Southern Pacific Offers Handsome Cup.

Award to be made to the community having the best exhibit at the Pacific Northwest Land Products Show.

Perhaps nothing has occurred in recent years to show the changed attitude toward the public than the interest railroads are now showing in the Pacific Northwest Land Products Show. It is now being held at Portland, November 18 to 23, and the railroads are not only offering expensive cups as prizes, aiding the show people in carrying exhibits, placing booths of their own in charge of experts, but now comes the Harriman Lines in Oregon with a half holiday for all clerks in the general offices and free tickets for the employees and their families to attend the show on the afternoon of the 20th. Everybody admits that the millennium may be close at hand.

And those 1200 clerks are going to celebrate properly. A few of them really know something about farming. One of them owns a cow and another has made affidavit that he got three potatoes out of one hill in his garden this Fall. But they are going to have a parade from the Wells-Fargo to the land show on the East side. They will have a band, a double quartette, floats, character impersonations, fifty wheelbarrows loaded with fake vegetables, and a few other stunts that will be of interest.

It all goes to show that the Harriman people, consisting of the S. P. and the O. W. R. & N., and the P. E. & E. are alive to the fact that the farmer must be encouraged and that the people generally must be taught something about the land. The educational value of the Land Products Show will be its great importance, and a study of it will be of benefit to even 1200 railroad clerks.

ANNIVERSARY SURPRISE

Mrs. Dr. Ira E. Barrett was hostess, Monday evening, for a thirtieth wedding anniversary surprise in honor of Hon. and Mr. W. N. Barrett, at the home of the latter.

The house was decorated with a profusion of evergreen and Autumn flowers, and the evening was enjoyable because of the presence of a number who knew Mr. and Mrs. Barrett when they were married, thirty years ago. They were united at Sheridan, Ore., Nov. 18, 1882, Rev. Peter Burnett officiating. They have always made their home in Hillsboro, where Mr. Barrett has practiced law, and they have a host of friends in this section of Oregon. The groom has been honored by election to the lower and upper houses of the legislature, and at present is city attorney of Hillsboro. A unique feature of the evening was a marriage ceremony by Hon. Rodolph Crandall, which was replete with wit and pathos.

Those present were: Capt. and Mrs. J. D. Merryman and Mrs. A. B. Bailey, Portland; Dr. F. A. Bailey and wife, Dr. W. D. Wood and wife, Dr. J. P. Tamiesie and wife, Dr. Ira E. Barrett and wife, R. Crandall and wife, J. A. Imbrie and wife, J. C. Lamkin and wife, S. C. Killen and wife, Willis Ireland and wife, B. W. Barnes and wife, Mrs. M. M. Pittenger, Miss Deborah Barrett, Mrs. S. T.
