UNION STOCK YARDS

(Portland)
Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1026; calves, 232; hogs, 2125; sheep, 4171.
Cattle market steady to stronger at the close of the week's business. Prime grass steers offering on Thursday and Friday sold at $8.25 to $8.50 in small quantity. The demand for this class stuff is fine, but for medium and half fat varieties prices are higher than they have been for the last two weeks. The steer ton on bulk sales—$8 to $8.25. Light offerings of cows and heifers has strengthened the market somewhat, especially in choice grades. Cows $7 to 7.25; heifers $7.25 to 7.50; bulls $6 to 6.25, and calves $9.00 are top quotations on the various classes.
Buying demand in the hog pens increased materially the latter part of the week; tops sold in bulk at 9.00 to 9.15, with a few leads at 9.20 and 9.25. The market is steady to strong on a basis of 9.15. Good demand for smooth and rough heavy hogs. The receipts have been fairly liberal considering the season of the year and liquidation will doubtless decrease during the next two months.
Sheep house prices have suffered to some extent during the last six days, due to the slow demand on the part of the killers. Good fat mutton is not finding a very broad outlet, while lamb values have decreased 25 to 50¢ since July 1st. Prime yearlings 5.25 to 5.50; ewes at $4.00; old wethers at 4.00 to 4.25 and lambs at $5 represent extreme quotations.

ALOHA SURPRISE

Neighbors and friends of Mrs. F. Bockmann successfully carried out a pleasant surprise on that lady, at her home at Aloha, Friday afternoon, July 11, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth. The hours were enjoyed in conversation, music and other forms of entertainment, and a delightful luncheon was served, brought by the self-invited guests. Those present were: Mesdames Quint, Hoben, C. M. Hitchcock, Melville Hitchcock, Townsend, Reynolds, Wolf, Buck, Casper, Hunt, Lyte, Wellborn, Wheeler, Johnson, Haug, Libby. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. M. A. Edgar, Tucson, Arizona; Mrs. J. Sound and son, Mark, of Portland; Miss Florence Sound, Vancouver, Wash.; Mesdames Borden, Malmer, Sorenson and Solgard, of Beaverton.

A fellow by the name of Brown, who worked for a Hillsboro store some time ago, has skipped for parts unknown, after overdrawing his account at one of the banks. The bank refused payment after the deposit was evaporated. Brown went to the bank and deposited $20 in the joint name of Brown and Lambert. He said the account was small, but would grow, and asked for a check book. He then went away and proceeded to draw forty or fifty dollars against the twenty dollar deposit. It appears that he has gone clear out of the country. Lambert says he never at any time authorized Brown to make a deposit, and had no business with him that would warrant it in any manner.

Some fellow by the name of Bazby cashed a check on which the name of Geo. Biersdorf was forged May 21st, at Koerber's confectionery. Biersdorf says the check is a rank forgery, and that he knows of no such man. The chap went into the store, made a small purchase, and cashed the paper, receiving cash for the balance. No one appears to know the party, and Koerber says he would not know him now if he should see him.

Chas. Mencham is having quite a bit of pleasure at the expense of Mrs. Mencham. A few days ago she recovered from an attack of the measles, and after being around for a few days, contracted the mumps. It is a rather odd affair—an adult having two child-maladies one right after the other.

Adam Bell, of Centerville, was in the city Saturday evening. Adam says that it is lonesome out his way, as very few of the farmers come through on the Cornelius road to the county seat, the majority taking the short cut through to the county seat.

J. H. and W. S. Sander, of Ashland, where they are ranchers and florists, were in the city the last of the week, guests of their brother-in-law, Henry Deisman. They went over to Tillamook, Monday, to their former home, for a few days' visit.

C. M. McPherson, of near West Union, went to Prineville, the middle of the week, on land business.
