

WORK MARIS SENDS OPEN LETTER

Boys and Girls Preparing Exhibits for School Fair

LOTTIES WILL NOT SUCCEED

Good Advice and Encouragement to Youngsters

Worker N. C. Maris writes following open letter to school children who are preparing to exhibit to the State Fair:

I hope you are all having a fine time during vacation, playing some, working some, and doing some, and not forgetting to prepare your exhibits for the school fair. Had you thought how soon they will be here?

A few short weeks now, and time will pass quickly. Procrastination would be the thief of your prizes you have no doubt in your heart set on winning.

It is so easy to waste time and slack in our habits, especially during vacation. Everyone ought to set apart certain hours each day for play, for work, and for reading. You will be surprised how much more you will accomplish.

If you are raising garden stuff, do not neglect it. The seeds will keep growing these few days just the same, and if you do not keep them hood or tied up they will rob your gardens of prize winners.

If you are raising poultry, do not let the fowls regularly well and handle them carefully so they will be gentle and good disposition.

If you expect to exhibit sewing, do not let your sewing machine, watch, or some other attractive prize, you have no time to lose. If you would win in the making contest, you cannot practice too much. Do not be afraid of soiling your hands with the dough. It is no disgrace to work, and hurry hands are honorable.

Do not overlook the fact that the railroads will carry your exhibits to and from the State Fair free of charge. The children of other states are so generously invited by the railroads, so far as we know. Do not fail to read the rules and regulations in the State Fair Price List which tells you what you have to do in order to get the free rate.

Some boy or girl who reads this may say "I have to work all the time and never have vacation, and do not have time to prepare anything for the fair." I hope very few of you are entirely deprived of a vacation, but as to having to work hard, you really ought to be thankful for that. Hard work does not hurt you if you do not get weary about it. Our best and greatest people have had to work hard. Surmounting difficulties brings out the best that is in you, and develops strength of character. The very best exhibits at the school fairs of last year were generally made by children who had to work hard. Winners do not win prizes at fairs or in the battles of life.

Perhaps you are not yet acquainted with Mr. Churchill, our new State Superintendent, but you will have an opportunity to meet him some day, I hope. I am sure you will like him; he says he is very much interested in the boys and girls of Oregon, and especially in seeing them earn the practical things of life. He is anxious to see definite results from the Industrial Department. It is up to you to show such results, boys and girls, and I am sure you will do your part."

Dr. J. R. Marshall and wife are at Newport for an outing.

Dr. Rokey and party, of Portland, were Sunday guests at the Dr. Linklater home.

James Anderson and wife are visiting friends in Spokane, and will be absent several days.

If you want farm wagons, buggies, implements, mowers, rakes, etc., call on E. T. Turner, at Laurel, general merchandise and groceries. 12-24

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Connell, of Portland, were out yesterday, attending the funeral of the late Joseph Ross, at the Tualatin Plains cemetery.

If you want hardware, at prices that are right, just call on and see D. Corwin, in the Hillsboro National Bank Annex, Second Street.

Business men of Hillsboro and Forest Grove are doing some very serious thinking on the matter of express out of Portland. As the express schedules now stand one has to get in an order early in the afternoon or else wait until next morning for their shipments. Shippers out of Portland always contend that they get their shipment to the express office in time, but that it can't be handled there in time for evening delivery. It would appear that arrangements should be made so that express delivered in Portland not later than four o'clock could reach Hillsboro the same evening. A petition will probably be circulated to get this condition inaugurated.

Ferd Groner has a nice bunch of thoroughbred Shropshire bucks for sale at reasonable prices. Equal in quality to most of the high priced ones. Address, Hillsboro Route 2. Phone, Scholls Central, 555 on Line 16. 19-U

August Pupke, aged 86 years and 8 months, died at the home of his son, Herman Pupke, at Sewell, Aug. 11, 1931. He was born in Province, Anhalt, Germany, Dec. 16, 1825, and came to the United States in 1882, settling first in Minnesota. In 1890 he came to Oregon. Two children survive, Mrs. Marie Reaknecker, of Anhalt, Germany, and Herman Pupke, of Sewell. The funeral took place Tuesday, and interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery, Rev. Berthold, pastor of the Cornelius Lutheran Church, officiating in sermon and prayer.

For sale: Two registered Holstein cows in milk. Also a number of grade Chester White pigs, three months old and up. Walter Zetzman, Cornelius, Route 1, five miles northwest of Hillsboro, near Schiefelin station.

Contractor W. C. Moore started a crew of men to work on the Jubric garage building, the first of the week. They are now getting the foundation into shape, and the structure will close quite a gap between the M. E. church and the old Newell building. Gay Lombard's agent was out from Portland yesterday, to talk over the matter of another fireproof garage, to be located on Second and Washington, if rental arrangements can be perfected.

There will be a free entertainment at the Metzger M. E. church, Saturday evening, Aug. 16, followed by an ice cream social, in the church parlors. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the salary fund. Everybody invited.

The Portland, Eugene & Eastern Tuesday finished up putting in their tracks on Hillsboro Main St., and now the track is connected clear through to the main line. Steel poles for the overhead will be the next thing on the program. These poles are not unsightly, and they can be seen on Fourth street, Portland. They are made of tubular steel.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given at the Methodist Church, next Wednesday, Aug. 20, at eight o'clock in the evening, under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Admission, 10 and 15 cents.

The Linder-Kibbe Company was given the contract for the cement sidewalk for the Hillsboro school building blocks, at 131 cents per square foot. Frasey & Page put in a bid for 14 cents. This is considered cheap, considering the specifications. H. D. Schmeltzer was given the contract for furnishing 100 cords of good four foot fir at $3.75, and 50 cords of oak at $5. Mr. Schwanke put in a bid of 25 cords of oak at $5.50.

When wanting an ice cream soda, why not get it at a modern, up-to-date fountain where the syrup is kept in sanitary wells, pumped into the glass by a sanitary pump. That's the kind of fountain you will find at Koerber's.

The Moose lodge will give a dance at Hillsboro Hall, Saturday evening, August 16. The boys are selling a big ticket list, and they expect a fine time. Moose from all over the county will be present, and as it is public, a banner attendance is expected.

I saw cordwood, poles up to 12 inches in diameter, fence rails, and boards of all kinds, into stovewood lengths. Will go into the country. Write, phone or call on me.—Carl Skow, Hillsboro. Phone, City 146.

L. L. Crawford, one of the directors of the Washington County Fair Association, was down from Crawford, yesterday. He says there are all indications of a fine exhibit at Forest Grove this fall.

For the best values in hardware of all kinds, call on Dave Corwin, who can sell you the best at the lowest figures. Plumbing given prompt attention, Second Street, south of Main.

Mrs. G. W. Biggers, of LaGrande, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Abbott.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING AT TANNER'S, GASTON

Joseph Sardi Shoots Jas. Simonelli With Shotgun, Yesterday

TRIPPED BY DOG, GUN DISCHARGED

Sardi in Jail Awaiting Official Investigation Men Were Friends

Joseph Sardi shot Jas. Simonelli, at the A. H. Tanner place, near Gaston, at 10:30 yesterday morning, and Sardi is in jail awaiting investigation, while Simonelli, with wounds in the chest, stomach and arms, is in a Portland hospital. When seen at the jail last night Sardi, who is aged 29 years, said he and Simonelli are good friends, and that the latter had arrived from Portland the night before for a visit. Sardi says he took a young dog out for training yesterday morning, and when he returned to the cabin, the animal playfully pulled at his trousers. In pushing the animal away, Sardi's gun discharged, the contents taking effect in Simonelli's chest. Dr. Hawke, who attended, says Simonelli stated to him that the two men were the best of friends, and Sardi says he would rather have the shot himself than to see his friend afflicted.

Simonelli is 47 years of age, and is an Italian. Sardi is a Serbian. The prisoner has been clearing land for Tanner. He is candid about the affair, and claims a friendship of 12 years with the stricken man. Chas. Westcott brought Sardi down and turned him over to Sheriff Reeves. The case will be investigated, and if it is shown that it was an accident the man will be given his liberty.

TUALATIN RESIDENTS ENJOIN QUARRY WORK

Ask Circuit Court to Enjoin Blasting on County Rock Quarry

SAY ARE IN DANGER CONSTANTLY

Allege That Blasts Throw Rock on Land and Strike Buildings

Washington County—Judge Reasoner and the commissioners, Messrs. Nyberg and Hanley—has a lawsuit on hand in the nature of an injunction filed by Henry Saffron and Fred W. Sargent, of Tualatin. The plaintiffs seek to secure a permanent injunction against blasting rocks from the county quarry, alleging that rock is strewn all over the lands of each. They also allege that some of the blasts are thrown against their outbuildings, and Mr. Sargent swears that rocks are frequently thrown against his residence. They state that it is unsafe to go out and work on their places, as there are from 15 to 20 blasts daily. Saffron owns 12 acres and Sargent 10 acres adjacent to the scene of operations. Saffron has a barn and onion house, and a small residence—occupied by his son-in-law—within 300 feet of the quarry, while his own residence is about 1500 feet distant. Mr. Sargent says his house is within 300 feet of where the blasts are ignited, and that there is extreme danger of holes being made in the roof and windows broken as a result of the explosions. They close their plea saying that as matters now stand it is extremely unsafe on their places and they fear irreparable injury.

The injunction has been sent to Judge Campbell for signature, until a hearing can be had, when they will ask permanent stoppage. John M. Wall is attorney for the applicants, and he says that the constant worry is telling on the health of Mr. Saffron, who is well along in years. Both plaintiffs allege that their lives are endangered.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott were given a surprise at the home of Miss Eliza Shorey, East Main street, August 8, by the members of the Baptist church choir, of which Mr. Scott was leader for a year. The guests of honor were invited to dine at the Shorey home, and the choir members, being advised, concluded to show their appreciation of Mr. Scott's work as leader. They met at the postoffice and then proceeded to the Shorey home. The choir presented Mr. Scott with a handsome pair of military brushes as a souvenir of their esteem. Mr. Scott taught boys' class in the Baptist Sunday School, and Mrs. Scott instructed the "Daughters of the King" class. They will be greatly missed in Baptist church circles. They will soon depart for Corvallis, where Mr. Scott will teach this coming Fall and Winter.

Fred Schoen, of Cornelius precinct, was down to the city Monday afternoon.

Greens have hats, work shirts, pants, work shoes and classy dress shoes for men.

Mrs. Alice Ford departed Monday for a visit at Umatilla and Salt Lake.

E. L. McCormick was seriously ill the first of the week, but is now improving.

Greens have the nicest assortment of gingham, percales and calicoes in the city.

The Social Circle of the Cong. Church will have an out-door picnic next Thursday, place to be announced later.

Montgomery McKinney, of the Okanogan section, was in town the first of the week, the guest of his brother, J. N. McKinney.

W. J. Gregg, of Leisyville, was in yesterday. He reports one of the best hop prospects since he has been in the business.

Valuable cash prizes given at Johnson's Studio for juvenile subjects, beautiful women in picturesque poses and other "human interest" subjects whose photos are acceptable to an Eastern Art Calendar Publishing House.

J. Q. Johnson is at Belknap Springs, on the McKenzie road, in Lane County, and he writes the Argus that he went through from Portland on rock roads the greater portion of the way. He says there is plenty of good fishing, and good hunting up there, and that 20 autos are garaged on the grounds, with 150 people taking in the finest mountain and stream resort in the state. J. Q. got his buck deer last Saturday, and regaled on venison all this week.

Ralph Withycombe was in the city Monday morning, adjusting the loss of another barn, which burned last Wednesday night. The structure was a new one, 30x56, and contained 25 tons of hay, wagon, buggy, and all his farm implements, the loss being over $4,000. John Vandervel adjusted the loss at $2,115.50, and the check arrived this week. Mr. Withycombe has ordered lumber for another barn, and it will be built at once. This is the third loss by fire for Mr. Withycombe. His house first burned, and then a barn burned early this summer. Besides these three fire losses, he lost a valuable horse by electrocution in this city, last Winter, during the heavy storm. Ralph thinks the jinx is now dead, and that from now on he will not be the object of misfortune.

Will sell from 5 to 10 acres, with neat, new, modern house of six rooms with bath. Plastered. Piped for water and gas. One mile from town. Berries and young fruit trees, and 8,000 strawberry plants. Ideal place for chicken ranch. Best of reasons for selling.—John Becker, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 3. 21-U

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kerr arrived home from their wedding trip to Newport, Monday. They were belated on the trip over and did not make Hillsboro until nine in the evening. The engine taking them from Newport ran out of oil on the mountain, and a wood burner was sent out to bring the train in. This engine ran out of water on the hill, and a third engine was sent out from Corvallis to bring in the passengers, with the result that they were so late that the company put on a special to bring the train into Portland. The passengers had a big time fishing along the line.

For sale: Grade Jersey heifer, 2 years, fresh, with calf at side. Also a No. 15 De Laval cream separator, used by three months. Robb Bros, near Schiefelin station, Tillamook line, Forest Grove, Route 2.

F. C. Orth, who travels the county for the condensers, was in town Monday. He states that while this is the low season for milk production the county is furnishing more this season than heretofore. Last year was the low water mark for milk supply in August, and while the supply is now reduced to what it was, there is an increase over the corresponding time of any former year. This shows a healthy condition in the dairy industry. Mr. Orth says that the section contiguous to Hillsboro is gaining all the time in percentage of production.

Twenty penciled Indian Runner ducks, English, for sale, at 75 cents each.—Mrs. H. P. Cromwell, Beaverton, Ore., Route 2. Residence between Aloha and Huber.

Ervin Burkhalter, of South Tualatin, was in town the last of the week. He thinks that the county could wisely put in a couple of "turnouts" on the bridge across Jackson Bottom, so that in case of a runaway one could drive to one side. The idea is an excellent one, as this structure is the longest in the county, and one instinctively shudders in contemplating the havoc a runaway team would create if it should meet a vehicle on the bridge, with no chance for it to get out to one side.

For Sale—One all-steel horse-power hay baler, capacity one ton per hour with three men and boy.—Zina Wood, Hillsboro, south of S. P. R. R. 18-U

Chris Christensen, of Shady Brook, badly cut his knee the last of the week. He was working in the timber, and a tree fell towards him. In attempting to get out of the way he fell and the ax cut his leg, a part of the bit entering the knee-cap. Dr. Smith went out and sewed the wound. He says he is fearful that the patient may have a stiff knee, particularly if any of the water was drained.

Harvest dance at the W. O. W. Hall, North Plains, Saturday evening, Aug. 23. Tickets, including supper, $1.25. New music—and the biggest dance of the year. 21-22

Carl Berggren, for 20 years up in the hills between North Plains and Seapooose, will now reside on his farm at Glencoe. For 18 years Mr. Berggren has been cutting shingles up in the blue ether, and he is now going to try farming on the prairies.
