

PROFESSOR SHAW HERE NEXT MONDAY

Will Talk to Hillsboro People at
Two O'clock in the Afternoon

TALKS AT COMMERCIAL CLUB ROOMS

High in Science of Agriculture, Exploits for Great Northern Railway

Prof. Thos. Shaw, with the Great Northern Railway, will speak to the citizens of Hillsboro at the Commercial Club Rooms, Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and at 7:45 at the K. P. Hall, in Forest Grove. He appears here under the auspices of the Commercial Club and the Oregon Electric Railway.

Prof. Shaw is a high authority in the science of agriculture and agricultural development.

Formerly he was a professor in the agricultural department of the university of Minnesota, and for years has been the agricultural expert of the Great Northern Railway, in which position he has been pre-eminently successful in experimental work and practical farm development.

His talks will prove of practical benefit to those who are interested in the greater yields of crops, better farming methods, the introduction of new crops, the raising of stock, etc.

Questions will be answered gladly.

All who are interested in the greater agricultural development of the country are invited to attend this meeting. Admission free.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Frenzel & McFarland Bros., of Hillsboro, has been dissolved by mutual consent of the partners, and the assets of the said firm sold and transferred to its successor, Dunning & Frenzel, who will collect all outstanding accounts, which are now due and payable at the office. The old firm also speaks for the successors a continuance of the public patronage.

W. R. Frenzel,
J. P. McFarland,
John McFarland,
Arthur McFarland,
Hillsboro, Ore., May 5, 1913.

CHRISTINA POSTEL PRAHL

The funeral of Mrs. Christina Prahl, wife of Herman Prahl, took place from the family home, Tuesday, Mrs. Prahl died April 25, 1913, while Mr. Prahl was in Germany. Her maiden name was Postel, and she was born Sept. 2, 1865. She came to America in 1881 and settled with her parents at Renville, Minnesota. She was wedded to Mr. Prahl Nov. 5, 1885 and they came to Oregon in 1889. Nine children were born to the union, the eldest, Bernhard, dying at the age of 1-1/2 years. The husband and surviving children survive: Waldemar, aged 24; Margaretha, aged 22; Werner, aged 20; Ralph, aged 17; Herman, 15; Emma, 13; Roger, 10 and Sylvester, 7. The funeral took place from the home, Rev. Cook officiating and interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Three brothers and one sister reside in Minneapolis.

TEN DOLLARS FOR A NAME

The City Bakery will pay $10 for a name that will best describe the good qualities of the famous rolls sold over the counter and by many Washington county dealers.

The contest will be open to any resident of the county. Pick your name and write it on a sheet of paper. Enclose the sheet in a sealed envelope and leave it at the bakery on Main street, where it will be given a number and the corresponding number written with the name on a list. This will prevent the name of any contestants being known until the award is made.

All well known makes of bread have a name. Our bread has made a reputation merely as "City Bakery Bread," but we want a name that will best describe it and its good qualities. The shorter the name the better, and brevity and description will count in making the award. You may offer as many names as you want, but each must be in a separate envelope. The contest will end May 31, and the judges will announce their verdict as soon hereafter as possible and the money will be paid to the winner.

The names of the judges are: Mrs. W. D. Wood, Mrs. J. J. Krebs and Mrs. Susie Morgan.

German Lutheran services at City Hall next Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

Wanted, at once—A few stock sheep, ewes and lambs. Write Edward L. Naylor, Forest Grove, Ore., or telephone 0185, Forest Grove Central.

Ralph Withycombe, residing on the John Withycombe place, evidently thinks the "jinx" knows where he stables his goat, for he has had a chapter of accidents the past few months that would take the nerve out of an ordinary man. Since last fall the house in which he and Mrs. Withycombe lived was destroyed by fire; a buggy horse was killed by getting tangled in a loose, live wire, during the snowstorm in January; and Monday night the barn burned down. He had been over to lodge in the evening, and upon returning put up his horse. As he started to leave the structure he discovered that it was on fire. He succeeded in getting the stock and implements out of the stable so that the loss of personal property was not large. The entire structure burned, however, and as it was a new barn it means quite a loss. This being the third accident Ralph expects from now on to have clear sailing.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored-made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.

Judge Reasoner Monday made an order that the administrator of the estate of Hannah Purser, deceased, Beaverton, should pay to Mrs. Catherine Dessinger the sum of $644.50 for services rendered and nursing Mrs. Purser, during the declining years of her life. The Jas. Eaton estate was closed of record, and the court ordered $1500 cash distributed among the heirs of the late Larkin Reynolds. Lena Dudley was appointed administratrix of the estate of L. M. Dudley, deceased. The estate consists of a claim for damages for cause of death.

On account of business taking me away from Hillsboro, I am forced to sell my beautiful home at a sacrifice. It is the best home of its size in the county. It was built to live in, not for sale; no expense was spared to make it comfortable and convenient. You will say it is a bargain at the price, address P. O. box 123. 9-11

A letter from a citizen of the outskirts of Hillsboro, directed to the city chief of police, was the one rich, rare and racy document filed with the archives at the city council meeting, Tuesday night. It told of a bull-dog, owned by a citizen, who makes nightly perambulations to the home of the letter-writer, and for vocabulary and expression it outdid anything ever presented to the august body.

Indian Runner ducks, the egg machines, the world's greatest layers of pure white eggs. Get a setting of 13 from R. H. Greer, Hillsboro, and have eggs in the Fall and Winter, when your hens are not laying. Yard No. 1, $3; No. 2, $2; No. 3, $1.50; No. 4, $1; or $10 and $6 per hundred.

Thos. Withycombe & Son's sale last Thursday was well attended, and Mr. Withycombe states that the stock sold fairly well. The highest price paid was $355 for a cow. Buyers were there from Hood River, Corvallis, Woodburn, and the state of Washington. Only a few of the cattle were sold to Washington County buyers.

Ladies: We give you the opportunity to have your suits, skirts and long coats made by a tailor, and from the same material used in men's suits. Our measurements mean satisfaction, and we guarantee. Prices reasonable.—Aug. Tews, Second St., over Hillsboro Mercantile.

C. E. Holcomb, well known at West Union and Bethany, has bought an alfalfa farm near Fresno, Cal., and expects to move his family to his new purchase early in June. He was in the city this morning, accompanying his brother, A. L.

For sale: Fine gelding, 7 years, about 1600; finely built, broke, sound and true.—Alec Gordon, Cornelius, Route 1, 1/2 mile west of North Plains. 9-11

Frank Waibel, working for the Hillsboro Transfer Co., has learned to run the big auto-truck, and is becoming a past-master in piloting the big machine about the city.

For sale or trade—Gentle work mare, buggy and harness. Cheap for cash, or will trade for cow, pigs or wagon.—R. Green, near Blooming Church, Cornelius, Or., Route 2. 9-11

Business men and farmers should not forget the meeting Monday afternoon in the Commercial Club rooms, where Prof. Thos. Shaw, the agricultural expert, will deliver an address.

Now is the time to have your harvest machinery fixed up. Don't wait until you want to use it. C. V. Bloyd knows just how to do this for you. Don't forget the place, Third and Maple Sts., south of sawmill. 9-12

HILLSBORO NOW TO BE "DOGLESS TOWN"

Canines no More to Roam Streets at Their Own Sweet Will

ORDINANCE TAKES EFFECT TODAY

Council Passes Ordinance Reducing Cost of Macadam Paving

No more will Towser and Gyp run at large in the streets of Hillsboro, for on this day of our Lord, 1913, an ordinance takes effect that owners of dogs running at large are subject to penalty. Dogs found running at large will get their masters or mistresses into trouble, and the faithful canine must be tied where he can only bark at the moon.

Chief of Police Blaser has a notice warning owners, in this week's issue. The "dog question" has been one that has been a nuisance since Adam's first pup scratched up his garden, and the canine has had his way ever since as the faithful friend of man. The matter of dogs running at large has been acute in the city for years. They raise thunder with lawns and flowers, and make a rendezvous in the court yard, each and every day—and this is not all of their unseemly habits that have caused the city fathers to "rear up Riley" and take a fall out of the predatory brute.

The chief has also notified property owners to cut grass and weeds along sidewalks, or the city will do the work at the property owner's expense.

The council Tuesday night voted to cut down the specifications of the macadam streets which will be laid this Summer. The rock in the center is to be eight inches in depth, and on the outside of the road will be but six inches. This will effect quite a saving. They also voted to allow the laying of wooden sidewalks, five feet in width, in the Garden Tracts section.

The council repealed the cement sidewalk ordinance so that wood can be laid in the section north of Jackson Street, excepting on Third, down to Grant, which must be cement; all east of Fifth, excepting on Main, which must be cement down to Eighth; and Washington, down to Ninth. The section east of Third and south of Oak is also allowed to lay wood.

ORENCO WOODMAN GETS HEAD CAMP ELECTION

Ralph Wann Will Represent This District at Colorado Springs

ELECTED AT SALEM YESTERDAY

Head Camp Session Meets in July in Famous Health Resort

Washington County will have a representative at the big head camp convention of the Woodmen of the World, which meets at Colorado Springs, Colorado, in July. Ralph Wann, of Orenco, well known as one of Washington County's educators, was elected at Salem, yesterday, at the state convention. Mr. Wann is a familiar figure at the W. O. W. state conventions, and has for many years been a consistent member of the big insurance organization. He is a member of Vine Maple Camp, Cedar Mill, and has been local clerk for years. The Woodmen had a big parade at Salem last night.

Ralph Wann was the delegate from Cedar Mill; J. H. Ray represented Hillsboro; John H. Dorland appeared for Glencoe; Claud McCurdy and W. B. Vickers, Cornelius, and John Anderson and Mr. Ward were sent by the Forest Grove camp.

Noticed by the county court of Washington County, Oregon, at the court room in Hillsboro, on Saturday, May 31, 1913, at 2 p. m. for the following construction for the county:

Trickett bridge and fill, above Banks, Burnett, or Kirtz bridge and fill, near Greenville.

Thatcher bridge near Thatcher. Repairs on John McClaran bridge and fill, Gales Creek.

Blateman bridge, Gales Creek. Glenwood fill.

Fill on Gales Creek, near Wm. Lyda old mill site.

Beltinger bridge, on Forest Grove-Banks road.

Contracts for the construction of said bridges and fills will be let to the lowest responsible bidder, and the court has a right to reject any and all bids.

Specifications may be seen at the office of the county clerk of Washington county.

A certified check for 5 per cent of amount bid must accompany each bid. By order of the county court of Washington county, Oregon.

D. B. Reasoner,
County Judge.

LAUREL SURPRISE

A pleasant surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Howard, of Laurel, May 17, the occasion being Mr. Howard's 46th birthday. The many friends that were gathered showed that the host and hostess are very popular in the Laurel section.

The evening was spent in social talk until twelve o'clock, when a dainty lunch was served, after which the guests departed wishing Mr. Howard many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames J. Howard, W. Raynard, J. Raynard, B. Peterson, A. Johnson, E. Morrow, P. Shea, P. Lilligard, N. Boleen and Chambers; Misses A. Regdon, Esther Boleen, Helen Shea, Mary Shea, Jessie Howard; Messrs. J. Ripplinger, Dan Chambers, Frease Lilligard, Johnnie Shea, Tommy Shea, Louie Howard.

For the best values in hardware of all kinds, call on Dave Corwin, who can sell you the best at the lowest figures. Plumbing given prompt attention. Second Street, south of Main.

The ladies of the Congregational church will have a window sale, at the Hillsboro Mercantile Co.'s Store, Saturday, beginning at 11 o'clock. All kinds of good things to eat can be had at this sale.

When wanting an ice cream soda, why not get it at a modern, up-to-date fountain where the syrup is kept in sanitary wells, pumped into the glass by a sanitary pump. That's the kind of fountain you will find at Koeber's.

If you want a range that beats the world for the money, call on David Corwin, Bank Annex Building, and see his Quality Ranges, all the way from $25 to $55. These are the best ranges ever placed on the market in Hillsboro. Call in and see them.

Heretofore the women-folks have been getting all the benefit of the articles that have been given away by the different stores, while father and the boys have been overlooked. In order to even things up a bit, the Den of Sweets will, for a limited time, give away a handsome pipe with each 25c bag of Whale smoking tobacco. Remember the place, the Den of Sweets.

For sale: Two fresh cows.—Zina Wood. 101f

Fred Berger, of Bethany, was over to the city Monday evening.

Mrs. W. J. Wismer, of near Phillips, was a city caller, Monday afternoon.

Jos. Smith, with the Blake-McFall Paper Co., was in town today, taking orders for his company.

Alfred Morgan went over to Tillamook, Monday, to "hostler" the engines on the coast end of the P. R. & N.
