ROYAL ROSARIANS WORK FOR OREGON

Make Trip From Portland to California Cities

EACH BEARS INSIGNIA—THE ROSE
Parades Were Viewed by More Than 400,000 People

The invasion of the Winter Tourist Centers, Sacramento, San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Los Angeles, San Diego, Pasadena, etc., by the Royal Rosarians, of Portland, was a great success. The actions were sharp and decisive, the sieges always ended in unconditional surrender to the gay warriors in spotless white, bearing the rose, the emblem of their Native City "The City of Roses."

The Royal Rosarians, organized to assist the good work of the Portland Rose Festival Association, has performed a great service to Portland, to Oregon and to the Pacific Northwest.

About 100 business men and their wives left Portland Dec. 25, by special train, via the Southern Pacific, over the beautiful Shasta Route and "The Road of a Thousand Wonders." All the principal cities of California were visited. The California Tourist season is now at its height. Thousands upon thousands of Tourists, some wealthy, others with only moderate means, from all corners of United States, Canada and Foreign countries, are now wintering in delightful, sunny California.

It is estimated that in the parade at the Floral Festival, at Pasadena, alone the Rosarians were reviewed by more than 400,000 people, most of them tourists.

The advertising value of the visit of the Rosarians to California cannot be estimated. Of the people who saw them, met the members, or received a personal or printed invitation to visit Portland and the Pacific Northwest next Summer, many will come this way. We hold that, if the people come to Oregon, they are sure to be fascinated with our beautiful country, and many will remain permanently.

The Royal Rosarians are doing a splendid work in the development of Oregon, by inviting people to Oregon. Let us do likewise.

FURNITURE STORE CHANGE

Grover Coombs has purchased the furniture stock of A. C. Donelson, on Third Street, and will give it his attention hereafter. Mr. Coombs was formerly interested in the Owl Electric Co., and is well known to Hillsboro people. He is a good business man, and will endeavor to meet the wants of the community in the furniture line. He will carry the best lines obtainable, and solicits a share of the public patronage. The store is in the Donelson brick, just east of the postoffice building.

No. 1, Vol. 1, of the North Plains Optimist, W. E. Simpson, proprietor, reached the Argus exchange desk this week.

Geo. Biersdorf, of North Tualatin Plains, was in town Saturday. He recently sold his hops to Pixley, of Klauber, Wolf & Netter. He was paid 17 cents, and had he waited a day or two he could have received a little more—but such is the experience of hopmen.

Joseph Taylor, aged 84 years, died at Forest Grove, last week. He was born in Northville, N. Y., in 1828, and was married to Mrs. Kate Morris, at Mechanicsburg, O., in 1853. His widow, aged 82 years, and a son, R. M. Taylor, survive. The funeral took place Saturday, interment being in Forest View cemetery.

G. J. Marty, well known in the Beaverton section, was struck by an unknown man on First Street, in Portland, one day last week, and has been in a critical condition at the Good Samaritan Hospital, for several days. Marty, according to his brother's statement, was walking along the street when he accidentally collided with a man and woman. The woman said something belligerent and Marty was struck by the man, being felled to the sidewalk. He rolled into the gutter, where he laid for some time, passing people thinking he was drunk. A policeman was summoned to take Marty to jail, but when he found it was a confusion that was giving him his sleep took the unfortunate man to the hospital. His brother, E. T. Marty, has sued out John Doe warrants for the man who was belligerent. The Martys are all well-behaved and no censure is attached to the injured party.

Last Friday Attorney John M. Wall received through the parcels post a pair of logger shoes. They were mailed at Portland and the name of the sender was not legible, written so purposely. On the paper were the words: "The Walking is Good Back to Washington." John M. has an idea that the sender was Loring K. Adams, the former Hillsboro attorney, and he ventures the assertion that Adams was trying him out on the matter of the Oregon Wilson vote.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stevedoom lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

Engineer Chester Alexander had a narrow escape Thursday, above Timber, on the P. R. & N. His locomotive struck a tree which had fallen on the track, and the engine went on its side in the ditch, the log keeping it from rolling down a 20 foot embankment. Chester went through the cab window, but the fireman remained in the cab. Neither was injured, but it was a close call. There was only about four feet of snow in the mountains at the time.

Z. M. LaLue, of Forest Grove, was a city visitor Friday. Z. M. is an aspirant for the Forest Grove postmastership under the Wilson administration-to-come, and has a large petition of Grove residents asking for his appointment.

J. A. Fisher, of Banks, is at San Pedro, Cal., for the winter. He writes that the rains are falling in that section. San Pedro is quite a lumber point, and employs hundreds of men. The place is building rapidly.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market—made in Oregon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a Grand Marca. 12tf

Engineer Quinn went over to Wheeler, Saturday, to again take charge of his engine on the work train. He had in the neighborhood of six miles to walk, but he was over the bad snow line when he took to the ties.

Wanted: Man and wife to work on dairy farm.—Fred Rood, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 5. Three miles southeast of city. Telephone, Rood's Division.

Harry McLaughlan, engineer on the Tillamook line, reported four feet of snow up at the summit, Thursday last, and says that the engines had time to plow through the "beautiful."

We deliver A1 fir, four foot or 16 inch, at market price. Also deliver hay, baled or loose, and straw.—G. E. Gibbens, City 424, Old Fair Grounds. 43-5

Smokers want the best—therefore call for a Schiller or a Grand Marca, when you want to see the blue wreath curl.

R. Strohmayer, of Banks, was here the last of the week, attending the funeral of his granddaughter, the late Irene Boeker.

A. C. Mulloy, of Laurel, was a city visitor last Friday afternoon.

Ed. Northrup, of above North Plains, was in Monday, predicting a little snowfall.

Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, was in town Monday, attending the German Mutual Fire Insurance meeting. Mr. Ritter is secretary of the organization, and he has business with several hundred members.

It is rather peculiar what geography will do for a locality. Here in Hillsboro there is no snow when Garden Home is swathed in a garment of white, and Forest Grove has the beautiful snow on the streets. Monday morning the electric cars were covered with about two inches of white coming out of the Rose city, while here in Hilltown the "green grass was growing all around."

Sadie Atkins, wife of N. L. Atkins, former Oregon Electric agent at Forest Grove, has sued for divorce. She alleges they were wed Sept. 20, 1905, and they have one child. She wants the custody of the little girl; $75 for attorney fee, and $15 per month alimony. She says that Atkins is capable of earning $75 per month. Atkins deserted her last July, according to her complaint. The wife swears that the husband continually found fault with her and verbally abused her in and out of season.

The meeting at the court house Tuesday night should bear fruit. Oregon should keep all the money possible at home, and Oregon made articles can fill the bill. More factories in Portland will naturally mean a greater consuming population, and that is what Washington County needs above all other things. Greater demand always means stable prices for our dairy and agricultural products. The meeting has a double significance to Hillsboro—for it is a Hillsboro woman who is attempting to get the buyer and seller together—and both should be Oregonians as nearly as it is possible for such a condition to obtain.

A resident of the Newberg suburbs hove into the limelight last Friday. He was over on some business and sat in a barber chair in one of Hillsboro's shops to have his alfalfa trimmed. When about half through he asked what they charged. The barber told him that 35 cents was the Hillsboro tariff, when the fellow objected. He told the tonsorial artist that he had never paid over 25 cents for a timber trim in his life, and he would be damned if he would this time. The chair was immediately sprung and the Newberg man went to the floor with half of his crop harvested and half on one side of his bean. He presented a rather ludicrous sight, but he didn't seem to care. The last seen of him was driving across the long bridge, with one side of his head catching the west wind on the close out spots, and the long growth on the windward side flowing out towards the Joe Hare ranch.

Edw. Boze, of Farmington, was a city visitor last Friday.

H. R. Ediger, of Bethany, was in the city Monday, and called on the Argus.

John Heisler, of Gales Creek, was a city visitor Monday, on legal business.

Geo. Vanderzanden, of Banks, was a city visitor Monday, and while here called on the Argus.

A. E. Mead, of Buxton, was in town the last of the week, on business with the county court.

John R. Bailey, of Buxton, was in the city the last of the week. He reported a foot of snow at Buxton, last Thursday evening.

Thos. Connel and family, of near North Plains, have moved into their new home, on the corner of Fourth and Baseline.

Fred Rood and family have moved to the city for the winter, and are residing in the Roy residence, corner Fifth and Fir.

Mrs. Victor H. Traylor, of Portland, accompanied by her son, John Richard, was the guest of her father, J. E. Loxley, of Hillsboro, last week.

The Y. M. C. A. convention closed at Forest Grove, Sunday night, with a lecture and a banquet at the M. E. Church. The session was well attended.

The Artisans are giving a basket social at the Doneison Hall, tonight. There will be a good program along with the other features of the evening.

German lady wishes a position on a farm as housekeeper. She has a little daughter, 8 years old, who must accompany. Country position will be welcomed. Apply Telephone Farmers 746. 44-5

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Latimer, of 208 Union Avenue, Portland, January 3, 1913, a daughter, weight, 10j pounds. The little lady has grand parents in Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young. Grandpa Young made a visit to the newcomer, Tuesday.

Clarence Leroy Holcomb, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Holcomb, died at Mabel, Lane County, last Tuesday evening. The child was one year, 9 months and 19 days old. The little boy was a grandson of the late Grant Holcomb, formerly of Bethany, Washington County.—Springfield News.

T. A. Lambert, formerly of Washington State, has purchased the Campbell greenhouse, Seventh and Fir, and has taken possession. Mr. Lambert is a florist of experience, and he expects to thoroughly remodel the place, for a business second to none in the city. He and his family will move to the place this week.

Born, Friday, Jan. 3, 1913, to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilmot, twin daughters. The hand of death claimed them both; one Friday, and the other, Sunday. The sympathy of a host of friends is with the bereaved family.—Springfield News.—The mother is a daughter of the late Grant Holcomb, well known at West Union.

The Burns newspaper tells of a Seattle man and wife who recently brought in $1,100 worth of coyote pelts to the county seat. This they do each year, and the $1,100 represents the smallest amount that they take away with them on coyote bounties. The wife wears an entire suit of coyote fur, skirt, waist, outside furs and all. Farther than that the newspaper man does not say, but it is suspected that her lingerie is not of the same material.

Julius Sorenson, the Main street barber, had an incipient blaze in his home, about seven o'clock Monday morning, with no damage. Mrs. Sorenson had inadvertently left some lard in the oven the night before and when Julius built a roaring fire the next morning it went into a blaze and flames were shooting in all directions. The alarm was sounded but Sorenson had the blaze extinguished before the department reached the place. There was no damage excepting a little scorching here and there.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that the following examinations will be held to secure eligibles and fill vacancies in the different departments: Topographic draftsman, February 5 and 6; surveyor, February 5 and 6; timber scaler, February 5; engineer, sawyer and general mechanic, in the service, February 5; assistant chemist, February 6; physician, February 6; forest and field clerk, March. Further information concerning these examinations can be secured from Z. A. Leigh, at the Portland postoffice.

Road District 45 has been created in the North Plains section, but the lines have not yet been fully decided upon, and the appointment of supervisor is in abeyance.

Judge Reasoner called the attention of the board to the fact that the law requires all doors of public buildings to swing outward, in case of disaster from fire, and the Judge was ordered to have the south door of the court house changed to comply with the law.
