf

Albert Lincoln and family, of Glencoe, departed Saturday for their new home, at Inverness, Montana, where Mr. Lincoln has taken up a homestead. He shipped all his farm tools, household effects, and machinery and eleven head of horses, along with other stock. Inverness is now gaining renown as a wheat growing district.

For sale: Shoats, weighing from 60 to 150 pounds. Bowly Bros., Cornelius, Route 2. Telephone Scholls, Line 10, No. 35. Also a few fresh cows for sale. 27-tf

Mrs. Nancy Johnson, of Glencoe, and Mrs. Frank Holcomb, of West Union, were in the city the last of the week. Mrs. Johnson departed today for Riddles, Oregon, where she will spend the winter with her son, Ralph Johnson, and family.

Do not forget that Dave Corwin will do your plumbing and give you estimates. Satisfactory work always, and prices that can't be given by others. Chennette Row, Second Street.

Rev. Basel, who came here from Colorado, to fill the pulpit of the Cornelius German Lutheran Church, was unable to withstand the climate, and after two Sundays, returned to his former pastorate in the Rocky Mountain state.

Mrs. M. Cave and daughter, Miss Rose, were Portland visitors, Sunday, guests of J. T. Gibson and family.

Isaac Ennes, of beyond Tacoma, was over to Washington County, last week, visiting relatives and transacting business.

CHAIRMAN NEWELL ASKS FOR SUPPORT

Member of Commission Advocates Affirmative Vote

WORTH READING, ANYWAY, HE SAYS

Initiative Millage Bill For Support of Schools up to You

Chairman W. K. Newell, of the commission on State Schools, sends the Argus the following on the millage bill, which all readers should peruse, for voters must vote for or against it:

Argument for the Bill

The initiative millage tax bill, providing for a six-tenths of a mill tax, four-sevenths for the use of the Agricultural College, and three-sevenths for the use of the University, and providing also for a single Board of Regents, was prepared by a joint committee from the Governor's special commission appointed to solve Oregon's higher educational problem, and from the Boards of Regents of the two institutions working in conjunction with the Governor and with the Presidents of the two institutions, and is offered as a substitute for all the present legislative bills for support and government of the two institutions.

This bill does not increase the average rate of taxation for the support of the two institutions as shown during the last ten years. The average during this period is a trifle over six-tenths of a mill.

The State of Washington is at present paying for the same purposes seventeen-hundredths of a mill more than the Oregon bill calls for, namely: Forty-five hundredths of a mill for the Agricultural College.

The growth of the two institutions will certainly keep pace with the growth of wealth in the state, as has been shown by the experience of all other states using the millage basis of support.

This bill expressly repeals the $500,000 appropriations of the legislative session of two years ago, now submitted to the voters under the referendum (official numbers on the ballot, 372, 373, 374, 375,) for their approval or rejection.

The present standing appropriations to be continued for one year are most urgently needed to give the institutions a start in buildings and to carry them through the period while the mill tax is being collected.

The passage of this bill will take the University and Agricultural College out of politics. The efficiency and dignity of the institutions demand permanency of support and freedom from political entanglements.

Through the unified control of the single board, hearty co-operation of the two institutions will be insured. The advantages of a combined institution will be secured, and the advantages which come from segregation will not be sacrificed.

Since the millage bill involves the question of taxation, it should be taken directly to the people. It is therefore not an abuse but a proper use of the initiative law, and the bill should be voted upon its merits.

AUCTION SALE

Thursday, Oct. 10, 1912, at 10 a. m., a quarter mile north of Bethany, I will offer the following articles at public sale:—Sorrel horse, 5 years, 1600; bay horse, 6 years, 1450; 2 No. 1 milch cows, 1 fresh Dec 5; yearling heifer, about 7 dozen chickens, 7-foot Champion binder, Adriance-Buckeye mower, Buckeye rake, new 3-inch Bain wagon, 34 farm wagon, 2-seated farm hack, new top buggy, 14-inch steel beam plow, 60-tooth steel lever harrow, cultivator, cider mill, 2 sets dbl harness, set single harness, about 100 bushels of wheat, organ, all household goods, all small farm tools too numerous to mention. August Meyer, Owner.
Henry Kuratli, Auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McKinney, of Portland, were guests of relatives in this city Sunday.

Al McCumsey, of North Plains, was in town Monday.

Gen. K. Townsend, of near Bethany, was in the county seat Monday.

G. A. Lechner, of near Bethany, was an Argus caller, Saturday.

Jas. Beggs, of Ysmhill, was down to the city Monday, on business.

Jake and Sam Raffety, Mountandale, were in the county seat Monday.

J. P. Hornaday, of Oak Park, was an Argus caller Monday morning.

Mrs. U. G. Gardner, is visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Elwell, of Woodstock.

Mrs. Thomas Pittenger and daughter, of Portland, were guests of Mrs. M. M. Pittenger, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whitecomb, of Portland, were week-end guests at the homes of E. L. Abbott and E. R. Morton.

Dance at Bethany Grange Hall, Saturday, October 5. Ford's orchestra. Oyster supper. Tickets, $1. All are invited. 28-9

Mrs. E. F. McNelly, of North Tualatin Plains, returned from her trip to Massachusetts, last Thursday evening, after a Summer's absence. She was met in Portland by Mr. McNelly.

J. A. Vandehey, who has bought the Reverman place, at Centerville, was in the city Monday. Mr. Vandehey has just left the hospital, after being confined there for treatment for several weeks.

For sale—One hundred graded Plymouth Rock pullets, for 50 cents each, if taken soon. Will make good winter layers, and come from good laying strains.—J. P. Hornaday, Oak Park, on Yager Farm. 29-31

C. Viohl, of Oak Park, was in town Monday. He states that he will move his family into his new house, about Saturday. This new house was built to replace the one destroyed by fire early in the Summer.

United States Geo. E. Chamberlain has arrived home, and states to a Washington County man that he will deliver one speech in Hillsboro, prior to the presidential election. "Our George" always gets a good audience when he visits the city.

C. F. Miller, of the Grove, was down to the city Monday. C. F. says that the Forest Grove delegation who visited the Pendleton Roundup say that there is only one better show on earth—and that is a Democratic National convention.

The "physiogn" of Virgil Cooper, in a group of Railway men, appeared in a half-tone in the Evening Telegram, Friday evening. Mr. Cooper is in charge of the Salem system. He formerly worked with the Washington-Oregon Corporation in Hillsboro, and has many friends here.

B. C. Hollenbeck and John Howell, of above Mountandale, were in town Monday, coming down in Hollenbeck's machine. When they reached the Gregg hopfarm, at Leisville, the machine broke, and I. H. Maxwell, of near their home, came down in his auto to bring them to town.

A prominent Portland man passed through the city the first of the week, and stated that through all his travels over the Oregon country he found but few towns the size of Hillsboro having the bank deposits of the four banks in the county seat. That is some recommend for old Hillsboro.

Albert Asbahr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Asbahr, of South Tualatin, was on the reception committee for the care of visitors at the big Pendleton Roundup, last week. Mr. Asbahr is in the chair of Agriculture, at Pendleton High, and he was placed on the committee because of his wide acquaintance in the Willamette Valley. He stated to the Argus reporter at Pendleton, Saturday, that it looked like all Hillsboro was up to the annual event.

Reuben P. Graham, a Portland attorney, formerly a law partner of T. J. Cleeton, died in Portland, last week. Graham was born in Iowa 55 years ago, and came to Oregon with his parents, when he was a child. His father settled below Beaverton, and took up a donation land claim. Graham attended Pacific University, and afterward was admitted to the bar. Three brothers survive, two residing at Clatskanie, and the other, A. S. Graham, of Portland.

COURT HOUSE ANNEX IS SOON COMPLETED

Various Office Rooms Have Been Assigned to County Officers

RECORDER HAS LARGEST QUARTERS

Clerk and County Court Close Together, on East Side

The brickwork on the court house annex is nearly completed, and the cornice has been placed in position. Practically all that remains are laying a few floors, and putting in the casings and windows.

The contractor, Mr. Foster, expects to turn the structure over to the county by October 1 at the latest, and then it will be moving day with Clerk Bailey and Recorder Perkins. Mr. Perkins will have the entire west lower floor, which gives a splendid light, and which will have plenty of room for the abstractors. County Clerk Bailey will have the first room to the east, on the right of the hall, and the county court and commissioners will occupy the northeast corner of the structure.

The present clerk's office will be joined to the sheriff's office, in order to increase the floor space. More room has been needed in Sheriff Hancock quarters for some years, and the tax rolls are now so numerous that the place has been cramped during tax collection time.

The cornice on the structure gives the building a substantial appearance and from an architectural standpoint, both in beauty and strength, it is one of the finest buildings on the west side of the Willamette.

FOR SALE

My four acres in Fairview Addition to Hillsboro; 2 acres cleared, balance easily cleared. Close to S. P. track. Good new plastered house and fine well. Will rent to desirable party. Terms reasonable. For full particulars write, Jas. C. Ennes, Sherwood, Ore., R. 4, Box 49. 28tf

MEN WANTED

The Big Oregon Nursery Co. is employing 100 men, and wants 100 more men. Steady work for hustlers. Good wages. 29

Herman Koehnke, Oak Park, was in the city the last of the week.

Henry Vandehey, of Greenville, was in town Monday, and called at the Argus office.

G. A. Plieth, road supervisor, and Fred Ellsner, of below Kinton, were in the city Monday. Ellsner was up to the Pendleton Roundup, last Friday, and says that he feels like working another year in order to have another vacation up in the bunchgrass section in 1913.

Threshing was finally wound up in Washington County, this week, after a siege of nearly three months from the time the machines first started. Plowing has good headway, but the last of the week the ground was getting too dry for good execution.
