DR. AND MRS. TAMIESIE WELCOMED BY THrong

Townsmen and Ladies Tender Reception at Hotel Washington

HON. H. V. GATES AS TOAST-MASTER

Travelers Glad to be Home Under the Stars and Stripes

About sixty people tendered Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Tamiesie a reception at the Hotel Washington, Friday evening, the function being in honor of their return from a trip to London and Paris. The dining room was beautifully decorated with streamers, and the tables were profuse with cut flowers. At the foot of the table was an outline map of the two hemispheres, with "Hillsboro," the only town on the continents—carrying a background of welcome. It was unique, and delighted the assemblage.

Hon. H. V. Gates, of Portland, presided as toastmaster. On his right were Dr. and Mrs. Tamiesie, and on his left were Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, of Alexander Court, Portland, Dr. Smith having been abroad on research, and having met with the Tamiesies when they were in London.

The responses to the toasts were replete with the note of welcome to the guests of honor. The responses were:

Geo. R. Bagley, "The Lawyer," Mr. Bagley reminded his auditors that the guest of the evening had always taken an interest in the city and in more ways than one had gone into partnership with his adopted city.

Dr. W. D. Wood, responding to "The Politician," paid a delicate compliment to his medical colleague.

Hon. W. N. Barrett, with "Law" as his subject, complimented Dr. and Mrs. Tamiesie upon the esteem in which they were held by the thousands of Washington County people, and facetiously said that the "Law" these days was largely being left to Dr. U'Ren, of Clackamas.

W. G. Hare, in answering to "The Orator," was at his best, and his remarks were in the happiest vein.

Dr. Erwin, with "The Doctor" as his subject, covered his allotted time with delicate humor.

John M. Wall, who was charged with wedding the "Big Stick" in democratic circles, side-stepped the subject and dwelt upon the personal equation of the host and hostess and the community.

Dr. C. J. Smith delivered a ten minute talk on generalities, and complimented Dr. and Mrs. Tamiesie upon the cordial welcome they were receiving.

Rev. Evan P. Hughes, who has just returned from a trip to England and Wales, electrified his hearers by an impromptu talk, and told them of how good it felt to be an American citizen, and how much more one appreciated it after a trip abroad.

Dr. Tamiesie, at the close, feelingly responded to the cordiality that marked his homecoming, and promised to always keep in touch with the town wherein he and his family have so long resided.

The menu was one of the best of the hoteliers' cuisines, and was worthy of first place in the judgment of an epicure.

The music for the evening was rendered by Miss Emma Tupper, who presided at the piano.

REMINISCENCES

With compliments of the Season,
By J. E. Johnson, the Photographer in Your Town

Sweet Spring, now bursting into bloom,
Unfolds her verdure grand,
And Nature poses smilingly,
To have her beauty canned.

And say, before the scorching sun,
Your face and arms has tanned,
Call round at Johnson's Studio
And get your beauty canned.

Don't wait until advancing Age
Extends his withering hand,
Before, at Johnson's Picture Shop,
You have your beauty canned.

Now is the time to have that house wired. See the Owl Electric
Co. 1-1f

John Overreeder, of Quatama, was in the city Saturday, the guest of his daughter, Mrs.
Henry Delsman.

W. H. Carter, who has conducted a milk route here for several years, has bought out the Thos. Williams route, and has consolidated the two.

Mrs. Agnes Yergen Purdin has filed a cross-complaint in circuit court, contesting the pleading of her former husband, Chas. A. Yergen, that a minor daughter, about five years old, be given into his custody. The Yergens were divorced months ago and Mr. Yergen was given the custody of the boy, Willard. The decree said nothing, however, about the little girl. Mrs. Yergen's mother kept the child until last September, when Mr. Yergen gained possession. Yergen then filed a motion asking that the decree be re-opened and he be given the care and custody of the girl, Edna Ellen. Since that time Mrs. Yergen married Chas. Purdin. She now wants the child and proposes to fight the claims of the father. The Yergens formerly resided near Laurel, where Mr. Yergen is a hoggrower.

For sale—Eggs for hatching S. C. R. I. Reds, Barred Rocks $1.50 per setting of 15; $6 per 100. Baby chickens, 12¢ cents each; S. C. White Leghorns, $1 per 15; $5 per 100; baby chicks, 10 cents. Will do custom hatching and furnish eggs of leading varieties. Agent for the famous McManahan incubator. Send request for catalogue by postal. Also have some White Leghorn cockerels for sale.—R. E. Dunsmore, Ore., Address, Hillsboro, Route 4.

The fact that Hillsboro alone has practically one million dollars in deposits in the various banks certainly speaks well for Washington County and its resources. Forest Grove follows with close to three-quarters of a million, and the several other banks in the county run the grand total up to a total of two million dollars resting in the safes of county banking institutions. Again, it must be remembered that many in the east end of the county bank with Portland. Taking it all in all it is an index of stability that few counties of our population can boast.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon. Phone, City 822.

Ralph Imbrie has sued Maud Imbrie, wife, for divorce, alleging conduct contrary to mutual happiness. They were married in 1905, and have one child, aged six years. The complaint asks for the custody of the child, and agrees to care for it, leaving it with Mrs. Thos. Emrick, and paying for its care. A stipulation has been signed wherein the defendant takes $800 in settlement of property rights, with the provision that the mother can at intervals visit the daughter.

For sale: Thoroughbred White Leghorn eggs, $1 for 15, or $6 per hundred; also hens and pullets; won second pen prize at Hillsboro in 1912.—Emil Stark, Bethany, address Portland, Ore., Route 2. 52-9

Supt. Turner, of the Washington-Oregon Corporation, states that the company will have its Sain Creek Supply for Hillsboro water in the mains by next July. The work will most likely be let to contract. Gaston wants Sain Creek water, but it is understood that the company does not wish to lay mains to that place. It is willing, however, to sell the city water at a low rate, and Gaston may bond to put in a circulating system, similar to Cornelius.

Dreer's Early Standard potato seed for sale. Potatoes mature in 90 days. Something new, and something fine. Have about 40 bushels.—Geo. R. Bagley, or apply at Oak Cove Farm. 45tf

Unless all signs count for nothing Washington County is going into the Loganberry business with a vengeance. A visit between here and Portland discloses the fact that many farmers are putting in this profitable berry, and some are going it to the limit of five acres. The berry is very productive, and there is always a good market for it.

For sale—Several incubators and brooders, latest makes.—J. P. Adams, near Jabez Wilkes' place, south of City Park, Hillsboro. 5tf

E. L. Moore went to Portland, Friday, to see the Beavers play with Los Angeles. Mr. Moore is one of the best-informed fans in the Northwest, and personally knows a number of players on each team.

Several thoroughbred Poland China boars for sale.—Oak Cove Farm, or apply to Geo. R. Bagley. 45tf

BIG CROWD ATTENDS COUNTY SPELL DOWN

Supt. Barnes Says That Over 1500 Pupils Have Participated

HAROLD KNOX, GASTON, WINS OUT

Court Room Crowded to Capacity to Hear Youngsters Contest

County School Supt. Barnes is highly elated over the success of the county spelling contest which closed in the circuit court room in this city, last Saturday afternoon. Thirty-eight districts had representatives here for the finals. Sixty-one schools participated, the past three months, and when the poorer spellers were eliminated the winners were brought to the county seat to try for supremacy.

The first prize of $10 cash went to Harold Knox, of Seoggin Valley, near Gaston—Albert Hatch, teacher—who met and vanquished all comers.

District 19, having the highest average for three months, was awarded a silk flag for the school house. In the fourth grade contest, District No. 8, Leisville, Henrietta Case, teacher, won first prize, a copy of the "Song of the Lark."

The fifth and sixth grade contest also went to District 19, a copy of "Mona Lisa" being the trophy. District 95, Minnie Davis, teacher, Hillsdale, won second prize, a painting, "Princess Louise." The seventh and eighth grade first went to District 52, of North Cornelius, Clara Walker, teacher, and the premium was a magnificent panel painting, "Sir Gallahad."

Sixty-one schools out of 104 have taken part in the spelling contest. The attendance eclipsed any school exercise ever held in Washington county.

COLLEGE MAN STEALS FROM OREGON ELECTRIC

Romeo H. Stephens, of Wealthy Family, in Hillsboro Jail

TAPPED THE TILL AT TUALATIN

Confesses to Officers That he has Robbed Many Railroad Companies

Romeo H. Stephens, alias Harold Martin, alias Desmond, was arrested in Portland, Friday night, and brought to Hillsboro Saturday and lodged in the county jail. He will await the action of the grand jury on the charge of robbing the Oregon Electric at Tualatin, April 11. Stephens admits that he stole $70.90 from the station and went to Portland, where he appropriated the "white way" until Special Agent Lillis, of the Oregon Electric, and Archie Leonard, detective with the O. W. R. & N. deprived him of his liberty. Stephens cashed a $20 spurious money express order at the Clyde Hotel and a $40 order at the Union Depot. Both of these were Wells-Fargo orders written by himself. Stephens confessed to the act, and told District Attorney Tongue that he had committed robberies while in the employ of various railroads. He says he is the son of Harrison Stephens, a wealthy resident of Montreal, Canada, and alleges that while at McGill College, of that city, he was expelled for neglecting his classes because of drink. Stephens told the officers that he had worked for the Manhattan Elevated in New York, and that when he was on the Gould line he robbed the company of $310 and left his "I. O. U." for the amount, pinned to which he wrote: "Your system is rotten. Twelve hours per day and $15 per week."

Stephens is highly educated and uses language equal to an Oxford graduate. He states that he worked for the Canadian Pacific from coast to coast, and ascribes his downfall to the fact that as a boy he always had ready money through allowances from his uncle and his father. He claims to be single, and expects to come into quite an estate later. He is aged 32 years. Stephens is much shaken over his arrest, and alleges it is his first confinement. He denies that he ever stuck up an individual, and avers that the railroad companies are easy.
