COURT DENIES QUARRY INJUNCTION, MONDAY

Sustains Demurrer in Ewald Versus Garden Tracts

MASTERS WITHDRAWS SUIT VS. CITY

Forest Grove Wife Defendant Given no Alimony in Divorce

Judge J. U. Campbell held a session of circuit court, Monday morning, and passed on many cases on the calendar for motion argument. He denied the application for an injunction estopping the county from operating the quarry on the Nyberg place, at Tualatin, and the complaint was ordered stricken from the files. This was the case wherein Henry Saffron and F. W. Sagert asked permanent stopping of the operation of the quarry, alleging that they feared for their lives, and that the blasting of rock was throwing stones over their premises, after two weeks, however, the quarry will be shifted.

The case of Ewald versus the Hillsboro Garden Tracts, suit to recover money paid on Garden Tracts lots because plaintiff alleged some small shacks were being built close by, contrary to the alleged agreement of the Garden Tracts people, was settled by the court allowing the plaintiff to amend his complaint. Ten days was given for this. The court said that damages was the method of suit, in cases of this kind. Ewald complained that he bought with restrictions that he must build a home worth at least a thousand, and with the understanding that others buying in proximity must do likewise. Shacks followed in his neighborhood. Suit for damages may follow.

John Masters, upon motion of his attorneys, withdrew his complaint against the city of Hillsboro, asking for estoppel of building cement walks about his property, and the costs will be taxed to the plaintiff.

Default and referred—Hyers vs Hyers; Bues vs Bues; Williamson vs Williamson.

Judgment for plaintiff—Fairbanks, Morse & Co vs E T Preble.

Decrees of divorce—Hanson vs Hanson, Loveland vs Loveland, Chamberlain vs Chamberlain, Betschowa vs Betschowa; Clark vs Clark; Elsea vs Elsea; Stream vs Stream. The last case the defendant wife was given the custody of the children, but she receives no alimony. She had asked for $25 monthly. This was denied. Stream is a Forest Grove barber. He was the one asking for the decree.

Dismissed—Wetherbee vs Catterlin; Cave vs City of Hillsboro; Spees vs Spees.

Goldstein vs Pacific Home Mutual Ins Co—defendent, against whom a judgment was given for a fire loss, was given until Jan 2 to complete transcript on appeal.

Default in case of suit for borrowed money was entered in the case of Ferree vs E Becker.

The court will again visit Hillsboro about September 1.

At a meeting of the directors of the Washington County Fair, Tuesday evening, at Forest Grove cash prizes were offered in the Juvenile department as follows: Best booth from any community, first prize, $15; second, $10; third, $5; fourth, $2.50. Supervisor Jas. H. Jack is in charge of this department and has appointed local field workers in Scholls, Sherwood, Tualatin, Forest Grove, Thatcher, Hillside and Sunnyside neighborhoods. A complete list of local field workers will be published later. Communities desiring booths should write or see Mr. Jack, who will assist in every center. Car fare will be allowed these representatives for one round trip to the grounds, at the call of the superintendent. Friday, Oct. 10, will be public school day at the fair. Premium lists are now printed and being distributed.

G. M. Turner, who has been manager for the Washington-Oregon Corporation for Washington County for over a year, has resigned from the company's service, and will be succeeded by R. R. Easter. Mr. Easter is now in the city taking over the plant and being introduced by his predecessor. Mr. Turner has made many friends while in Hillsboro. He will remain here for the present and may go into business. He was assigned to the Washington state section, but declined to take the position, as his territory would have taken him from Vancouver to Chehalis, and he would have been away from home the greater portion of the time.

Roy Babel, barber, who worked for the Anderson Shop, last year, was in town Tuesday, from The Dalles. He came down on the Franklin K. Lane special, as tonsorial artist, and was given $10 for his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gordon were Portland visitors yesterday.
