The law of compensation isn't working overtime, but if you have no auto you don't have to buy gasoline.

Contractors appear to have lots of trouble in putting up public buildings. The builders of the school building, as well as the contractor on the court house, have had their share of troubles, and the end is not yet.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels appears to have made a hit with the Pacific Coast. He appears to be a good mixer, and to realize, as well, the practical side of affairs. For the first time in history a cabinet officer has appreciated the Pacific Coast.

Citizens should lend every possible aid to L. D. Westfall, of Tualatin, who is getting up a county exhibit for the State Fair. Mr. Westfall has but limited financial support from the county—let him at least have your good will, and your exhibit, if it be a good one.

Hunters should be very careful about shooting so that the man in the hills is safe. Every year or so some one gets killed. Look twice before you shoot, and even then be certain it is a deer. The excuse, "I thought it was a deer" is not bringing back the man, and death means grief.

The I. W. W. disturbance has been squelched in Portland, and there will be no more riots. Several agitators, who have been publicly declaiming that all officers were the tools of corruption and crooks, have been sent to the rockpile—and this seems to be feared by the soapbox orator—where they will have to work.

It is to be hoped that every producer who has something worth while placing on exhibit will aid to the limit the County Fair to be held at Forest Grove this Fall. You can not have a successful fair unless those who have things worth while send them in for display. This county too long has had to coax people to help out an Industrial display, and it is time that those who produce finer grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables, get busy, and kick the half-bushel off the light, that it may shine to all outside visitors.

There is not a bit of doubt of the excellence of the ordinance preventing dogs from running at large—but since the canine has been deprived of his liberty, another nuisance is visiting the city. This is the despised Thomas Cat—and he is some king in his realm these days. Nightly he keeps the starlit spaces full of his melody and from every block in the residence district you can hear him singing his song of undridled license. The next thing in order will be an ordinance to keep the cats kenneled, and it will doubtless be supported by all except the man or woman who is deaf.

Ward Downs returned from Eastern Oregon, this week, and will remain here for a few days.

John C. Cornley and Mabel Ray were united in marriage at Beaverton, July 22, 1913, Rev. Father O'Flynn, of the Catholic Church, officiating.

John Koch, of above Blooming, was in the city this morning. His neighbors can now have clear sailing into town, as the Dairy Creek bridge work is completed.

Henry Dannell, Byron Garrett, Frank Rollins and Edwin Bowman "hiked" over the Wilson River road to Tillamook the first of the week, Creigh Long taking them as far as Gales City in the machine.

"The Trail of the Hanging Rock"—a mountain play, full of human interest and replete with beautiful settings—two reels—at the Peoples Theatre, Monday and Tuesday. Do not miss this wonderful outdoor story.

HILLSBORO, Mond'y, Aug. 4
ONE DAY, ONLY

C. L. Crocker, of below Newton, was in town yesterday.

Harry Eldredge, of Portland, was out this morning, visiting his customers, and arranging for a hunting trip out in the hills.

George Meacham, of above Mountaindale, was in town this morning, getting ready for a hunting trip on the headwaters of Dairy Creek.

Higganbotham, the oldtime Hillsboroite, pitching for the Beavers, won another game from Los Angeles, yesterday. Portland is now heading the Pacific Coast League.

J. C. Buchanan's horse won the matched race at the Forest Grove track last week. The youngster is some horse, and a splendid future is expected. The race was for $100 a side. Quite a number of Hillsboro fans witnessed the race.

E. Helvogt, of below Newton, was in town this afternoon.

It begins to look as though the officials in the court house will remain in their old quarters for some time to come.

M. J. Eldrick, working for J. W. Goodin, of North Plains, was injured this morning by a fall of 15 or 20 feet, while working on a pile driver. Three ribs were broken and his shoulder and arm were injured and he suffered internal injuries. Dr. Bailey attended, and thinks the patient will soon recover.

Deputy Game Warden Russell, of Gaston, will be a busy man these days, with the hunting season opening tomorrow. Game Warden Finley has put on several new men in the deer sections—and hunters will do well to conform to the law. Clerk Luce has been busy issuing licenses the past week, and to each man he issues three tags, or coupons, and this means the limit—three bucks for the entire season.
