A NEW HIGH POWER RIFLE—
The Remington-UMC Slide Action Repeater

GETTING in touch with the shooting fraternity all over the country, as we do, we find a very considerable number of Remington users who want a Remington slide action repeater in a high power model—one heavy enough for practically any type of game that is found on this continent.

The answer to the demand is the new Remington-UMC High Power Slide Action Repeating Rifle. During the few months these rifles have been on the market, several hundred of them have been put into use. The testimony of the owners is that they are emphatically successful.

Your Remington dealer has these repeating rifles in stock or will get you one. Don't lose a high power repeating rifle you have seen. It is the gun you want.

GOV. WEST STOPPED SUNDAY SHOW

Beckmann Says Could Not Show There Monday Without Canceling Dates

Fred Beckmann, owner of the Oklahoma Ranch Wild West Show did not take his aggregation of riders to Oregon City, Monday, as promised by his representative, Burlock. The show was dated for Oregon City, Sunday, and the ministers of the falls city appealed to Gov. West to stop the show. This was done, although an injunction had been served against Sheriff Maas and other officials stopping them from interfering with the performances. Later it was discovered that the Monday date could not be made without cutting both Hillsboro and Tillamook, so the show came on to this city Sunday afternoon and filed the Washington County date. Mr. Beckmann had the following to say relative to sidetracking Oregon City, when seen at the grounds, Monday evening:

"After our representative at Oregon City had half-way agreed to show there today, I found out that if we did so we would not only lose the two performances at Hillsboro, but we should be obliged to cancel Tillamook entirely, or at least cut the afternoon performance. This would have meant a big financial loss.

"We billed Oregon City only after we had ascertained what we thought was a perfect willingness on the part of the officials for a Sunday date. Had our representative known at the time what agreeing to show at Oregon City would have meant to us he would not have made the proposition. To be concise, we had either to break with Oregon City today or break faith with Hillsboro and Tillamook, and we chose the least of the two evils. Oregon City is a good little town and has a lot of workmen there who can ill afford to lose a day for amusement, and we therefore billed the city for Sunday, not thinking we would stir up trouble and expense."

That Washington County sire, The Zoo, now in Russia, and whose gets are winning the three-year old races in the land of the Czar, as well as in Austria, is getting plenty of publicity, these days. The mention made in the Argus has been copied or mentioned in all the Portland dailies, and is going the rounds of the coast. If it keeps up, Sheriff Reeves, who raised the sire, is likely to again start in the horse business.

The Cottage Grove newspapers are all "swelled up" because a hen hatched a four-legged chicken the other day. Come again, brothers! You haven't anything on Hillsboro. The Argus reporter ran across a two-legged hog the other day, and didn't even think it worthy of mention.

Mrs. Nettie Cooper and son, of Laurel, were in the city Monday, on probate business. There will be a sale at the old McFee ranch, August 20, and readers will find a notice in another column.

Mrs. Silas Christofferson was the guest of her parents at the Bissner ranch, the first of the week. Her husband has been over on the Island with his aircraft, for a few weeks.
