Oregon will fare well in the United States senate, with Chamberlain, and even Lane, on important committees. It will be noticed that Oregon has been well taken care of in appropriations - and it must be remembered that we have but a small population. Yet, the state will get a big sum for the improvement of its waterways - much more than was ever before granted.

It is estimated that the state tax will be over three times as much next year. Taxpayers will soon find out that its law-making body needs a "governor," and a governor with backbone. West has done all he could to protect the taxpaying property of the state, and when he takes the field he will have an easy time making his position clear.

The county judge and commissioners do not need the services of Portland people in the administration of county road work. If the good people of Portland want an auto road through the Rex-Tigard district, let them live up to their pledges. The county is ready to live up to its promise.

The Mexican republic is a joke. Young Diaz is having a hard time keeping peace. Power that is born of assassination is always a treacherous foothold, and it looks more and more as though the United States will sooner or later have to take a hand in the imbroglio.

Those in a position to have inside information say that the immigration to Oregon this Spring and Summer is to be more than double that of any preceding year.

The sainted John Wanamaker the other day paid Uncle Sam $100,000 for violation of the tariff law. John is still held up to the small boy, however, as the essence of all that is saintly.

F. Rufener, of Helvetia, was a city caller today.

Robt. Banks, of Banks, was in town today.

Load or two of good oat hay for sale; loose. - A. C. Archbold.

Henry Matthes, of near Laurel, was in town yesterday.

Born, to the wife of L. M. Ingram, Hillsboro, March 7, a son.

Herman and Aug. Boge, of Farmington, were in the city this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley B. Everett, of Portland, spent Sunday with Franklin Everitt and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Brown, of Portland, visited relatives and friends here, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, of Forest Grove, visited relatives in the city Tuesday.

Dr. Elmer H. Smith was at Aberdeen, Wash., Saturday, where he operated on a child with a congenital deformed foot.

E. L. Maples, of Chehalem Mountain, was down to the city today. He says he left snow on the ground at his place, but the weather was still fine, anyway.

Mrs. C. E. Galey, of Third and Maple, sustained a broken jaw last Friday, the result of a fall from a vehicle. Dr. Erwin attended the injury.

Herman Bishop, the Mountain-dale sawmill man, was in town today. He hopes for a good run this Summer, when things open up.

The Peoples' Theatre will next Monday and Tuesday evenings put a two-reel feature, the "Little Turkoat." Do not fail to see this photo play.

R. T. Simpson, of Baxton, was in town today, enroute home from a Portland trip. Bob says he is going out of the saloon business May 1, and is going to go into sawmill work, just for a change.

You spend nearly one-half your time resting - then why not try our celebrated Sealy mattress, guaranteed for 20 years. It will bring slumber to you when all other mattresses fail. - Grover Combs, successor to A. C. Donelson, Third Street.

P. J. Vanderzanden, of Banks, was in town today. He belongs to a family of nine brothers, and together with the father, this makes ten votes. P. J. thinks that the nine brothers can put up a ball game against any individual family in the state of Oregon. This is the first time in the 32 years they have been in the county that a Vanderzanden son has been called on the jury - and P. J. is expected here next Monday morning on the regular March venire.

For sale, reasonable, if taken by March 15 - 3 or 4 cows. - E. E. Nickerson, Vernonia, Or. 50-5.

C. Helms, of Blooming, who has been one of the Argus family for a good many years, was in the city today. Away back in the nineties he was brought to the office by Herman Schulerich, who was then in the Schulerich store, and he has been on the list ever since.

Bernard Ostermann, of Centerville, was in the city today. He called on the Argus, which he has taken for 19 years this date, he being one of the charter members of the Argus family. He reports that his son, Herman is now working at Banks, in the Wunderlich store.

The county court is exacting monthly reports of expenditures from the various supervisors. For the month of February, all of the 46 districts reporting excepting eight, there was work done amounting to $2,386.88, and aside from this expenditure the supervisors were paid $485.24.

Hard to Remember.
No rain, looks upon the bough,
No fox has lingered here to stug,
No tree is gnawed by blossoms now,
But somewhere it is spring.
No buds are budding on the tree,
No tender budding in a wing,
No buds are swelling on the tree,
But somewhere it is spring.
The clouds are gray, and oft I find
It hard to keep remembering
While winter's blasts are so unkind
That somewhere it is spring.
- Chicago Record-Herald.

Easier to Catch.
"As the years go by women are grown used to more and more tired of being pursued by the men."
"I think you are mistaken."
"Why not?"
"As the years go by they make their skirts tighter and tighter." - Houston Post.

Not Making In Holland.
The manufacture of fishing nets has for centuries been a very important industry in Holland, which in the seventeenth century had a fleet of over 2,000 smacks engaged in the herring fishery. The business is still a flourishing one.

Sublime Porte.
"Sublime porte" is one of those European expressions for Turkish institutions which are never used by the Turks themselves. The Ottoman government's official title for itself is Sublime Porte.

C. R. Adams, of Scholls, was to the city yesterday afternoon.
Reinert Olson, Plaintiff, vs.
Anna Olson, Defendant.
To Anna Olson, above defendant:
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby requested to appear and answer the Complaint filed against you in the above entitled court, and cause on or before Friday the 25th day of April, 1913, and you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem most equitable.
This summons is published by order of Hon. D. B. Reasoner, Judge of the county court of Washington County, Oregon, in the absence of the Circuit Judge from Washington County, and said order is dated the 10th day of March, 1913. The date of the first publication of this summons is Thursday, March 13, 1913, and the date of the last publication of this summons is Thursday, April 24, 1913.
Clyde Richardson,
Attorney for Plaintiff, 618 Cham Court Bldg., Portland, Ore.
