Adversity by Banking
your money Now

Every old man is the ripened fruit of his younger days. A man does not grow old over night. Age creeps upon us, and if extravagance is stealing away our money, age is stealing our capacity for work and preparing us for a desolate old age. If you wish to be comfortable, you must begin putting away your money now, then when old age comes you can fall back upon the money you BANKED when you were younger. Do your banking with us. We pay 4 per cent. interest.

PYTHIAN FRATERNITIES HOLD INSTALLATIONS

Three Afternoon Affairs Celebrated the Past Week in City

NEW OFFICERS TAKE STATIONS

Three Banquets Resultant From Mid-Winter Storms

The Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters of Hillsboro celebrated a three days affair, Friday and Saturday, and Sunday evening, in the matter of jointly installing their officers for the current terms. The joint installation was dated for Friday night—the evening of the big storm, and while about fifty reported, there was no light, and postponement followed, not, however, until those present regaled themselves with a splendid banquet. Saturday evening nearly one hundred reported and the officers were installed. Sunday afternoon and evening a social visit was indulged in the hall and club rooms, and the table was again spread. All in all it was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held by the Pythian fraternities in the city. As a result of the sessions two new members are now on their way to cross the burning sands.

Mrs. J. W. Goodin, of Glencoe, was installing officer for the Pythian Sisters, and she was assisted by Mesdames Janie Sewell and Jennie Long. Miss Margaret Hoyt officiated as Goddess of Flowers, with Velda and Lila Koeber, Helen Connell and Margaret Long as flower bearers. The Pythian Sisters' officers installed: Mrs. E. L. Moore, past chief; Mrs. Emma McKinney, most excellent chief; Mrs. Lucy Roush, excellent senior; Mrs. J. B. Wilkes, excellent junior; Mrs. Wm. Nelson, manager; Miss Elinor Wilkes, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Susie Morgan, mistress of finance; Mrs. F. J. Williams, protector; Mrs. J. W. Connell, guard of outer temple.

The Pythian officers: Earl L. Donelson, chancellor commander; Ralph Wann, past chancellor; August Tews, vice chancellor; John Becker, prelate; B. A. Barber, master of work; Fred Everett, keeper of records and seal; Fred J. Sewell, master of finance; L. W. House, master of exchequer; Wm. Nelson, master at arms; Earl Luther, inner guard; W. H. Taylor, outer guard.

F. J. Williams had charge of the military escort, and L. M. Hoyt, of the Oregon Brigade Uniform Band, and John Becker and L. W. House assisted the installing officer.

The installations were interspersed with a program—Glen Taylor, piano solo; Florence Taylor, piano; Stella Nelson, piano; Stella Nelson and Orpha Reagan, duet, piano; Mrs. Fred Sewell, piano solo; Earl Donelson, violin, and Mrs. Sewell, piano; Miss Butler, vocal solo; addresses by members.

"Lucky Jack" Peterson, of Portland, is a dead game sport. When the snow commenced falling last Friday morning in Portland, Peterson was offered a wager that he could not take his machine from the Rose City to Hillsboro, thence to Scholls, thence to Newberg, and back to Portland, and get back by six o'clock the next morning. The bet was for $100. Peterson started at once, and reached Hillsboro with his sixty-horse power car at six o'clock, and after dining, made Scholls, via Granger's, then to Sherwood and Newberg, and then into Portland, arriving at six in the morning. He burned up about five dollars worth of gasoline, ploughing through nine inches of the beautiful, and won his bet. After paying his chauffeur and expenses, he had $80 for his night's work—but it was not the $80 that encouraged him to take the bet—it was just the novelty and the almost impossibility of winning the wager.

Chief of Police Blaser is watching the press reports noting the fact that some Eastern cities are requiring policemen to study medicine and surgery so as to be able to lend first aid to the injured. Chief Blaser thinks it would be quite a stunt to be able to take a sack needle and sew up the scalp of some recalcitrant prisoner after he had "patted" him on the head with his club, or be well enough up in materia medica to give some booze champion an emetic when he is too far gone to know what he is doing.

A. S. Fletcher, of Yamhill County, and Laura Prickett, of this county, were united in marriage, Jan. 18, 1913, Judge W. D. Smith officiating.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.

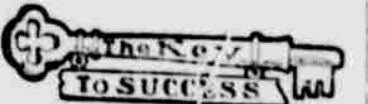

Maria Duggett, Plaintiff,

George M. Duggett, Defendant.

To George M. Duggett, above named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon. You are hereby required and commanded to be and appear in the above entitled court and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above entitled case, on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons in the Hillsboro Argus the date of the first publication thereof being January 9, 1913, and the date of the last publication thereof being February 27, 1913, to wit, on or before February 27, 1913; and you will please take notice that if you fail to so appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the marriage and marriage contracts now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, upon the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities, rendering plaintiff's life burdensome, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for such other and further decrees as may be necessary and proper in the premises.

This summons is served upon by publication pursuant to an order of Honorable D. B. Reasner, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated on the 5th day of January, 1913, and which order requires that you appear and answer on or before February 27, 1913.
