The World's best picture, the reproduction of Bunyan's 'Pilgrim's Progress,' will be seen at the Peoples' Theatre, next day and Tuesday evening.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset.

Ray Emmott and Herbert Heidt, well known here, had an exciting bear hunt on the Emmott ranch, near Newport, one day last week.

Here is a chance to go into business. With small capital and low rent you can buy an old established, prosperous business in Forest Grove, that will make you an independent living.

John R. Bailey, of above Buxton, was down to the city yesterday. John R. states that farmers are about through with the Spring work up his way, and that fruit is just now coming into bloom on the mountain districts.

Ladies: We give you the opportunity to have your suits, skirts and long coats made by a tailor, and from the same material used in men's suits.

A. A. Mead, well known here, is still ill at the home of his late brother, above Buxton. The Hillsboro friends send their best wishes to the Deacon, and hope for a speedy recovery.

Indian Runner ducks, the egg machines, the world's greatest layers of pure white eggs. Get a setting of 13 from R. H. Greer, Hillsboro, and have eggs in the Fall and Winter, when your hens are not laying.

Prof. Thomas Shaw, Agricultural expert of the Great Northern Railway, is to be in Hillsboro about May 25. The exact date will be fixed at the Commercial Club smoker, this evening.

Person and in costume sings several fine numbers. Her voice is said to be of the prima donna type, and the feature alone is worth double the price of admission. This is said to be the best photo play ever brought to Northwest. Prices, 25 and 50 cents.

Dissolution Notice: It is hereby given that the firm of Frenzlel & McFarland, of Hillsboro, has been dissolved by mutual consent of the partners, and the assets of the firm sold and transferred to successor, Dunning & Frenzlel, who will collect all outstanding accounts, which are now due payable at the office.

W. R. Frenzlel, J. P. McFarland, John McFarland, Arthur McFarland, Hillsboro, Ore., May 5, 1913.

Card of Thanks: I desire to tender our sincere thanks to those who so kindly assisted us during our bereavement, the death and obsequies of the late Flossie Brown, and especially thanks for the beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. B. E. Ford, Mrs. S. N. Lyon and Family, Hillsboro, Ore., May 5, 1913.

Log Cabin bread, Greer's. Mrs. J. T. Shannon visited land relatives, Sunday. Argus and Journal, $2.25. Mrs. Edith Green visited relatives in Portland, Sunday.

The Services at the Baptist Church last Sunday were as usual splendidly attended. The children's day programs have arrived, and practice is taking place on them. The program this year is especially interesting. The Pastor, E. Clarence Cook, baptized five candidates after the evening service and every available seat, was occupied during the evening.

Making Rapid Growth—The growth which Oregon Life Insurance Company is now making is practically marvelous. The month of April shows an increase of 25 per cent over April of last year, and the first three days of May brought to Oregon Life the largest amount of new business of any three previous successive days in the history of the company.

C. C. Chapman, of the State Board of Immigration, was out last Monday, conferring with Dr. W. D. Wood on the matter of literature for the county to be sent abroad.

Ray Emmott and Herbert Heidt, well known here, had an exciting bear hunt on the Emmott ranch, near Newport, one day last week.

One of the big county rollers was brought down from above Forest Grove, Tuesday, and will be used on the streets, as so much per diem. Contractor Gordon will have it in charge, and will release when the county needs it for rolling macadam roads.

White Orpington and Black Minorca eggs for hatching. $1 per setting.—Mrs. N. H. Alexander, Eighth and Washington Streets. 4-9

SEEDING COMPLETED IN VERY FEW DAYS

Spring Work Far Behind This Period, Comparison With Past

Fall Sown Grain Doing Nicely

Promise of Clover and Timothy Crop is For Bumper Yield

Farmers have been rushing work the past two weeks, as Spring seeding is later than usual, and the tillers of the soil have been straining every nerve to get their work off their hands.

Everyone knows that our garden seeds in bulk are all fresh this year. Greer's Store, Second and Main. 2-1

Mr. Hopwood, of the Oregonian circulation bureau, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Gibson and daughter, Mrs. Daniel Storey, of Portland, were guests of Hillsboro residents, yesterday.

Mrs. Henrietta Williams, of Rainier, returned home Sunday, after a week's visit with relatives at Banks, Hillsboro and Forest Grove.

Dance at M. W. A. Hall, Reedville, Saturday evening, May 10. Tickets, $1.00, including supper. Prize waived. All invited.

Mrs. Bertha Edgerton, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stewart, of South Tualatin, last week.

Archie Campbell, son of John Campbell, of near the Dudley mill, while cutting wire from a bale of hay, the other day, had one of his eyes severely injured.

The Junior-Senior debate will be held at the court house this Friday night. The question under debate—"Resolved that a three-fourths jury would be competent to render a verdict in all cases." Admission free.

E. M. Rice, the contractor, recently moved a barn, 70x80, on the Robert Hartrampf Farm, North Tualatin Plains. The big structure was successfully moved and is staying "put" like a veteran.

E. B. Dunning, formerly with the Eastern & Western Lumber Company, has purchased the interest of Mr. McFarland in the Frenzlel & McFarland lumber business at Hillsboro, and will associate himself with W. R. Frenzlel under the firm name of Dunning & Frenzlel.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday evening, May 7, 1913, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Landess, when their daughter, Esther, was united in marriage to Charles Vanderwal, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderwal, of Hillsboro.

Every Wednesday patron of H. R. Emmott's grocery and market will get a handsome dinner set, absolutely free. Ask them about it at the store.

The Social Circle of the Cong. Church will be entertained by Mesdames Kootz and Wright, at the home of Mrs. Wright, Thursday afternoon, May 15.
