SEALED BIDS

Sealed proposals will be received up to August 1, 1913, for furnishing 100 cords of four-foot fir wood, second growth, and 50 cords of good-sized oak wood, four-foot length, to be delivered at the school houses in Hillsboro as the board of directors may designate.

Peter Boscow, Clerk.
By order of Board of School Directors District No. 7, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Friday morning and the whang of guns will be heard in the hills, as the buck deer season opens. Many Hillsboro hunters will be out. Three is the limit, and if you get more than this, look out for the game warden. A well known hunter says that every man who is out after deer should wear a red shirt, as this is the safest protection against being shot. Many men wear a dun-colored suit, about the color of a deer, and a movement in the brush, where one is partially concealed, is an invitation for an impulsive hunter to fire. Since the law prohibits shooting does, however, the danger is not so great, as many watch for the antlers or spikes. There are hunters, however, who can spread their imagination to seeing a pair of antlers if they can but see something moving that looks like a deer.

H. M. Basford and sister, Sarah, of near Farmington, returned the last of the week, after three and one-half months of visit to the East. They were in 30 states during their travels, and also visited Canada. Their most easterly point was the state of Maine. Their return to Oregon looks mighty good to him. They spent two days each in the United States Senate and House of Representatives, and stopped at all points of interest along the line. One thing that made their trip most pleasant was the fact that they traveled but very little nights, generally making day travels and stopping at some station during the nights.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailor-made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores. Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.

Lawrence Taggart departed Tuesday morning for the east slope of the Cascade Mountains, where he will remain several months, on a government survey, under the charge of A. A. Morrill. Mr. Morrill left Ontario, Eastern Oregon, Friday morning, and from there went to Olympia, to confer with the surveyor general of the state of Washington, before going to his allotment. He will have to pack all his supplies into the mountains, and a great deal of his work will be in the timber, at an elevation of about six or seven thousand feet.

The St. Louis Republic last week announced the death of James Cincinnati Lamkin, aged 70. The dead banker was a cousin of J. C. Lamkin, of Hillsboro, and was an ex-Confederate soldier. Returning to Marshall, Mo., after the war, he was honored by fiduciary positions and lived a life of highest esteem. There were three cousins of the same name, and the Hillsboro Lamkin is the last of the trio to keep pegging away at this old world of ours.

It is about time that Hub Simpson and W. F. Smith, of South Tualatin, began preparations for a visit to the "potato patch," on the head of East Dairy, in quest of the festive buck deer.

Lorsung & Sons, contractors, have finished a barn for Dan Leisy, of South Tualatin, and are now working on a dry kiln and hop warehouse for Jos. Cawrse. They are also repairing the Miner bridge, below Newton.

Miss Ethel Watters returned to Walla Walla, Saturday, after a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Wilkes. Miss Watters is a teacher in the Walla Walla schools.

Mrs. Cora Sahli and son, Albert, were out from Portland, Sunday, guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolf, of North Hillsboro. Mrs. Sahli is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wolf.

Mrs. David O'Donnell, of Tillamook, visited with her sister, Mrs. Dooher, of Fifth street, the last of the week. She was accompanied by Mrs. Caldwell, of the Banks-Buxton section.

Auto drivers are complaining about the dust these days—but so are those who travel by team and occasionally meet a machine.

J. J. Nusbaumer, of near Phillips, was a county seat visitor Monday morning.

Chas. Parker went to Golden gate the first of the week, on a business trip.
