

THE HILLSBORO ARGUS.

VOL. XIX

HILLSBORO, OREGON, NOVEMBER 28, 1912

NO. 37

SENATOR WOOD MAY BE THE SENATE'S PRESIDENT

Experience in Legislative Body and Economical Record in Favor

FRIENDS SAY NOT A CONSERVATIVE

Several State Senators Already Declared For Hillsboro Man

Stranger things have happened than that Hillsboro should furnish the next president of the Oregon State Senate. Dr. W. D. Wood, recently elected state senator for Washington County, is being groomed by his friends for the position of honor. The presidency will hardly go to Multnomah County, owing to the fact that McArthur is again in line for the speakership of the house, and it is very rare that the executive heads of each branch of the legislature are chosen from Multnomah.

Several solons, upon inquiry, have stated that they are more than favorable to the election of Senator Wood. The senator has a good record for economical legislation, and he is fairly in the ranks of the progressive element. At the last election he subscribed to Statement No. 1—the election of U. S. Senators by the vote of the people, and he realizes fully that such reforms are here as a part of the Oregon system.

Four years in the senate have made him acquainted with the needs of the state, and Washington County would feel honored at the elevation.

The Argus, for one, hopes that Senator Wood will receive the election.

Hon. W. H. Hollis, joint-senator, is favorable to Dr. Wood, and a home support is a mighty fine thing to have in the start—for it sometimes means a successful finish.

RITTER-FRASER

A very pretty wedding was celebrated Saturday evening, Nov. 16, 1912, at the residence of Rod. Taczan, in Helvetia, when Geo. Ritter, a well known young man of that section, was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Fraser, a Scotch lassie, formerly residing at North Plains. Rev. Th. Hillsbrand, of Portland, officiated.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the Swiss Hall, which was neatly decorated, and celebrated the event in true Swiss custom. A dainty supper was served, and the young people enjoyed themselves with dancing and games until a late hour.

We congratulate the young couple for all Helvetia, and wish them a life of sunshine and happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter will be at home to their friends at the Emil Ritter place, upper Helvetia, after December 1.—Contributed.

FOR SALE

Good 8-room house and one acre of land planted to fruit trees. House has bath, pantry, porch, basement, city water, cement walk. Is near electric spot; business section; and new school house. Will sell on easy terms. Or would consider an exchange for improved farm. Call on or address F. M. Heidel, Hillsboro, Ore., Telephone Main 34-1f.

INKLEY-STOWELL

Wm. C. Inkley and Miss Emma M. Stowell, of Banks, were united in marriage in this city, Thursday, Nov. 21, 1912, at the Baptist Parsonage, Rev. B. Clarence Cook officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Inkley, parents of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Clell Carstens, who will reside at Banks.

Geo. R. Bagley made a business trip into Southern Oregon last week.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

Frank Hilliecke and A. Pauter, of near Farmington, were in the city Friday afternoon, en route home from a trip up the county.

Mrs. S. F. Goodwin, of Oak Hills, visited with relatives in Hillsboro the last of the week, and kept bachelor's hall during the absence of Mrs. Goodwin.

Thos. Thornburgh, with the Hillsboro Mercantile, had the misfortune to slip and fall, Monday morning, and when his outstretched hand found lodgement it was penetrated by the sharp end of an ice-pick. The steel entered the palm and tore its way through the hand, clear to the skin of the back of the member. When Tom stood up his hand carried the ice-pick with it. Dr. Bailey attended the injured member, and Tom is to have a Thanksgiving vacation. A few days ago Thornburgh came near suffering from ammonia fumes, and only prompt action on the part of companions saved him from a bad hour. The ammonia leaked in the ice plant and Tom went in to shut off the valve. This he succeeded in doing, but when he started out he was overcome by the pungency of the atmosphere, and he was dragged to the fresh air by two of the boys who were working close by.

Some laddie buck passing by the name of Busch was in Portland the last of the week, and represented to three parties who wanted work that he owned 1,400 acres of land between Hillsboro and North Plains, and that he needed a man and wife and an extra man to equip his place with help. He said that he had 200 head of stock on the ranch, and was milking a lot of cows. He told them that he would meet them at the station Saturday night, and accordingly the trio landed at the station, but no Busch met them. They hunted all day Sunday to locate the "Busch ranch" but to no avail. The people were out their hotel bills, their railway fares, and a couple of days of waiting. If the officers get hold of the "man-with-the-ranch" of 1,400 acres there's likely to be a little Christmas present coming.

I want to buy a small farm on a county road with stock and implements and some clear land. If you are the owner of a farm and want to sell, write and give location, acres clear and a list of stock and improvements. Can make a cash payment of $3000 for the right kind of a place. Address P. O. Box 1120, Portland, Ore. 37-40

A. L. Grebe, of Laurel, has a carrot on exhibition at the Web-foot Realty office that beats anything of its variety ever shown in the county. It was 21 inches in length and the like number of inches in circumference. That Laurel soil must have some virtue.

One must be sold—Full basement, modern improved house on two lots in Hillsboro. Also a good house and 2 1/2 acres in McMinnville, near good school. Ideal town place for good chicken ranch. Must be sold in few days. Get a bargain.—Terms.—C. F. Bansen.

Supt. Church, of the Warren Construction, was in town the last of the week, looking after the work along Washington Street, where his company is doing the paving alongside the Oregon Electric track.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

Jos. McCourt departed Friday morning for visit at Shipperd Springs, on the Washington side of the Columbia. The manager of the Springs is a former Washington County resident, and lived near Cornelius.

Taken up, some time ago—Jersey heifer, about year and half. Owner can have same by proving property, paying damages and feed, and cost of advertising.—Fred Doeber, Banks, R. 1, Box 18. 35-7

Elmer Mays, of the North Plains, was in town Friday. He brought his father, J. R. Mays, of Yamhill, to the city. Mays Sr. had been visiting relatives in the county for several days.

If you wish your cemetery lots taken care of and kept in condition, leave orders at the E. L. McCormick store for the undersigned. Charges reasonable, and best of services.—Samuel Stephens.

J. A. Zimmerman, of Roseland Farm, was in town Friday. He says the roads could be lots worse than they are—even at this time of year.

Harry Flint, of below Scholls, was up Friday, getting ventilation pipes for the school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Milne were in from near North Plains, Friday.

HILLSBORO HIGH GETS ONE FROM ESTACADA

Defeated Visiting Team, Last Saturday, Score 13 to 0

RESULT OF GAME MEANS ANOTHER

Each Now Has One to Its Credit—One More to Decide Season

Hillsboro High School came into its own last Saturday afternoon, at Athletic Park, and defeated the Estacada High School by a score of 13 to 0. Roy Rice umpired the game.

The first touchdown came in the first 10 minutes of play, when two end runs and a series of line bucks with a penalty against Estacada of 15 yards, brought the ball to Estacada's one yard line. Lytle, who played a star game for the locals, was sent over for a touchdown.

In the second half a forward pass to Lytle and a 40 yard run through a scattered field gave the second touchdown. Thompson kicked goal.

Estacada had the ball on Hillsboro's 10 yard line twice, but that was the closest. Morton, Bartlett and Keith did creditable work for the visitors. The forward pass was worked by Dale for 20 yards, but other attempts failed.

WANTS SANITARY BOARD

Before the legislative committee of live stock breeders of Oregon at the Portland Commercial Club, Dr. James Withycombe, director of the Oregon Agricultural College Experiment Station, urged the necessity of a live stock sanitary board.

"At present this work is divided under two heads, with the result of very inefficient work, so far as the State Veterinarian's office is concerned," said Dr. Withycombe. "For the want of proper interest and sympathy from this office, the hog industry is practically wiped out by cholera in sections of Benton county, and the malady is rapidly extending its death-dealing tentacles to herds in adjoining counties. It is a senseless waste of means and effort to have a State Sheep Inspector and a State Veterinarian working under different administrations. These offices, in the interest of economy and greater efficiency, should be consolidated and brought under the management of a State Live Stock Sanitary Board composed of representative live stock breeders. An effort should be made to formulate some feasible plan of co-operative agricultural work between the state and counties for the establishment of demonstration farms and the maintenance of county agricultural advisors. The live stock work of the college should receive better support."

The Tillamook line is clear to the coast, and trains have been running through without trouble since the slides have been cleared away and the rains ceased. Tillamook was bottled up for several weeks, and the advent of the first train was the signal for a great deal of rejoicing.

The change in the Southern Pacific time-table has made it necessary to get Portland-bound mail into the office considerable earlier than in the past. The down mail now closes and leaves about 4:30, while the Portland evening mail arrives early enough that one can get his daily papers and get home by six o'clock—that is, if the train happens to be on time.

Monday Oregonian's note, clipped for its "Half a Century Ago" column: "We learn that the new iron works on the Tualatin River, four miles above Oregon City, will commence operations in 10 or 12 days. The machinery, all of which was made at Oregon City, is being put up. It will employ about 16 hands. A. K. Olds, the proprietor, is an experienced iron miner from the Eastern states."

SCHOLLS NURSERY

The Scholls Nursery can furnish everything in the fruit-tree line this year. Also Loganberry plants, blackcap raspberries, Clark seedling strawberry plants; two-year old Golden Ortleys, and Yellow Newtons, large trees, well headed, for 12 cents per tree. Yearling apple trees four to six foot, 10 cents each.—I. C. Nealeigh, Scholls Nursery, Sherwood, Ore., Route 4. 22-37

Alex Chalmers was in the city Monday morning.

Dan Leisy, of South Tualatin, was a city visitor Friday afternoon.

S. S. Dallas, of Gales Creek, was an Argus caller Monday morning.

Earl Hollenbeck, of above Mountandale, was a city visitor Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Ruth Blair, of Hillsboro, visited with her son, H. T. Blair, wife and daughter, of Portland, Sunday.

Dan Bailey, South Tualatin, and Jas. Cruikshank, of near Laurel, were in town Monday morning.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

Boyd Long, who has been in the Hawaiian Islands all Summer, arrived at Portland the last of the week, and was in the city Sunday.

Mrs. Nevada McDonald, of Clatskanie, was in the city this week, the guest of her son, Oscar Kelsay, and sister, Mrs. A. J. Roy.

For sale—Registered Holstein bull calf, from imported New York stock.—Walter Zetzman, Cornelius, Route 1, one mile S. E. of Centerville. 36-8

Trips to the farming districts disclose the fact that hundreds of farmers are plowing and seeding these days, taking advantage of the cessation of rains.

The first real wintry morning poked its head into the Willamette Valley early Monday, and it was about as cold as it generally gets at this time of year.

D. P. Corrieri always keeps the finest fish in the county. All kinds in season. Also a fine supply of the freshest vegetables. Try him, Second Street, one door South of Koeber's. 25-1f

Sam Raffety, a juror in circuit court, walked in from Mountandale, Sunday—a trip that few men care to take at this time of year. But Sam says he was game—only he won't do it again.

We have a car of alfalfa hay due in a few days. Place your order now, for delivery from the car, and thereby save handling and storage.—Climax Mill, foot of Second Street. Second Street is now open.

Roads were sufficiently good the last of the week to permit autos to make the run out from Portland. One Portland man made the trip out in a little over two hours and 30 minutes—pretty good traveling for this time of year.

Henry Heitkemper, a retired merchant of Portland, died at his home in Oak Grove, a Portland suburb, Nov. 20. He came to Portland in 1871. He left a wife and six daughters. A sister, Mrs. Clara Delsman, resides in Hillsboro.

Died: In Portland, Nov. 22, 1912, Rose Emrich, wife of Ralph J. Emrich, and daughter of Gotlieb Danzer, of Hillsboro. She was aged 22 years, 10 months and 19 days. The funeral was held Sunday, and interment was in the Bethany cemetery.

The Ladies of the Christian Church entertained the business men of the city at a supper Friday evening, in the basement of the church, and the result was an enjoyable time. About 100 plates were laid, and the supper was one that will long be remembered by those at table.

The Tillamook line is clear to the coast, and trains have been running through without trouble since the slides have been cleared away and the rains ceased. Tillamook was bottled up for several weeks, and the advent of the first train was the signal for a great deal of rejoicing.

The change in the Southern Pacific time-table has made it necessary to get Portland-bound mail into the office considerable earlier than in the past. The down mail now closes and leaves about 4:30, while the Portland evening mail arrives early enough that one can get his daily papers and get home by six o'clock—that is, if the train happens to be on time.

The machinery, all of which was made at Oregon City, is being put up. It will employ about 16 hands. A. K. Olds, the proprietor, is an experienced iron miner from the Eastern states."

Wm. Thurston, of near Beaverton, was a city visitor, Monday. He was on the jury, but was excused on account of an arranged trip to California and Arizona, for his wife's health. He leaves next week, and stops a few days at Paso Robles, before going into the Arizona land of perpetual sunshine—the killer of tuberculous microbes.

O. A. C. CONCERT BAND WILL VISIT HILLSBORO

Thirty-Piece Organization, Famous For Good Music

CON. ARCHBOLD IS A MEMBER

Will Play at Crescent Theatre During the Holidays

Inasmuch as C. Archbold, a Hillsboro boy, is a member of the O. A. C. Band, the following bulletin from the college will be of interest to county people:

"Schedule of a dozen concerts, besides the approaching home concert, has been announced by the director of the cadet military band of the Oregon Agricultural College.

Capt. Harry Beard has arranged for the boys to visit ten cities of Western Oregon during the Christmas vacation. Leaving the campus on Christmas eve, they will go first to Cottage Grove, where they will play both afternoon and evening on Christmas day in the moving picture theatre. The next day they go to Grants Pass where they will give a concert under the auspices of the high school. There, as in Medford and in other cities, they hope to assist the high school boys in organizing their own bands.

On Friday, Dec. 27, they will play in Medford, and after playing in Ashland under the auspices of the National Guard Saturday night, they will return to Medford for a sacred concert Sunday afternoon. The next week's programme begins with a concert at Roseburg, Monday night, under the National Guard. On Tuesday the same organization will have charge of the concert at Albany. Then the boys will cross the river to the west side for a series of four concerts at Dallas, McMinnville, Hillsboro and Newberg.

The band will include thirty pieces, and all of the men are players of experience. As they have furnished all the music for the Saturday matinee dances at the college, to which their programs have given the name "Band Informals," and have played at several convocations also, as well as for military drills, they have had much practice together, and expect to offer their audiences excellent music."

NOTICE OF CITY ELECTION

Notice is hereby given that an election will be held at the council room, in the City Hall, in the City of Hillsboro, Washington County, Oregon, on Monday, December 2, 1912, for the purpose of electing the following officers of said City, viz:

One Mayor.
Six Councilmen, (two for each ward).
One Recorder.
One Treasurer.

Polls to be opened at nine o'clock A. M. and close at six o'clock P. M. of said day.
By order of the City Council.
Dated this November 19, 1912.
Benton Bowman,
City Recorder.

Andrew Kostur, of Buxton, was a city visitor the last of the week.

Dr. C. W. Lowe, well known all over the county, was in town Friday, on professional business.

Deputy District Attorney T. H. Tongue Jr. and State Senator Wood were Portland visitors Friday afternoon.

Wm. Wohlschlegel, who recently switched from the dairy to the poultry business, was in town the last of the week.

Do not forget that Dave Corwin will do your plumbing and give you estimates. Satisfactory work always, and prices that can't be given by others. Chennette Row, Second Street.

Willis Huddlestone, turnkey at the penitentiary, Salem, was in the city Friday, on private business. He has been employed at the prison for a number of years, and has proven a faithful official.

Wm. Thurston, of near Beaverton, was a city visitor, Monday. He was on the jury, but was excused on account of an arranged trip to California and Arizona, for his wife's health. He leaves next week, and stops a few days at Paso Robles, before going into the Arizona land of perpetual sunshine—the killer of tuberculous microbes.
