

GRANGE RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, in obedience to the call of the Great Master, our beloved brother, E. F. McNelly has laid down his implements on earth, and passed from labor to reward, we are reminded again that this life is only a stepping stone to a great hereafter, and as one after another is called away from us, and their voices are hushed in death, the heart saddens as the thought comes upon us—that we shall no more clasp the trusty hand or hear the counselling voice of a worthy brother. We look and behold one more vacant chair.

Therefore, be it resolved, that in the death of our brother the Grange has lost one of its best members, the order one of its friends, and Agriculture one of its defenders.

Brother McNelly had been a member of the Grange since January, 1909. To the family of deceased, who have lost their best earthly friend, a kind and affectionate husband and father, we tender our most heartfelt and loving sympathy and mingle our tears with theirs in this hour of sorrow. May He who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb keep them ever under the shadow of his wing.

Resolved, that the Secretary of the Grange be directed to engross these resolutions in the minutes of the Grange, furnish a copy to the family of our brother, and to the local papers for publication.

Dated this June 14, 1913.

W. V. Wiley returned the last of the week from a trip to Wallace, Idaho, and Spokane, Wash. While in Spokane he met C. E. Beckwith, well known here in olden days as S. P. agent. LONG & McKINNEY

The Argus invites Washington County to the Fourth of July celebration. It is not so much a matter of program as it is a means of getting together and getting acquainted. Hillsboro is central, and railroads come to the town from all points. Judge J U Campbell, our district circuit judge, will deliver the address, and as he is a veteran of the last war, he can speak as "of the manor born."

If Francis J. Heney is made the district attorney for California there is likely to be some shaking up of the legal dry bones down in that section of the union.

The democratic congress had better get that tariff bill off its hands as soon as possible, with just enough delay to make it a matter of merit. The currency proposition could wait another term, if necessary.

The Southern Pacific expects to expend thirty million dollars on new properties and extensions during the year of 1913. That will help Oregon a great deal, as much of it will be spent in the Northwest.

PROPOSALS FOR WOOD

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned up to two o'clock, July 18, 1913, and then opened, for furnishing Washington County with the following material:

Forty cords of first-class, first-growth four-foot fir wood, to be delivered at the court house in Hillsboro, Ore.

Thirty cords of fir wood, same specifications as above, to be delivered at the county poor farm, near Newton station.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

By order of the County Court,
J. E. Reeves, Sheriff,
Hillsboro, Ore., June 26, 1913.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in Grace United Evangelical Church last Thursday. A very interesting feature was the "W. C. T. U. Catechism," conducted by Mrs. Pearl Weber, and participated in by Mrs. Lucy Sigler, Mrs. M. C. Shirley, Mrs. Caroline Lund, Miss Miriam Stauffer and Mrs. Miller-Stauffer. The "Declaration of Principles" were read in concert. Mrs. Stauffer had secured "Annual Leaflets" from State Headquarters for the Union. Mrs. M. C. Shirley was appointed a membership committee. The department of work—"Mothers' Meetings and White Ribbon Recruits" was adopted, with Mrs. E. H. Baird as superintendent. The union will hereafter convene on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month, instead of Thursday. The next meeting will be held in the Christian Church, Tuesday, July 8, at 3:00 p. m.—Press Supt.

F. E. Croucher has sued Donahue & Co., mill firm, of near Helvetia, for $46.29, wages due. He also sues for an assignment of $12.17, wages earned and alleged unpaid, Walter Keffer, assignee, together with a claim of $24.10, J. M. Keffer, for hay delivered.

Most people are talking about the new goods, and they all say, "The finest looking store in Hillsboro." Come and see for yourself.—Peoples Store.

Woodsmen say there is a big growth of fern and undergrowth in the timber, this year, and this will mean that it will be difficult hunting that buck deer, when the season opens, August 1.

Don't Forget

Do not forget the big celebration that will be held in HILLSBORO

JULY 3 and 4

Best parade ever witnessed; Best program at park, and best fireworks.

The only big celebration in the county.

Clerk Luce is getting pretty well versed in the session laws, as he finds he has to answer many questions as to the game laws these days. The youngsters have been asking him the legal age for fishing license and he is kept busy telling the lads that they can fish if they are under fourteen years without paying in that dollar to the state of Oregon.

J. C. Wilson, of Bethany, was in town today. He expects to move into his new home at Orenco, shortly after July 4.

Banks' first team and Hillsboro's first ones will play at Hillsboro next Sunday. It will be a good game.

J. T. York, of Aloha, was in the city today, on school district business.

Washington county has but one survivor of Gettysburg, S. B. Starrett, of Forest Grove. He departed yesterday, along with other Oregon veterans, for the big Gettysburg reunion of Federals and Confederates. Mr. Starrett was an enlisted cavalryman in the Twelfth Pennsylvania. The old vets left the Union depot, and out of the 85 there are but six ex-Confeds. One of these was in Pickett's brave but ill-fated charge up Little Round Top, when 5000 grays went up the slope and but 1800 returned.

Albert B. Schmidt and Louise M. Grebe, of the Laurel section, were granted license to wed this afternoon.

At the men's meeting, held in the court house Sunday afternoon, steps were taken toward a permanent organization that will promote something in the line of a gymnasium and place of recreation for young people, especially young men. C. F. Sias, the regular chairman, being absent, Jas. H. Jack was chosen to preside. A committee composed of L. M. Hoyt, A. C. Davis, Wm Scott, C. F. Sias and Mr. Shepherd was appointed to report at the next regular meeting, a constitution and by-laws governing the organization. A called meeting will be held Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, in the M E church to arrange further business.
