GASTON DRUG STORE RAIDED BY OFFICERS

Several Barrels of Whiskey Brought to the County Seat

DR. J. A. BAKER UNDER $600 BONDS

Has Been Under Arrest Heretofore For Violation of Law

Constable McQuillan went to Gaston Saturday, and raided the drug store of the Gaston Drug Co., J. A. Baker, owner and manager. Several barrels of whiskey and some bottled beer, and some other liquors were taken out of the institution, together with some equipment that smacked suspiciously of a regular bar room. The Grand jury had been working on the case all of last week, and already had evidence sufficient to arrest.

The case is of interest for the reason that some one at Gaston complained to Gov. West a few weeks ago, and the executive sent a detective there to take charge of the case. Detective Ellerman arrived at Gaston under an assumed name and opened a lunch counter, and was soon on the inside of the blind pig affair, according to his statement to officials.

Meantime the Grand jury had been working on other lines and had the evidence to indict and convict.

Baker was brought down Saturday evening and gave $600 bonds to answer to circuit court.

[illegible] has [illegible] been [illegible] ago or [illegible] charged with the same offense.

The court house Monday morning looked like a distillery, with several barrels of booze resting in the sheriff's office.

The Sheriff's office had more "frumenti" in its corridor the past week than at any time since the county was organized. The supply was due to the Gaston drug store, and the whiskey taken in by the officials was prime and of good bead. Spring water and Kentucky moonshine were the ingredients, and there about 30,000 headaches in the lot. If some one had been caught in the toils of the law with about 300 laying hens the egg-nog supply could have produced all kinds of merriment in the shrievalty with the proper kind of "mixer."

NOTICE

As I leave for the Eastern Hospitals and Paris by December 16, all unpaid bills should be settled at once. Those knowing themselves indebted to the undersigned are requested to call and settle immediately.

38-9 Dr. J. P. Tamiesie.
Hillsboro, Or., Dec. 5, 1912.

MRS. ZIMMERMAN

Mrs Susanna Zimmerman, who lived near Helvetia several years ago, died at her home, 1441 Virginia Street, Portland, Dec. 1. She was born in Berne, Switzerland, July 4, 1848, and came to Oregon in 1872, crossing the Isthmus of Panama with her parents, the Wengers. Two brothers, David and Chris. Wenger, reside at Helvetia, as well as a sister, Mrs. John Ritter. Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman, her husband being Zacharias Zimmerman, to whom she was married in 1875. The children surviving are: Zacharias, George D., John G., Rudolph C., Carl W., Harry C., Susanna K. and Mrs. Jacob Reisch, all of Portland, and A. J. Zimmerman, of Goble, Or.

Herman G. Luck, of above Mountaindale, was in the city Monday.

Chas. Hickethier, of Cedar Mill, was on the streets Monday morning.

I want to buy a small farm on a county road with stock and impliments and some clear land. If you are the owner of a farm and want to sell, write and give location, acres clear and a list of stock and improvements. Can make a cash payment of $3000 for the right kind of a place. Address P. O. Box 1120, Portland, Ore. 37-40

Hop buyers have been scouring the county the past week, trying to buy on the present market. It is said that experienced growers have been holding back, feeling that the market will open stronger in a short time, owing to a poor crop in California, and a poor crop in England. Those who have watched production year after year aver that there will not be hops enough to last the brewers until the next crop, to say nothing of those lines of manufacture in which the product is used.

One must be sold—Full basement, modern improved house on two lots in Hillsboro. Also a good house and 2½ acres in McMinnville, near good school. Ideal town place for good chicken ranch. Must be sold [illegible]

[illegible] and wife depart December 16 for an extended trip to New York, Paris, and other Eastern and European points. They go via New Orleans, and will be absent all Winter. While away Dr. Tamiesie will visit the big hospitals in both America and Europe, and put in his time with the celebrated medical and surgical centers.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

The Japanese are rapidly being civilized—the first Jap divorce case from the county was filed the other day. Sumajiro Harada asks for divorce from Asano Harada on the grounds of desertion. They were married at Seattle, in 1908. The husband is a gardener at Sherwood.

If you wish your cemetery lots taken care of and kept in condition, leave orders at the E. L. McCormick store for the undersigned. Charges reasonable, and best of services.—Samuel Stephens.

Gene Dant, of Reedville, was in town Monday. He says that very little Fall grain has been sown down his way, owing to the wet weather. Farmers, however, were busy plowing, getting ready for seeding as soon as it becomes sufficiently dry.

Do not forget that Dave Corwin will do your plumbing and give you estimates. Satisfactory work always, and prices that can't be given by others. Chenette Row, Second Street.

The sub-station of the Washington-Oregon Corporation burned out at Forest Grove Saturday night, and crew of the local plant had an all-night and Sunday job getting the machinery into shape.

D. P. Corrieri always keeps the finest fish in the county. All kinds in season. Also a fine supply of the freshest vegetables. Try him. Second Street, one door South of Koeber's. 25-tf

Jas. Gibson, mayor of Reedville, was up to the city Monday, bumping in on election day to see how the county seaters conducted affairs for the day.

For sale—Registered Holstein bull calf, from imported New York stock.—Walter Zetzman, Cornelius, Route 1, one mile S. E. of Centerville. 36-8

Effingham Schieffelin, of Centerville, was in the city Monday. He reports his brother-in-law, Tom Beagle, very low, and his wife also on the sick list.

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

HILLSBORO HIGH WINS FROM HILL MILITARY

Takes Thanksgiving Game From Visitors Fourteen to 0

LYTLE STARS FOR LOCAL TEAM

Thompson and Wilkes in Game, Goals and Touchdowns

Thanksgiving Day football in Hillsboro resulted in a victory for the Hillsboro High School by a score of 14 to 0 over the Hill Military second team. It was a game abounding with sensational features and playing, and yet, at no time was Hillsboro in danger of defeat.

From a standpoint of weight the two contenders were evenly matched, and at the end of the first half neither had scored.

In the second half Hillsboro rolled up fourteen points.

Lytle played the star game for Hillsboro and if he keeps his gait will be heard from in future gridiron plays in Oregon. His 60 yard plunge through the Hill line for a touchdown was the one best thriller of the game. All the Hillsboro lads put up a good game, and Lee Thompson and Ward Wilkes handled a forward pass that meant a touchdown. Thompson kicked both goals.

Dr. Elmer Smith, the Hillsboro coach, feels very proud of his youngsters. Clay Freeman officiated as referee. Roy Rice [illegible] umpire, and Boyatt was [illegible]man. Those partici[illegible] Kings[illegible] Rollins, [illegible] Wilkes, Will Ne[illegible] Jas. Larsen, Arthur Conn[illegible] Fred Dack and Henry Danneel.

START FOR FAIR

The Orenco School Children's Fair association was organized Friday evening, B. W. Barnes, county superintendent-elect; Professor S. S. Duncan, superintendent of Yamhill county; W. T. Macey, president of the Yamhill School Fair association, and M. McDonald, president of the Oregon Nursery company, Orenco, being the speakers. The executive committee of the new association is composed of Rev. L. M. Boozer, W. J. Head, R. L. Wann, H. V. Meade and F. W. Power. Fifty adults have already joined and 80 of the school children. Much enthusiasm is shown and there is every promise of a splendid fair next year.

One half block south of the school house will be planted in vegetables and all garden products, while a half block along the railroad track will be converted into a flower garden. The girls will have charge of the latter. The ground was donated for the use of the boys and girls by the Oregon Nursery company.

In addition to this the Orenco Horticultural club, another uplift society, will hold weekly meetings for study and consultation, and at least one meeting during each month will be an open meeting with a speaker from abroad, lecturing on some live horticultural subject. Among the speakers already promised are several members of the faculty of the Oregon Agriculture college; W. K. Newell, president, and H. M. Williamson, secretary, of the state board of horticulture; A. C. Goodrich commissioner for the First district and H. C. Atwell, expresident of the State Horticultural society.

O. A. C. will have a Farmers' Week at Corvallis, beginng December 9. The Winter Short Course will hold from Jan. 6 to Feb. 7. This last course is always attended by a number of Washington County's progressive farmers. The railways are giving a one and one-third fare for the Farmers' Week.

Taken up: Nov. 29, an old Jersey cow. Owner prove property, pay charges, advertising, etc., and take same away. J. T. Heard, 5 miles southeast of Hillsboro, on river road. Address is Hillsboro, Route 2. 38-40

Otto Wohler, of Oak Park, was in town Saturday. He still has his 1912 onion crop on hand, and expects that prices will raise in a few weeks, as the California crop will soon be exhausted. The Oregon onion has a chance, later.

Jas. Beggs and wife, of Yamhill, were in town Saturday.

Chas. Koeber, of Scholls, was in the city Saturday.

Hon. H. V. Gates was out from Portland, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rhea visited with the Bigelows, in Portland, Thanksgiving.

John A. Chapman, representative-elect, of Middleton, was in the city the last of the week.

Geo. Bidwell, of near Leisyville, was in the county seat Saturday.

Carl Iler, of near Timber, was in the county seat the last of the week.

A. J. Killin, of above Banks, was in the city the last of the week.

Christian Zurcher and wife, of Cedar Mill, were in the city Saturday.

A. L. Holcomb and Frank Imbrie, of below Orenco, were in the county seat Saturday afternoon.

K. N. Staehr, of Forest Grove, was down to the county seat Friday, greeting friends and incidentally transacting business.

For sale—Stock carrots at $5 per ton.—Mrs. Bolton, Witch Hazel Station, on Southern Pacific Railway. 38

Married, at Forest Grove, Nov. 16, 1912, Rev. Gould officiating, Clyde M. Perry and Marion Martin.

C. J. Cullison and wife, of The Dalles, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Thornburgh, Thanksgiving.

Chas. Johnson, of East Hillsboro, has recovered from his recent pulmonary attack, and is again able to be on the streets.

Married, in Multnomah, Oct. 21, 1912, J. Elgin Wallan and Frances E. Chapman, of Wash[illegible] Co., Rev. Hawkins of[illegible]

[illegible] have [illegible] Bend, are now spen[illegible] days at Seattle, Wash., the guests of friends and relatives.

Married, at the Beaverton Catholic Church, Nov. 26, 1912, Rev. Father Flynn officiating, Jacob Kemmer and Mary Muessig.

Married: At St. Ferdinand's Catholic Church, Nov. 30, 1912, Rev. Father Conway officiating, Erin Geo. Stowell and Miss Anna Boos.

Married: Nov. 10, 1912, Rev. Jas. Knodell officiating, Orville Moore and Dorothy Willard, at the home of W. S. Willard, near Sherwood.

Married: At the Verboort Catholic Church, Rev. Father LeMiller officiating, Amos Lahaie and Minnie Vandervelden, Oct. 23, 1912.

John Bohm, who lived over in South Tualatin several years, and sold out two or three years back, writes from Cummings, N. D., that he has purchased a home at that place.

The Argus acknowledges a letter of thanks from John M. Scott, general passenger agent of the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon, for publicity in the Harriman cup given at the recent land show.

For Sale—An iron-clad stump puller, two-horse; a powerful machine; nearly new; 100 ft. 7-8 in. cable, 28 ft. anchor cable, 1 in.—Owner, Otto Wohler, Hillsboro, R. 4, one mile south of Oak Park, Phone 35x1. 38-40

Brakeman Parks, of Hillsboro, had a rib broken in a mixup over at Wheeler, Tillamook Co., Friday. He was working on the freight run between Hillsboro and Tillamook. Internal injuries are not feared, and he is expected to be as good as ever in a few days.

N. Bangs, who started the Timber townsite, and whose subsequent contract to put in a piece of county road caused a circular, now famous in political annals, to be circulated, was in the city Friday, registered at the Hotel Washington. Bangs' projects in the county were not peculiarly successful, but he still retains his avordupois, and still wears the same old smile.

Wm. Emrick and wife, of Hall, Clark Co., Wash., are over to Hillsboro and Forest Grove, on a visit. Thanksgiving they enjoyed with Mr. Emrick's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wehrung, and they later visited with Mrs. Frank Bernards, Forest Grove, a sister of Mrs. Emrick. They are seriously thinking of selling out and coming over to this vicinity, where Mr. Emrick spent his boyhood, to make this their permanent residence.

ORENCO WILL HOLD A POULTRY SHOW

Over One Hundred Birds Are Promised For Exhibit

DOORS WILL OPEN IN MORNING

Will Endeavor to Make it Annual Event —Murrow to Judge

Orenco, Or., Nov. 28.—The first poultry show in the history of this place is to be held in the basement of the Presbyterian Church here on Friday, December 6. The entries will be free and open to all comers.

The plan is to make the show an annual event, if the first should be successful. Rev. L. M. Boozer, pastor of the church, is interested in centering the activities of the town around the church, and has suggested a poultry show as one of the methods.

The committee handling the exhibit is composed of Rev. Boozer, Dr. W. B. Cummingham, W. J. Head, G. C. Hatt and T. P. Goodin. The entries will be received up to 10 o'clock on the morning of the show, at which time all birds must be in place. Birds will be received after 7 o'clock that morning.

Over 100 birds have already been promised and several who will have birds in the poultry show in Portland the following week, have agreed to exhibit at Orenco before shipping to Portland.

As there is no entry fee, there will be no cash prizes awarded, but ribbons will be given in each class. J. Murrow, of Hillsboro, who has had considerable experience, will be the judge. All [illegible] by comparison.

[illegible] been ar[illegible] White Orp[illegible] dotte, White Plymouth [illegible] Barred Plymouth Rock, White and Brown Leghorns and Rhode Island Red, and ribbons are being provided for 15 classes. Ribbons will also be given for the best solid-colored and the best parti-colored birds in the show, and the best bird regardless of variety; also for the best cock and the best hen bird in the show.

Notice of District Road Meeting

Notice is hereby given that a road meeting is hereby called, to be held at Hazeldale Store, in Road District No.25, Washington County, Oregon, on the 21st day of December, 1912, at 2 p. m., to determine the extent of improvement to be made on any county road, or roads, or portion thereof, said road district, and to levy a special tax to defray the expense thereof, not to exceed 10 mills on the dollar, on all real and personal taxable property in said road district.

Dated this 28th day of Nov., 1912.

J. Q. Johnson, Road Sup. and 16 Freeholders and Taxpayers of District.

GIRLS CLUB NEWS

Helvetia, Ore., Nov. 28, 1912.—Several members of the Bachelor Girls' Club last Saturday enjoyed a social function tendered in their honor in Portland, by Miss Miggins, a San Francisco friend of Miss Lesa Moor. The Bachelor Girls present were: Anna and Elsie Grossen, Lesa Moor, Bertha Schmidt and Beatrice Tunstall. The program of the party included a dinner and theatre party, and the girls state the event was about the most pleasant in which they have participated since the organization of the B. G. C. Club seven months ago.

The girls have recently had a party or two entertaining a number of their most illustrious young men acquaintances. One of their most praiseworthy efforts during the past month was an elaborately planned and well carried out affair held at the home of the Misses Grossen. At this party a special effort was made with the assistance of an expert to diagnose the characters of the young men present. Interesting and amusing facts were brought to light as to certain traits of two or three of the boys who happen to have stolen the hearts of certain fair members of the Club.

Yesterday the girls were entertained at the home of Miss Lesa Moor.

J. C. Smith, of Forest Grove, was a city visitor Friday afternoon.

Henry David, of near Forest Grove, was down to the city last Friday, on circuit court business.

J. A. Campbell and family, of Amity, were down to Hillsboro Thanksgiving Day, guests of relatives, Jas. H. Jack and family.
