FAREWELL SURPRISE

A pleasant farewell surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Williams, of Shady Brook, Saturday evening, July 12. The evening was spent in dancing and card playing. At midnight a bountiful repast, brought in by the ladies of the party, was enjoyed by all present. After supper dancing was resumed until chore time, when all returned to their respective homes, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Williams success in their new undertaking, as they are leaving for Portland, where Mr. Williams is engaged in partnership with his brother in the Saratoga Chip factory. A feature of the evening was a regular old German cake-walk, rendered by Mr. Fritz Meyers Sr., aged 74, assisted by Mrs. M. A. Dorland, aged 75. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Williams, Fritz Meyers Sr., Fritz Meyers Jr., Jno. Kassebaum, F. G. Brown, Peter White, W. E. Darity, Mrs. M. A. Dorland, Mrs. L. M. Perry, J. H. Dorland, A. C. Lannock, Leon and Florence Williams, Allah, Lila and Alfred Meyers, Arnold, Mary, Bennie and Edith Kassebaum, Orrin Darity, Edith Brown, Cora Ray and Clay Dorland.

LITTLE GIRL LOST

Mary Fisher, a nine year old girl, daughter of Mrs. Bertha Fisher, in some manner strayed away from her Portland home and landed at old Bethany, Saturday, where she was picked up by Mrs. J. J. Stoller. She appeared indifferent about telling where she lived, and why she had strayed so far away from the maternal roof. She said that she had an uncle by the name of Carl Fisher, but the Portland police failed to find the mother readily. It was thought that perhaps the little one had strayed away from some state institution.

C. H. Malcolm, of near West Union, was in the city Monday, with a hen in the buggy, working overtime. When he hitched up biddy, was laying an egg for Tuesday morning's breakfast, and the owner did not know she was there until he was about to reach town. When she reached the city she took a notion to investigate the ways of the city and it took a lively sprint to catch her. Bystanders tried to induce Elmer Johnson, winner of the Fat Man's race, to run her down, but he was still too sore to try another race.

Attorneys E. B. Tongue and Geo. R. Bagley came over from Tillamook, Saturday evening, and returned Monday. They are still holding the trial of the property owners against the Warren Construction Co., in the coast county seat, and will be several days in getting the case to the jury. The Warren people have their head counsel clear from Boston, and he is aided by Frank Grant, ex-city attorney of Portland.

Mt. St. Helens, seen to the Northeast from this county, has claimed two more lives. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith, of Portland, lost lives there last week, by falling into a crevasse. A red bandana, worn by Mrs. Smith, was found at the edge of the delivity, and it is certain that they were lost in a blizzard on the mountain, and there is no hope of discovering them alive.

Last Friday, Baxter Henline, who resides on the Sewell Acreage, 3 miles northeast of Hillsboro, was badly injured by being kicked by a vicious horse. He was knocked down and trampled on and received serious internal injuries, and his recovery is doubtful. He was attended by Dr. F. A. Bailey.

Mrs. Robert Webb, of south of Job's Crossing, was thrown from a buggy, last Thursday evening, and sustained a dislocation of the left shoulder. An anaesthetic was administered by Dr. Barrett, and Dr. Bailey reduced the dislocation.

Will Darity and wife, of Shady Brook, were in the county seat, Monday. Mr. Darity says that he is going to get a buck on the first day of the open season or put his head in sack-cloth and ashes the rest of the season.

Adam Simpson, one of the pioneers of the Buxton section, and J. W. Howard, were guests at the Hotel Washington, Saturday and Sunday, leaving for home on the first things we look for when we buy scythes and hooks. The steel of which the blades are made is tested by us, next we see that the handles have that hefty feel that makes the sythe or hook a good tool. You are sure of them being good when you buy here.
