

W. HILL AND PARTY AT HILLSBORO FRIDAY

Men Well Pleased With the City and County

Guests of Commercial Club

Special Agent for Great Northern Promised Investigation

W. Hill, virtual president of the Great Northern Railway, in the city with his party of way men and St. Paul and Minneapolis bankers, Friday morning, guests of an hour of the Hillsboro Commercial Club. The visiting gentlemen were met at a depot by a committee and taken to the beautiful club rooms, where Mr. Hill was introduced to John M. Wall, and made a twenty minute talk. Mr. Hill advised his hearers that while there was not a big railroad construction year, his company had some notable extensions, notably the Eugene and Corvallis lines, within the past twelve months. He said that when the engineers went out you might "inspect" something; when the work was located you could have some assurance, but when the orders commenced work you could depend on the line being built. He told of how he felt a personal interest in this section because of the fact that it was on his advice that the board of directors of the Hill lines bought the Oregon Electric. He had been here and looked over Washington County and the Willamette valley, and when he arrived, later at the meeting, the New York people had decided they would invest. Hill asked to tell them of this wonderful section. They listened and then revised their opinion, and took over the properties. Mr. Hill congratulated the club on their handsome club rooms, and thanked them for the attendance of over fifty business men. He told them he was going to send them some handsome framed pictures for the walls, and then told them that if the Oregon Electric did not help Hillsboro get things it could not be the fault of the Hill lines.

President Young, of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway, made a five minute talk, and told his auditors that he was more than pleased with the business of the Oregon Electric. He and Mr. Hill both agreed that his was the best paying line, mile for mile, that the system owned.

Industrial Agent Graham secured a lot of figures and data, and says he thinks he can land a big sawmill for Hillsboro as he has requests for locations every week. He was surprised when told that Hillsboro was within a few miles of fifty billions of timber, and that trains were already hauling logs here for lumber manufacture.

The party consisted of the following notables: L. W. Hill, Chairman, Great Northern Ry., St. Paul; J. H. Young, President, S. P. & S. Ry., Portland; W. D. Skinner, Trf. Mgr., S. P. & S. Ry., Portland; P. L. Howe, Pres. Imperial Elevator Co., Mpls.; Ed. O. Rice, First National Bank, St. Paul, Minn.; J. J. Elliott, Northwestern Trust Co., St. Paul; E. C. Leedy, Gen'l. Mngg. Agt., G. N. Ry., St. Paul; G. H. Smitton, Ass't. Gen. Frt. Agt. G. N. Ry., Portland; F. W. Graham, West. Indus. & Imm. Agt. G. N. Ry., Seattle; A. J. Davidson, Supt. Oregon Electric & United Rys., Portland; A. M. Lupfer, Chief Engr., Elec. & Steam Roads, Portland; A. C. Adams, Supt. Motive Power, O. E. Ry.; J. D. Dwyer, Supt. Ways & Structures, O. E. Ry.; C. A. Adams, Traveling motor-man, O. E. Ry.; W. J. Clune, Secy. to J. H. Young.

Notice to Contractors

Sealed bids will be received by the County Court of Washington County, Ore., at the court room.

E. B. Sappington late Saturday evening filed an injunction case against the school district of Forest Grove, asking estoppel from their delivering bonds in the sum of $35,000 to Morris Brothers, brokers and bond buyers. This money was to have been used in the construction of a new school building, and Mr. Sappington alleges that bids were not advertised as the law prescribes, and that there is no warrant of law for delivering the bonds. Sappington alleges that the treasurer of the county—and that official is Sappington—must advertise the sale of the bonds, or the action of the board is null. The Board has already let the contract for the building, and the basement is completed. The law changed Tuesday so that the board has the advertising in its own hands, but advertising is still a necessity.

Refined woman, with boy of 6 years, desires position as housekeeper for widower with one or two children, on farm.—Address, Housekeeper, in care of Argus, in sealed envelope. Do not telephone office.

Silas Christofferson tested his new flying machine in San Francisco Bay, last week. His new invention is called a flying boat, and it rests on the water like a duck. When Christofferson took on a passenger, who was an expert on aviation the latter was in doubts as to its leaving the water. Within less than 100 feet the boat left the water with wonderful ease and rapidly gained its elevation. This is one of the types of boats ordered by Amundsen, the Arctic explorer. It is the first successful flying boat ever constructed and Christofferson is now in lead of them all. The machine ascends from and descends to the water with less trouble than a duck. It is also equipped with ice runners, so that it can be used in polar exploration either on ice or water.

For sale: Two single buggies, both rubber tires; one open and one top. Open buggy nearly new, and has large, roomy seat. Top buggy is in good condition. Call at the Roy store, on the P. R. & N.

Walter Wasem, of Middleton, was Monday adjudged insane and ordered committed to the asylum. The young man is only 19 years of age, and has a common school education. His first mental breakdown took place about three weeks ago, and the past few days he became very violent so far as control is concerned. When asked to write his name he wrote the name of a girl whom he hardly knew. His father and Miles E. Haines brought him to the county seat, and Dr. F. A. Bailey examined the young man. In all probability a month or two at the State Hospital, at Salem, will bring him around all right.

For sale—Several incubators & brooders, latest makes.—J. Adams, near Jabez Wilkes place, south of City Park, Hillsboro. 5tf

Peter Huffman, of Bacona, was down the last of the week. He noted that the roads up the untandale-Bacona mountain getting into shape so lumber be hauled down from his mill. Do not forget to ask for a filler when you want a good cent smoke—no "cough dust" the Schiller. 12tf

WEST UNION BAPTIST CHURCH'S ANNIVERSARY

Was Organized at West Union, Sixty-Nine Years Ago

FAMLIAR NAMES OF OLD PIONEERS Met and Adopted Nine Articles of Faith as Their Guidance

The West Union Baptist Church was organized 69 years ago May 25, and the church building, which was erected by William Kane, of Forest Grove, after organization, still stands, with but few repairs, a new roof and new foundation—but still the same house of worship. Albert Tozier recently gleaned the names of those who signed the constitution, and gave them to the press. They were: Wm Beagle, David T Lenox, Henry Sewell, Alexander Blevins, Elder Vincent Snelling, Ninevah Ford, John Holman, Thos M Ramsdale, Sarah Enyart, Lewis Lineberger, Mrs Laneberger, Perry Beagle, Wm H Hill, John and David Zachary, Solomon Emrick, Henry Travelley, Washington and David Lenox, John White, Allen W Hall, Wm Porter, Mrs Barnes, Benjamin Kitchen, Maland Brock, E H Lenox, Wm Higgins, Eli Harper, Lucinda Beagle, Louisa, Mary Ann and Elizabeth Lenox, Patsy Holman, Lavina Blevins, Adelia Snelling, Lucinda Hill, Brazilla Constable, Lucetta Emrick, Lucy Davis, Miranda Jones, Joseph Davis, Alex W Hall, Susannah Porter, J H Johnson, Ellener Brock, Mrs Kitchen, Mrs Wilson, Mrs Elizabeth Lees, Mrs Johnson.

The articles of faith are nine and include the belief in the depravity of the human heart, the doctrine of election and immersion of the body as the only proper mode of baptism:

Article 1. We believe the scriptures of the Old and New Testament to be the word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice for the church of God.

Article 2. We believe that from eternity Jehovah alone subsisted in three persons—Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Article 3. We believe in the depravity of the human heart and that man has neither power nor will to recover himself from the lost state in which he is in by nature; that Adam fell into sin and his posterity in him.

Article 4. We believe in the necessity of regeneration or the new birth which is effected by the Holy Spirit as the agent and the word of God as the means.

Article 5. We believe in the final perseverance of the saints and that God gave unto them eternal life and they will never perish, neither can any pluck them out of his hand.

Article 6. We believe in the doctrine of imputed righteousness, and that the sinner when born again is clothed with the righteousness of Jesus Christ.

Article 7. We believe the doctrine of election as taught in the Bible and that it is God's purpose of mercy, by which he chose some of our guilty race in Christ to everlasting life.

Article 8. We believe that baptism is an ordinance of the gospel and is to be administered to believers only and that immersion of the body in water is the only proper mode of baptism.

Article 9. We believe the Lord's supper is an ordinance of the gospel and only such as have believed and have been baptized are proper subjects to receive it.

Ronald E. Britton, of North Plains, where he is agent for the United Railway, pleaded guilty Saturday, to giving liquor to minors. Britton was fined $50 by Judge Campbell and paroled as to servitude sentence. The young man is not yet of age, himself, and the court felt inclined to be lenient. Britton testified that he made about $85 per month, including his express fees. The Court gave him a nice little lecture, and the youngster went on his way rejoicing.

DEUCE COWANIAH WINS HIS CASE IN COURT

Judge Campbell Rules That Timber, Growing, is Real Estate

SAWMILL CAN CUT NO MORE TIMBER On Place of the Mortgage, but Can Saw What is Down on Ranch

C. J. Cowaniah, ranch owner near Connell station, on the Unifed, won a signal victory in circuit court, last Saturday, when at five p. m. Judge Campbell decided the growing timber was real estate, and gave a verdict for plaintiff in his case against Boeckli & Langhard, E. T. Preble et als. In March, 1910, Cowaniah sold Boeckli & Langhard 80 acres of land, which they stated they wanted to clear up and utilize for farming purposes. They paid $1,000 down, and gave a mortgage back for $4,200 at 6 per cent. interest. Boeckli & Langhard a few months later sold the timber on the place to Preble & Reese, and a sawmill was placed on the tract. They cut about a million and a half of timber, perhaps, two million, and there still remained from one to one and one-half millions, when Cowaniah brought suit to enjoin further cutting on the ground that his security was being impaired, and that the defendants would then abandon the land.

The defendants, Preble et als, fought the case on the ground that the land would still be worth the mortgage when all the timber was cut, and that further, they were within their rights because Cowaniah had tacitly agreed to putting the mill on the place. Cowaniah denied sanction, however, and the court held that such sanction, in any event, must be in writing, either in the mortgage or on a separate instrument.

Judge Campbell told the defendants that no more timber could be cut from the place, but that they might saw all down timber.

Preble injected into the case a party, Miss Nellie Todd, a stenographer in Allen R. Joy's law office, attempting to show that she had invested in the mill business, and held that she was not made a party, and therefore should have her rights. Campbell held that under a Supreme Court decision, in the Beaver Timber Co. versus Eccles, he could make no other decree.

PREBLE INJECTED INTO THE CASE A PARTY, MISS NELLIE TODD, A STENOGRAPHER IN ALLEN R. JOY'S LAW OFFICE, ATTEMPTING TO SHOW THAT SHE HAD INVESTED IN THE MILL BUSINESS, AND HELD THAT SHE WAS NOT MADE A PARTY, AND THEREFORE SHOULD HAVE HER RIGHTS.

PREBLE HELD THAT UNDER A SUPREME COURT DECISION, IN THE BEAVER TIMBER CO. VERSUS ECCLES, HE COULD MAKE NO OTHER DECREE.
