COMMERCIAL CLUB

Over 100 Attended the Smoker Last Thursday Evening

SPLENDID GET TOGETHER MEETING

lighty Five Members on Rull, With More Prospects

Over one hundred citizens met n a 'smoker" at the handsome new Commercial Club home in the Tamiesie building, last Thursday night, and it was one of the best "get-together" meetings celebrated in Hillsboro since the town was first placed on the map. President Geo, R. Bagley called the meeting to order, and said that while many thought the club had died a natural death. ts officers had held many meetings during the past year. They the present clubrooms, which are twenty years ago. plendidly lighted, were proured for $30 per month, on a ive-year lease. The board of governors had authorized the etc., for $175-a great bargainand the money had been paid out. Secretary A. C. Shute read the records of the various meetings of the officers, and then the presdent listened to addresses by members. Everybody smoked up, and the batchet was buried and he pipe of peace gurgled as never before.

The board of governors this week ordered more furniture, and the secretary has been busy criting receipts for membership. t costs $15 to join, and the dues will be fixed at the next meeting of the governors. All the addresses showed a proper spirit and appealed for a Hillsboro people to work togethr for one common cause, the best interests of the city. The officers of the club are:

Geo. R. Bagley, president; A. C. Shute, secretary; board of governors, Geo. R. Bagley, John M. Wall, C. Jack Jr., W. V. Wiley, A. C. Shute, Wm. Mahon and C. E. Koontz.

"Show-me" pipes and cigars were in evidence everywhere, and the man who was not a moker got the full benefit along with the fellow who partock of the weed. All were well pleased with the new home, and that it will be the means of making will be the means of with the fellow who partook of Hillsboro pull to the front very apparent.

Those making addresses were: John W. Bailey, Dr. Tamiesie, J. Grove, Ore. L. Crow, Father Mark Lappen, Frank Ker V. N. Barrett, S. C. Killen, A. Shute, W. G. Hare, Thos. H.
