

THE AL. G. BARNES SHOW A SUCCESS

Canvas Had Capacity Audience in Afternoon; Good Crowd at Night

Everybody Who Attended Event Departed Well Satisfied

The Al. G. Barnes wild animal show, which held forth here last Thursday, was well attended, the day audience crowding the canvas to the limit, and the evening attendance being fairly good-sized. The animals showed every evidence of splendid training, and it was the consensus of opinion that they were the best trained wild animals ever brought to the city. The school of eighteen or twenty lions—all of them big fellows—was a revelation, under the control of their master, and it almost seems impossible that patience and care can do so much.

The dogs, horses and bears were more than excellent in performance, and the three seals were the delight of young and old.

The riding was good, and while there were not so many horses as with the Sells-Floto aggregation, yet the numbers were splendidly executed.

One song, by an equestrienne, "Where the River Shannon Flows," was well worth the price of admission, to say nothing of the enthusiastic study in animal life.

It was a good, clean show, well worth the money, and young and old enjoyed it. Whenever Barnes comes this way again he is sure to get the glad hand. Never in the history of the town has one seen so many and so well-trained lions and tigers. The "suffragette" meeting was a feature that convulsed the audience, and the seven clowns were there with bells.

PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at the Brown Livery Stable, Main St., near Fourth, in Hillsboro, beginning at 1 p. m., SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1913.

Thirty head of registered and graded Jerseys. The foundation stock for my herd came from the West, Lynn, Cary, Withycombe, and O. A. C. herds, among the best in the Valley. With two exceptions the stock is young; most of the cows being from 2 to 4 years old, and have given from 25 to 30 lbs. of milk with first calves. There are 13 fine calves, ranging from 1 to 10 months old; 2 fine young registered bulls, one 10 the other 6 months old. The young stock is sired by Maro Marigold, whose dam made 2 1/2 lbs in one day and had a record of 600 lbs. butter per year. Ten of the herd are registered; the rest, almost full-blooded grades, and have been averaging nearly $13.00 per month per cow. If you are looking for beauty and utility combined, you will find it in this herd.

Terms of sale:—Under $20.00, cash; over $20.00, approved note for four months at 8 per cent.

RICHARDSON WEST

Forest Grove, Ore., April 28.—(Special.)—Miss Clara West, sister of Professor E. D. West, of Pacific University and for some time past teacher of domestic science in the public schools of this city and Hillsboro, last evening was married to C. T. Richardson, process superintendent in the local plant of the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company. Rev. D. T. Thomas, pastor of the Congregational Church, performed the ceremony in the presence of intimate friends and relatives. Miss Helen Richardson and Haskell Ferrin acted as bridesmaid and best man, respectively.

As the bride entered the ceremonial room her pathway was strewn with apple blossoms by Master Robert West and Miss Victoria Seymour, flower-bearers. Miss Lucy Richardson played the Mendelssohn wedding march. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in this city.—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Landess announce the coming wedding of their daughter, Esther, to Charles Vanderwal, the ceremony to take place May 7, at the Landess home. Both are popular young people of Hillsboro.

Virgil Cooper, accountant with the Washington-Oregon Corporation in this city a year ago, was here from Portland, Friday, greeting friends. He has left the employ of the company since the death of his father, and is now located in the Rose City. Mr. Cooper Sr. was well known at Baker and Portland, and before coming West resided at Chillicothe, Mo., where he was a charter member of the Pythian Lodge, of that city. He left a widow and the one son to mourn his loss.

Will do custom hatching and furnish eggs of leading varieties. Agent for the famous McClanahan incubator. Send request for catalogue by postal. Also have some White Leghorn cockerels for sale.—R. E. Duns-moor, Ore., address, Hillsboro, Route 4.

The bunkmate of Wm. Sipp, who went down on the German bark, Mimi, on the Nehalem beach, is in town. He says that he was firing on the "shore donkey," and refused to go on the ship when requested, giving as his excuse that he was afraid of the water. He attributes the fact that he is alive to his refusal, but says the incident worries him considerably. He heard the crash of the vessel when it turned turtle.

For sale: Thoroughbred White Leghorn eggs, $1 for 15, or $6 per hundred; also hens and pullets; won second pen prize at Hillsboro in 1912.—Emil Stark, Bethany, address Portland, Ore., Route 2. 52-9

Mayor Accepts Cupid Role.—Here's a chance for some good-hearted bachelor to become a benedict. Mrs. W. D. Lillye, of Forest Grove, Ore., has written Mayor Ruslight asking him to find her a husband. The Mayor announced that he will act as cupid for all applicants who do not desire to enter into negotiations direct. Mrs. Lillye says that her husband burned to death February 10, that she is 22 years old and would be a good, true, loving wife.—Oregonian.

Dreer's Early Standard potato seed for sale. Potatoes mature in 90 days. Something new, and something fine. Have about 40 bushels.—Geo. R. Bagley, or apply at Oak Cove Farm. 45tf

John M. Wall, Cal Jack Jr., W. Mahon and the Argus reporter went to Portland, Sunday, to attend the Press Club breakfast. Mr. Wall was one of the one-minute speakers. The breakfast was at twelve o'clock, and the occasion was the grilling of the primary candidates for city election. The affair was a success.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market—made in Oregon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a Grand Marca. 12tf

S. R. Starrett, of Forest Grove, is one of the surviving veterans of the Battle of Gettysburg, and is listed in the number who are to be sent at state expense back to the scene of the great battle of the civil war. He is the only one listed from Washington County.

For sale—Several incubators and brooders, latest makes.—J. P. Adams, near Jabez Wilkes' place, south of City Park, Hillsboro. 5tf

When County Judge Reasoner went to his office Saturday morning he found the floors flooded with water, the faucet having been left open Friday afternoon. The water soaked through clear to the clerk's office, and the plaster of the ceiling was given a thorough soaking.

I have for sale about 30 or 40 bushels of drought proof potatoes, earlier than the Burbank, and something fine. Inquire at Second and Jackson Streets, Oral Gardner. 7-9

Governor West and Dr. Steiner, of Salem, were in the city Saturday, and went out to the Cove Oak ranch to look at the Geo. R. Bagley herd of Holsteins. The State Board wants some Holstein cattle for the asylum ranch. The two gentlemen were taken out in an auto.

Now is the time to have that house wired. See the Owl Electric Co. 1-tf

Mrs. Alex Scott, of Cherry Grove, was in the city Saturday, enroute to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace, of near Farmington.

FOREST GROVE WON COUNTY TRACK MEET

Nosed Out Hillsboro by a Score of 65 to 60, Saturday Last

BEAVERTON SCORED FIFTEEN POINTS

Report Gives it as Hard Fought Battle—Big Attendance From Here

Hillsboro marched up to Forest Grove last Saturday, and then, like the commander's men who met defeat, marched back again—but not until after they had worked desperately to land the track and field meet against odds. Forest Grove's High was too many for the lads here, and they beat Hillsboro by a score of 65 to 60. This was rather a bitter pill, for Hillsboro last year won over the Grove. Beaverton scored 15 points.

Clarence Lenneville, an eighth-grade Forest Grove boy, was the star of the meet, winning four firsts. He fairly "walked away" with the sprints and in the relay made remarkable time. Forest Grove took the lead in the relay, not only maintaining it but making distance with every change. Hillsboro showed strong in the jumps and hurdles, as well as the 880-yard run.

The hardest-fought event was the pole-vault, and a low mark resulted as the athletes were tired out in the long drawn-out events.

The grandstand was packed to capacity, and it was with difficulty the field was kept clear.

The events and the winners were as follows: 50-yard dash—Lenneville, Forest Grove; Davies, Beaverton; Thomas, Forest Grove; time, .05 4-5.

Running high jump—Taggart, Hillsboro; Walker, Forest Grove; Swanson, Forest Grove.

100-yard dash—Lenneville, F. Grove; Davies, Beaverton; Turner, Forest Grove.

Running broad jump—Davies, Beaverton; Hurley, Hillsboro; Taggart, Hillsboro; 20 feet.

880-yard run, (open)—Connell, Hillsboro; Morgan, Forest Grove; Bondurant, Hillsboro; time, 2:19.

Running high jump (grammar)—Taggart, Hillsboro; Marks, Hillsboro; Goff, Forest Grove; height, 4 feet 8 inches.

220-yard dash (open)—Turner, Forest Grove; Hurley, Hillsboro; Davies, Beaverton; time, 2:5 flat.

Pole-vault (open)—Jones, Forest Grove; Fisher, Hillsboro; Garret, Hillsboro; height 9 feet 6 inches.

220 low hurdles (open)—Wilkes, Hillsboro; Roe, Forest Grove; Ferguson, Hillsboro; time, 3:0 2-5.

Standing broad jump (open)—Hancock, Forest Grove; Davies, Beaverton; Taggart, Hillsboro; distance 9 feet 7 inches.

50-yard dash (grammar)—Lenneville, Forest Grove; Taggart, Hillsboro; Goff, Forest Grove; time, .05 4-5.

Running broad jump (grammar)—Taggart, Hillsboro; Olson, Hillsboro; Doohar, Hillsboro; distance, 18 feet 8 inches.

440-yard dash (open)—Turner, Forest Grove; Connell, Hillsboro; Hurley, Hillsboro; time, .56 1-5.

Shot (open)—Walker, Forest Grove; Fisher, Hillsboro; distance, 38 feet 3 inches.

100-yard dash (grammar)—Lenneville, Forest Grove; Taggart, Hillsboro; Olson, Hillsboro; time, :10 4-5.

The relay team was composed of Thomas, Davis, Lenneville and Turner. Officials—Starter, Levi Austin; field judge, H. T. Shaver; timers, Taylor and Heater.

MAIL CARRIERS

All rural mail carriers in Washington County are requested and invited to attend a convention of the Washington County Rural Carriers' Association, which will be held at Beaverton, on Decoration Day. The program will be lively, consisting of speeches, sports and games, and a big picnic in the grove. Rural mail carriers, whether belonging to the Association or not, are included in this call.

L. Creps, of Banks, was down to the county seat Monday.

W. H. Cummings, of Blooming, was in the city Friday, on legal business.

Mrs. Jas. Miltenberger visited relatives in Portland, the last of the week.

Thos. Purington, of Indiana, is a guest of the family of Frank Wallace, of Farmington.

County Fruit Inspector H. C. Atwell, of Forest Grove, was in the county seat Saturday, on business.

Attorneys Hollis and Graham were down from Forest Grove, the last of the week, on legal business.

District Attorney Tongue, J. W. Bailey and son, Paul, went over to Batterson's, on the Nehalem, Friday, for a fishing trip.

W. G. Hesse, of Scholls, was in town the last of the week. He says the farmers down his way are struggling hard to get their crops all seeded.

Fred Wesch, of Tualatin, was in the city the last of the week. He says that Tualatin is going to incorporate as soon as the necessary legal proceedings can be accomplished.

The United States Grand Jury, summoned last week, will meet in Portland, May 5. The sole Washington county juror is Emil Heilman, of Beaverton, on one of the rural routes.

Contractor Walter Taylor has finished up the cement work in the new school building, and rounded his work up to the original specifications. Hundreds of yards of cement floor were taken up, the work having been faulty.

The new sawmill at Timber will soon have its frame up, and machinery installed. Walt Taylor has laid the cement for the boilers. Timber promises to be one of the lively points in the county this year.

Rough lumber, 16-foot lengths, all widths, constantly on hand.—S. R. Cogan, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 1, 3 miles north of town, on C. D. Farnham place. We sell at $9 per M. 6-17

Contractor Gordon started a crew of men to work Monday morning, on third street, between Baseline and Oak. He hopes for good weather, and with several weeks of sunshine and warmth he will get his contract finished.

W. B. Dolan has sued Fred Phelan, doing business as the Phelan Construction Company, for $185.65, alleged balance due for work and material on the Bank Annex building. This is the second case against Phelan, the first suit being brought by the plasterers.

Geo. M. Kemp, who works at the Rowell-Groner Mill, Scholls, last Friday, met with a serious accident. While unloading the carriage a load of lumber slipped down and caught his leg, bruising the member badly, and dislocating the knee. He was attended by Dr. Bailey, who says the patient will be laid for some time.

Last Saturday the three year old child of Henry Christensen, of Helvetia, was brought to the city to have a kernel of corn removed from its nostril. The corn had lodged Friday, and many efforts were made to extract it, only to force it higher in the nose. Dr. Bailey removed the kernel without much trouble to the relief of the little one.

The low price of potatoes and onions have beaten Washington County out of hundreds and thousands of dollars, this season, and it will leave its effect on trade conditions until the new crop is harvested. Down in the Tualatin and Sherwood sections it has meant at least $200,000 less coming in on the onion crop, and up this way, on the Vineland hills, and the Chehalis Mountain it has cost the ranchers perhaps $100,000 in round numbers.

Jos. Bucher, of above Mountaine, lost his house by fire last Friday. He was baking bread, and had gone to the spring to get water, leaving a hot fire. When he left the spring he noticed that the roof was ablaze. He gave an alarm and a neighbor rushed to help him, and the two saved a few of his personal effects only. Mr. Bucher badly burned the back of one of his hands in the attempt to save things. Bucher is a Civil War veteran, and his many friends sympathize with him. This is the second time, it is said, that his home has been destroyed by fire.

GOVERNOR WEST AND DR. STEINER IN CITY

Visited Cove Oaks Farm to Look at Geo. Bagley Holstein Herd

EXECUTIVE PLEASED WITH COUNTY

Says in all Travels Over State Never Saw Better Looking Farms

Governor Oswald West and Dr. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the Oregon State Hospital for the Insane, were in Hillsboro, last Saturday, their object being the inspection of a dairy herd with view of purchase. They arrived on the noon electric, and lunched at the Hotel Washington. After luncheon they were taken to the Cove Oaks Farm by Geo. R. Bagley, where the governor and head of the asylum carefully looked over the big herd of 30 Holstein cows. They were well pleased with the stock, and after a consultation with Mr. Bagley, were returned to the city to catch the 3:54 car back to the capital.

Gov. West was well pleased with his drive, and stated that in all his travels over Oregon he had never witnessed a more fertile-looking section. On the return home the Governor was driven past the Wm. Bagley Sr. hopfarm, where will be harvested 130 acres of the product.

The executive was introduced to Mr. Bagley Sr., and told that there was one republican, at least, who had voted for him in Washington County.

The little daughter of Gov. West, Helen, was with him on the trip.

WEST—GRAHAM

Wednesday evening at the bride's home, corner First Avenue and Sixth Street, Miss Coila Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal M. Graham, and Mr. James West were united in marriage, Rev. D. T. Thomas officiating. The wedding was a very quiet and pleasant affair. The bride, attired in white and carrying a bouquet of beautiful white roses, entered the room on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom under a canopy of ferns. Besides the family, Mr. and Mrs. Kelsey, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Rev. and Mrs. Thomas were the only guests. The young couple left Thursday for Newport and after a short stay at the beach they will return to this city and then go to Morrell, Neb., by way of California, where Mr. West, who is one of the most popular and substantial young farmers in the community, will take up his work on the fine irrigated farm which he owns. It is under irrigation from government reservoirs and canals.

During her two years' residence in Forest Grove, Miss Coila has made many warm friends, who will join the News-Times in congratulations and very best wishes for a happy future.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents.—Forest Grove News-Times.
