CLOVER SEED SALES BIG FOR COUNTY

Splendid Fall for Saving This Valuable Farm Product

MAKES UP FOR GRAINS LOSSES
One Farmer Sold Over Twenty Three Hundred Dollars Worth

This has been a great fall for the harvest of clover seed and it is a safe bet that Washington County has this season threshed more of this product than ever before in its history. A number of good authorities claim that the loss in grain by virtue of the early rains has been made up, and more than so, by the harvest and sale of clover seed. When a rancher can get two or three tons of clover hay for fodder and later cut and thresh clover seed and sell at from $35 to $50 and $60 per acre, he is "going some," but that is what has been accomplished on hundreds of farms here in this year of our Lord, 1912.

Thos. Connell, of near North Plains, probably received the largest clover seed check of the year, it being said that for a 65 acre harvest the draft on the bank ran to $2285. This is some income, considering that he had already taken off a big crop of hay.

Many clover hullers have been running up to the damp close of last week. Batchelder & Keffler, of West Union, have had the biggest run in their history, and one Banks firm had two clover hullers running this season, their orders forcing them to buy a second machine.

DAIRY AUCTION

The undersigned will sell at public auction at the J. H. Brown barn, Main street, Hillsboro, Oregon, at 1 o'clock p. m., on SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2. The following dairy stock: Fifteen fine dairy cows, extra choice, grade Durhams and Jerseys; eleven in milk, seven just fresh; all fine milkers. Four will freshen for winter milking; balance fresh in spring. A fine registered Holstein bull, weighs 1840 lbs., a prize winner at the Salem fair. His mother took a prize at the St. Louis fair. The above cows are well selected for dairy producing and are just the purchases for a dairy ranch. A span of mares, one 10 years, 1150, one 11 years, 1315; good animals and work well together; also 13 milk cans.

Terms of Sale—Two per cent. off for cash, or will sell for 6 months' bankable note, at 8 per cent. interest.
W. F. Wohlshlegel, Owner.
John Vanderwal, Clerk.

SCHOLLS NURSERY

The Scholls Nursery can furnish everything in the fruit-tree line this year. Also Loganberry plants, blackcap raspberries, Clark seedling strawberry plants; two-year old Golden Ortleys, and Yellow Newtons, large trees, well headed, for 121 cents per tree. Yearling apple trees four to six foot, 10 cents each.—I. C. Nealeigh, Scholls Nursery, Sherwood, Ore., Route 4.

Mrs. Leah Bouland, of Portland, was a guest at the L. A. Long home, Sunday.

Daniel Shaw, of below Huber, was in the city Monday morning, on circuit court business.

The way to get more rock roads is to elect the man who builds them, Vote for R. O. Stevenson.—Paid adv.

Sheriff Hancock arrived in from Missouri, Saturday night, on the last train, with R. Cramer, brought back for larceny by baillee. Cramer was placed in the county jail over Sunday.

The Shute Savings Bank pays its depositors over $10,000 yearly for interest on Savings Deposits. If you do not participate in this start an account, $1.00 is all that is required. Its what you save, not what you earn that makes you rich.

Nearly all tracts of five and ten acres have been sold in the Hillsboro Garden tracts, and several small homes have been built here and there. A few of the numbers are Germans, and the way they are clearing up the wilderness of stumps and brush is not slow.

W. E. King, who is here from Canton, Ohio, visiting the Bagleys, is not from Missouri, but he "has to be shown," anyway. When he was looking at the big things that Washington County raises he doubted their measurements. This doubt kept creeping up on him, until he decided to know. So he went into Percy Long's hardware, Saturday, and bought a tape-line. Measurements always held out however, and after two days of measuring King threw the tape-line away and wrote back to his friends at Canton that this was the biggest country for big things that he had ever visited.

One must be sold—Full basement, modern improved house on two lots in Hillsboro. Also a good house and 2 1/2 acres in McMinnville, near good school. Ideal town place for good chicken ranch. Must be sold in few days. Get a bargain.—Terms.—C. F. Busen.

Wm. Bronaugh, who has been with the Lion resort for several years, returned from a month's visit with his mother at Woodridge, Mo. He found his mother in excellent health, and had several weeks of visit with his old schoolboy friends. Bronaugh states that the Argus reached him every week, and that there was never a paper so much enjoyed.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me, Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

Andrew Pierson, of Reedville, was in town Saturday. On Friday evening he killed a monster owl in his yard, the bird measuring 56 inches from tip to tip. Notwithstanding an owl generally runs to feathers, and has but little body, his owlishness weighed over four pounds. This is the largest bird of its species killed in the section for years.

D. P. Corrieri always keeps the finest fish in the county. All kinds in season. Also a fine supply of the freshest vegetables. Try him, Second Street, one door South of Koerber's. 25-1f

An O. A. C. professor says that girls suffer from tight lacing, and that curvature of the spine is prevalent from too tight tying of corset strings. The number of girls suffering from curvature of the spine is greatly preponderant over men. As the professor is a woman no one can say that a man is getting into dangerous territory.

Do not forget that Dave Corwin will do your plumbing and give you estimates. Satisfactory work always, and prices that can't be given by others. Chenette Row, Second Street.

G. E. Jacobs, a former Hillsborite, after working at Dos Palos, Cal., has moved back to Santa Cruz, where he will send his children to school. He has plenty of cement work at Santa Cruz, and states that they are putting up several big reinforced buildings there, giving plenty of employment to artisans.

Nothing is more needed in this county than good roads. Judge Stevenson is building them. Why stop him when he is just getting started?—Paid adv.

Dr. F. J. Bailey recently closed a deal for a $125,000 residence at Tacoma, trading land near Lebanon for the property. Dr. Bailey made the trade for speculation, and does not intend moving to Tacoma as stated in Friday's despatches from the Sound city.

When Judge Stevenson took office he promised the people rock roads. He has delivered the goods. He will deliver more if re-elected.—Paid adv.

T. A. Sweeney's crew have been engaged in putting in a new cement sidewalk in front of the Wilkes Bros.' brick, on Second, a door south of the Argus office. The old cement walk was above grade.

A lad found a bracelet on the street a few days ago. Loser can prove property at Argus office, pay for adv. and small donation to boy, and recover same.

If the people appreciate the rock roads Judge Stevenson is building they ought to keep him in office.—Paid adv.

J. B. Monette and Miss Leisha Ruble, the latter once a resident of near Varley, were granted marriage license at Portland, the last of the week.

Congressman Hawley will be in Hillsboro, Friday afternoon, arriving at 2:15, and will remain over night in the county seat.

CO. FRUIT INSPECTOR AFTER ANTHRACNOSE

Deadliest Enemy to Fruit Trees Must be Killed at Once

GROWERS SHOULD ACT AT ONCE

Very Virulent in Valley Except Where Spraying Has Been Indulged

Anthracnose—the deadliest enemy to fruit trees according to B. Leis, the Beaverton apple-grower—is virulent in the Willamette Valley where spraying has not been indulged, and this blight should have attention at once.

Homer C. Atwell, County Fruit Inspector, writes the Argus as follows, and all who have apple trees of any kind, should read this, and take action at once:

"To the Editor: Apple-tree anthracnose, commonly called "dead-spot" or "apple canker," is the worst enemy of the Willamette Valley apple-grower. It fills the tree with dead wood, and eventually renders the tree worthless. It is universal and virulent in this valley, where thorough spraying is not annually practiced. Orchardists should spray at once with "Bordeaux Mixture" containing six pounds of blue vitriol and six pounds of lime to fifty gallons of water. Effective Bordeaux Mixture can not be purchased ready made. Directions for its preparation and application will be found in the tenth and eleventh biennial reports of the State Board of Horticulture. To obtain them address the Secretary, H. M. Williamson, 303 Henry Building, Portland."

My four acres in Fairview Addition to Hillsboro; 2 acres cleared, balance easily cleared. Close to S. P. track. Good new plastered house and fine well. Will rent to desirable party. Terms reasonable. For full particulars write, Jas. C. Ennes, Sherwood, Ore., R. 4, Box 49. 281f

Erwin Buell, of near North Plains, was in the city Friday. Mr. Buell and Robt. McKnight were out in the Shady Brook section last week, and Mr. Buell landed a fine three-prong buck.

The disciples of Izaak Walton are making some nice trout catches in Dairy and the Tualatin, within a mile of town. Ed. Wann landed 15 nice ones within an hour, Sunday afternoon.

Do not forget to ask for a good Schiller when you want a good 10 cent smoke—"cough dust" in the Schiller. 121f

Washington County has 27 registered stallions, being the 18th in the state in point of numbers. Washington County has 18 pure licensed stallions. Percherons appear to have the lead in numbers over all other breeds.

For Sale: Wheat and oats, with 50 per cent. tare—make fine mixture for feed.—J. S. Steinke, one mile south of Newton. 30-2

Last Friday night's windstorm was a bad one, the gale reaching 50 miles an hour shortly after midnight. No material damage was done in this section, but havoc was played with the wires around Portland and down on the lower Columbia.

Smokers want the best—the real force call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

It will grieve the many friends of Will Walker, of near Beaverton, to know that he has been suffering from pneumonia for the past week. He has been confined to the house for so long with his other ailment, that this new complication added makes it a matter of genuine regret to his hundreds of friends in Washington County.

Nature keeps a debit and credit account in her eyesight department, whether you do or not, and if you are wasting nervous energy through eyestrain, you must pay for it in your thinking and digesting departments. Your eyes plus your brain equals you. Dr. Lowe's glasses will strengthen your eyes and brain. Call at Hotel Washington, Friday, Nov. 1, and request him to explain this to you. He will gladly do so gratis.

These are the days that the native pheasant, the quail and the grouse are laying low, making their getaways from the hunter. Scores have been beating the woods close to Hillsboro for several days, but game is wild in every sense of the word. The only tame wild bird (paradoxical but true) is the China rooster, and the way he tantalizes the hunter is more than exasperating. He generally waits until you are right at his tail, when he raises slowly, looks back at you with a triumphant leer, gives you all the chance in the world to shoot—and appears to know that you will not—for there is that big fine awaiting you if you are caught.

"I am in a peculiar position, for while I disapprove most emphatically of equal-suffrage, and while I have yet to see one good result from it, while the women of Colorado have the responsibility I must do my part toward trying to make matters better. But I frankly say I do not see how this can be accomplished. It certainly has not yielded any such result up to this date. We have no cleaner politics, no purer politicians, no less graft, no better laws for women and children than Massachusetts has, and in spite of the often repeated assertions of the Suffragists, not one of the laws we have is the result of the votes of women. As far as this goes the influence of women outside the Suffrage is better than with the exercise of it. I have found the professional Suffragist, or politician, hard, aggressive, loud in voice and manner and ready to antagonize anyone to carry her point. It is not with her an "appeal to reason," but an appeal to sentiment, to passion, and to fancied wrong done to women. There is very little now to say on the subject, excepting that my observations has only intensified my feeling on the subject. The better class of women do not want to vote. It is hard for me to induce them to come to the polls, when any stirring question comes up, and on ordinary matters they neither feel nor even pretend to feel any interest.

Judging from the conditions as they now stand in Colorado, do we honestly feel that the women's vote will better our State of Oregon?
Mrs. Francis J. Bailey, Pres.
(Paid Adv.)

IMPORTANT ROAD BILL UP FOR ELECTION

Constitutional Amendment Permits Majority to Vote Bonds

CAN BE VOTED UPON ANY ELECTION

Introduced by the People of Southern Oregon—Vote as You Like

Among the numerous roads measures submitted to the people upon the ballot for action at the November election, is the one submitted by the people of Southern Oregon known as the County Home Rule bill. This measure, as its name implies, gives to counties the right to build highways if desired, upon the consent of a majority of the voters if obtained at a general or special election.

The bill does not differ materially from the constitutional amendment submitted and carried two years ago, except that it is self-enacting and requires no enabling act and no legal entanglements or interpretations by the courts to hamper action.

No limitation is placed upon the indebtedness, as such limitation is needless, for the taxpayers will not vote for too large indebtedness and if they did, the bonds could not be sold. The limitation of two per cent placed in the so-called Harmony bills, will be fatal to many counties as taxpayers will refuse to vote for an indebtedness unless it benefits by good roads, all parts of the county, which cannot be done with a small amount. Under this measure, the amount of indebtedness is left to the taxpayers to decide.

The measure provides that the county court, in its order of election shall "provide every detail concerning the form and manner of disposing of the securities issued" and to insure the success of the election, the roads to be constructed, the materials to be used, will also have to be set forth.

The simplicity of the measure is its strong point, and it has the endorsement of all of the leading good roads advocates, including Sam Hill, the president of the national good roads association. Its number upon the ballot is 300, and if you favor it, vote an X between "360" and "yes."

AUCTION SALE

Why be bothered with two pairs of glasses? Call at Hotel Washington, Friday, Nov. 1, and have Dr. Lowe show you the new Toric glasses with which you can see all distances. No unsightly lines or seams in the glass to catch dirt and strain the eyes. No cement to come apart. They make you feel young without making you look old. Full demonstration. Twenty years experience. Scores of Hillsboro references.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Crandall, parents of Assessor Max Crandall, returned Saturday, after a three months visit in the East. They visited their son Avery, as far East as Sheboygan, Michigan, and stopped at many points on the return trip, their last visit being with their son, Jesse, and wife, at Rancher, Montana. Mr. Crandall says that from the looks of politics back East it will either be Wilson or an electoral college deadlock.
