The Tillamook minister who went to Portland and tried to mash two women, getting pinched for his pains, was tried by a jury, a majority of whom were church men, and they found him guilty. The parson claimed he was "just slumming," but it brought conviction just the same. Kuhlman asked one of the women, who was hurrying home after a hard day's work, if her name was "Mabel," and she leveled a slap at the amorous slummer. The next woman he tackled called a policeman, and that settled his hash. The latest is that his parish has given him a vote of confidence and he is to stay to the end of his conference year. This slumming proposition as an excuse is a great deal like the forger who lays his troubles to whiskey.

Twelve communties have reported to Jas. H. Jack, of the Juvenile department, that they will furnish booths at the county fair to be held Oct. 9, 10 and 11. Boys and girls, under 16 years of age, will be entitled to exhibit articles. Names of places and managers are as follows: Sherwood, W P Fisk; Scholls, Mrs S P Taylor; Tigard, Mrs Ida Gustin; Sunnyside, Mrs O C Schofield; Gaston, Prof O B Kraus; Dilley, Mrs C Broderson; Orenco, F W Powers; Forest Grove, Miss Hazel Loynes; Hillside, Mrs L C Clapshaw; Hillsboro, Mrs M C Case; Tualatin, Miss Ada Westfall.

Herman Stalder, a donkey engineer, aged 23 years, was picked up by Sheriff Reeves, at the Southern Pacific depot, Tuesday, and is being held on a telegraphic warrant from Los Angeles, where Stalder is charged with a statutory offense. Young Stalder had been working over at Mohler, on the P. R. & N., where he ran the engine which is being used to haul gravel out of the Nehalem River for the roadbed. Extradition papers are now being executed and a California officer is expected after the prisoner in a few days.

"Jack" Eccles, a former compositor on a local paper has departed for parts unknown, taking with him the best part of $87 which belonged to Oscar Hundley. Hundley furnished crawfish for the Moose banquet, and Eccles did the contracting, while Hundley did the fishing. Oscar says he had a hard time catching that many crays, and he would like to get hold of Eccles and get a slant at some of the spondulix.

[illegible], on the Hawthorne [illegible] about 50 bushels of [illegible] fire, the other day, while threshing. A spark from the engine caused the damage. One wagon wheel was also reduced to ashes. Mr. Soper's oats went 65 and 70 bushels per.

MRS. ELLA REYNOLDS

Mrs. Ella Hopper Reynolds died at Cornelius, August 26, 1913, from an attack of tumorous ulceration of the throat. She was born at Clinton, Ill., Dec. 6, 1838, and was married to J. J. Reynolds, at her birthplace, in 1855. They resided in Illinois and Missouri until 1885, when they moved to Washington County, where she has remained since. She was very patient during her illness, and bore her suffering with much fortitude, being always cheerful. Shortly before dissolution she asked for her children, and all who were within call responded. She is survived by the following sons: L. H., J. N., F. S., Chas. S. and J. C. Reynolds; and two daughters, Mrs. Vina Bacon and Mrs. Alice Maury. The funeral took place yesterday, from the home at Cornelius, and interment was in the Buxton cemetery, above Forest Grove. Rev. B. C. Cook, of Hillsboro, preached the funeral service, and the Woman's Relief Corps assisted at the obsequies.

Mrs. Reynolds was a woman of rare attainments and Christian spirit, and she had many friends in Washington County. She will long be remembered for her sterling character.

Next Monday is Labor Day. All banks will close.

J. S. Miller, of below Scholls, was up to the city yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. James Miltenberger is spending the week at Shipperd's Springs.
