walked away with it by a of six to four. Clay Freepitched the first few chap-and was then relieved by the regular catcher for Cornelius. Hits were few and between, and Cornelius only ahead by ragged playing, runs being the sequels, as to errors galore, both and throwing. Cornedid just as faulty work as local, but the fortunes of went with the visiting team.
Phelps went in and Free-was switched to first base boys all tightened up and Cornelius registered no more of the largest crowds ever abled in Athletic Park at-ed the game and there was element of fandom from Cornelius, the ladies even taking

JURY FINDS GUILTY
A jury in Judge Smith's court Friday found Mose Hirschey and A. Christener, North Plains farmers, guilty of selling unwholesome meat. Deputy District Attorney Tongue put on Dr.
A. Bailey, State Senator D. Wood and Dr. White, state board of health officer, and these three professional men swore that in their opinion the meat of the cow exposed for sale was unwholesome. Other physicians testified that they did not think that the flesh would be wholesome, and that the objection to it would be purely psychological. The cow in question was killed perhaps some two three weeks before she was to be calved. The case attracted considerable attention because state food & dairy commissioner Mickie prosecuted, swearing out the warrant.

Wallace Nolan, aged 68 years, tried to sever an artery in his wrist, last Friday morning, using an old razor. He is an inmate at the county farm, and for five months has been growing despondent and irritable. He made one slash at his neck and then concluded that he would try the wrist route. He was discovered before he became very weak, and stopped from further attempts.
Dr. Wood examined him for sanity, Saturday morning, and advised commitment to the State Hospital for the insane. Wall Nolan is a son of Jas. S. Nolan, a Missouri pioneer who settled on a donation land claim where the county farm is now located. He has had trouble with a hip ever since he was a little boy, and has always been more or less nervous.
In his youth he was a natural wit, and had a wide acquaintance all over Washington. He has three living children, one son living at Weiser, Idaho, and one at Centralia.

one wanting larger sizes of tiling for the coming season, place your orders before July 20th.
We also have a large supply of dry rough and dressed lumber and a large supply of dry shiplap. Your orders will receive prompt attention. P. O. Address

Mrs. G. M. Camp, of below Scholls, was prostrated at the celebration grounds, Friday, early, from taking too many headache tablets. She was suffering from a terrific headache, and to relieve it took the above number of Aulde's Acetanalid compound tablets, which nearly stopped heart action. Drs. Wood and Linklater worked on the case for an hour, and finally gave the patient relief so that she was able to be taken home Saturday.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs.

and Jackson Streets, Phone No.

Clifford Long departed Saturday evening for Nippel, Wash., where he will take a position with his uncle, Geo. Reynolds.
Nippel is on the celebrated Lake Moses, around which a few years ago there was nothing but arid lands. The Lake is today pumped on thousands of acres for irrigating, and the country is blooming like a rose.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, corner 8th and Fir, Hillsboro, Oregon.
Phone, City 822.

CITY OF CORNELIUS ASKS FOUR THOUSAND

Send in Bill For Forty Per Cent. of Property Tax

COUNTY DISALLOWS THEIR CLAIM Judges and Clerks of Election Named For Tualatin Vote

The City of Cornelius claim for forty per cent. of the property tax for six years was disallowed by the county court last week.
The city cites Chapter 54 of the 1907 session laws as authority for the claim. The time is from 1906 to 1911 and the total alleged due to Cornelius was $6539.38, with $2087.10 paid. The claim arises from the law making streets of the county roads inside the city and granting 40 per cent. of the tax for city use.

The section of law in question says that the city of Cornelius shall get 40 per cent. of all the property tax collected and the county court holds that the law is not constitutional. This would mean that 40 per cent. of the state tax, school tax, indigent, and all other tax would have to be paid. There may be litigation over the matter.

Judges of election for Tualatin incorporation—E. A. Eddy, L. D.

GERMAN LUTHERANS MEET AT CORNELIUS

Synod Comprises the Congregations in Two States

Forty-four pastors in session L. Stuebe, of Blooming, Presided Over the Conference.

Cornelius, Ore., July 4.—(Special.)
The Oregon and Washington district of the German Evangelical Lutheran church, Missouri Synod, held the tenth annual convention at St. Peter's Lutheran church, Cornelius.
The opening sermon was delivered by Rev. J. Miller, of Fort Wayne, Ind., vice-president of the general synod. The speaker urged adherence to the scripture doctrine of justification by faith, without the deeds of the law. L.
Stuebe, of St. Peter's, who is district president is presiding at all sessions.
President Stuebe read a doctrinal paper on the first petition of the Lord's prayer. "Hallowed be Thy Name." He declared that in this petition we pray for pure doctrine and right living through faith in Jesus Christ.
The synod embraces 26 congregations and about 75 mission stations, ministered to by 44 pastors and eight teachers of parochial schools. Four pastors and one teacher were received in Wednesday's session. Two congregations have applied for membership.
The question of whether a field secretary should be appointed to facilitate work in the home mission field was referred to a committee.
The board of directors of Concordia College, Portland, reported that institution in a flourishing condition in every respect.
During the past year 18 students were enrolled under the tutor-ship of Professors F. W. J. Sylvester and L. Blankenbuehler.
Nine of these men entered the college last September and four were graduated in June. The graduates will continue their studies in the East. The chief purpose of Concordia College is to prepare young men for a theological training, but the synod was urged to open the doors of its school to such young men, as seek a general education, and gather in as many as it can.
The sessions will end July 8.

SCHMIDT-GREBE
Albert B. Schmidt and Miss Louise M. Grebe, of Laurel, were united in marriage in Hillsboro, Judge W. D. Smith officiating, June 28, 1913. They will make their home in the Chehalem Mountain section.
