THE BITUCRETE CONTRACTORS FINISH PAVING

Two Blocks of Satisfactory Street Show Splendid Roadway

SAMPLE BETTER THAN EXPECTED

Finishing Touches Completed and Plant Moved Away to New Work

The bitucrete contractors finished their work in North Hillsboro, Friday forenoon, and shipped their plant to another locality. A sample of the paving was taken out for the city engineer, and it was a splendid specimen of roadway. The top coat of asphaltum and tar, mixed with crushed gravel, adhered to the concrete base so that it came out in one solid slab. That this is one of the best pavements for the money ever laid in the city goes without saying.

Two blocks were put down, one on Third and one on Jackson, to the east and south of the Geo. R. Bagley block.

Completion of this work gives Third Street a good paved roadway clear from the new school building to the Southern Pacific track, with Second a pavement from Jackson to the S. P. depot.

As soon as the macadam contractors finish the work down on Fir, leading to the baseball grounds; and the county takes care of the hill between the condenser and the bridge, to the south; and one block on Baseline, between Second and First; and two blocks on East Main, all thoroughfares leading to the city will have decent roadways at the city limits.

Whether or not paving will be accomplished next year is a matter of conjecture. It is quite certain, however, that more macadam will be laid.

SHINNABERGER COMSTOCK

A quiet wedding was celebrated at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shinnaberger, Hillsboro, Sept. 25, when Thomas L. Shinnaberger and Miss Edna Mae Comstock were united in marriage. Rev. B. Clarence Cook, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. The bride is a popular young lady of Portland, and the groom has been one of the assistants at the Southern Pacific depot, where his father is agent. Those present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shinnaberger, Misses Myrtle and Lela Shinnaberger and Messrs. Elmer Comstock, Wm. Dodd and B. Clarence Cook. Mr. and Mrs. Shinnaberger will reside in Hillsboro.

Jos. Rooks was in from Vine-lands, the last of the week.

Scott Allen, of near Reedville, was a city visitor Saturday afternoon.

T. E. Morgan, better known as Edwin Morgan, has sued the Columbia Elevator Co., Connell & Co., and Thos. Bilyeu for $2,000, damages alleged to have been sustained by reason of the fall of an elevator which Morgan was riding, Nov. 20, 1911. Morgan says the elevator was defective, and that the company knew it. He also says that neither Connell & Co., nor Bilyeu knew of the defect, but that they did not exercise the necessary care and diligence to discover the weakness. He avers that he was instructed by Connell & Co. to carry merchandise on the conveyance, and he was in pursuit of his work when the accident took place. The complaint alleges that the plaintiff was precipitated about 20 feet; that he sustained bruises and abrasions, and that a number of his teeth were broken, and that he paid a physician $5 and a dentist about $130 for dental work. Mr. Morgan is married, and he and his wife make their home with his mother, Mrs. Susan Morgan, on the corner of Second and Baseline. He is a son of the late county clerk, J. W. Morgan. Bagley & Hare have the case for the plaintiff.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584. 501f

The annual roll call and business meeting of the Baptist church was held Thursday evening, with about 125 people present. The year's work was reviewed by the pastor, who has preached 156 sermons, made 520 pastoral calls, distributed 3530 pages of tracts, and received 31 new members. This makes a total of about 67 new members received during the 18 months that Rev. Cook has had charge of the church. During the last year there has been about $2000 raised for all purposes. J. W. Rook was chosen Sunday School Supt., with F. A. Everest as assistant. Mrs. Annie Butler, of Forest Grove, was chosen church clerk; W. V. Bergen was chosen to succeed himself as treasurer. The outlook for the work is very bright, and all is harmonious within the church and Sunday School.

For sale: Holstein cattle; heifers with or without calf, some to freshen soon. All bred to registered bulls; imported direct from Wisconsin. Splendid animals in excellent condition. Priced right. Now on exhibition. Write or phone, The Coast Cattle Co., at the Eugene Creamery, Eugene, Ore. 27-28

Jasper N. Riggs, whose daughter is a Mrs. Aydelott, living near Gales Creek, was brought up from the county farm, Saturday, and examined for insanity. Dr. Wood advised that he be committed to the asylum, which was ordered by Judge Reasoner. Riggs is very old, and is troubled with senility. He threatened to burn down the poor farm structure, and has kept the inmates and superintendent in turmoil, all the time, watching him.

If you want a range that beats the world for the money, call on David Corwin, Bank Annex Building, and see his Quality Ranges, all the way from $25 to $55. These are the best ranges ever placed on the market in Hillsboro. Call in and see them.

Messrs. and Mesdames Emil, J. C. and Dave Kuratli, Hillsboro, D. Hansen, Chas. Reimer, Fred Dysle, Bethany, went to Portland, last Sunday, to attend the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Dysle, at their Sellwood home. Several others went from the Bethany-Phillips section. Mrs. Dysle is a sister of the Kuratli brothers.

For Sale—160 acres, 12 miles from North Plains; small cabin; barn, 24x26; 15 acres cleared; 25 acres good timber; some shingle cedar; 3 good springs; good cattle range; $500 down, balance 5 years.—Joseph Miller, Banks, R. 3. 28-8

M. W. Harrison, of Tillamook, where he is interested in the Tillamook County Bank, was here the first of the week, on business. He was born up at the Harrison place, above Mount-aindale, and spent his early youth here.

We are again agents for the famous Hazelwood Ice Cream, and solicit your orders for brick or bulk.—Koeber's Confectionery

E. L. DAVENPORT GETS PAROLE FROM SENTENCE

Pleads Guilty to Forging Check and Gets One to Five Years

ALLOWED TO LEAVE THE STATE

Judge Eakin Grants Mercy to Prisoner, Account Wife and Child

E. L. Davenport, the moving picture man of Tacoma, in jail several months awaiting trial for cashing a spurious check at the store of C. O. Roe & Co., Forest Grove, has returned to Washington state, a paroled man. Davenport pleaded guilty to the charge and threw himself on the mercy of the court. The prosecuting officer said that he would not advise a parole but on account of Davenport's wife and child, would not oppose one being granted.

Judge Eakin thereupon sentenced Davenport to an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years in the penitentiary, but gave him a parole upon condition that he refund the money lost by the victim of the check; that he pay the costs of arrest; the court costs, and live a law-abiding life hereafter.

The court also allowed him to depart from the state. The prisoner left for Tacoma on a late train, Friday evening. He was profuse in his protestations that he would lead a proper life in the future.

Carrie Dodds was given a divorce from Geo. W. Dodds, with alimony of $40 per month; and a decree for one-third of the real property. The case was sub-

Receipts for the week have been—Cattle 1422, calves 19; hogs 1883, sheep 9965; Horses 26. Sentiment in the cattle market has not been such as to warrant optimism recently. While receipts have not totaled so much as a week ago, there has been more than enough beef to supply trade needs. The $8.00 steer has been displaced at least temporarily, and extreme top quotation is $7.50 to $7.75. Butcher quality failed to attain the high standard of six days ago and prices on cows were generally lower. Prime heifers at $7.00, cows, $6.75, bulls at $5.50 and calves at $9.00 are liberal price tops. Demand for any but choice finished cattle is slow and outlet very unsatisfactory.

Mutton and lamb liquidation continued liberal last week and there was so much real fat killing stuff in the run, buyers did not have the nerve to shade bids. Choice mountain wethers sold 4 to 4.25 and ewes at 4. Packers took to the lamb offerings in great style, bidding 5.25 for all the best ones. Pessimists said the market would quickly subside to 5 if too many lambs were liquidated this week, but they were disappointed. However, the trade is not so short handed on lambs and mutton as it was ten days ago and buyers may not manifest so much interest during the remainder of September if liquidation is abnormally large.

Sam Paisley, of Buxton, was in town Friday, enroute to Portland.

C. H. Froer was in from West Union, Friday.

Fred Jossy, of near Helvetia, was in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mapes, of Chehalem Mountain, were over to the city Saturday afternoon.

Now is the time to have that house wired. See the Owl Electric Co. 1-1f

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weisenbeck, of Reedville, were in the county seat Friday.

E. T. Turner, of Laurel, was in the city Saturday, greeting friends and transacting business.

J. L. Bartlett, of the Witch Hazel hop farm, was in town Saturday. He is busy baling and weighing up his hop crop.

J. C. Smith, of Forest Grove, was in town Saturday evening, after his return from Lebanon, where he went to attend the funeral of his brother, the late J. J. Smith.

Irve Higginbotham, the Beaver pitcher, well known in Hillsboro, where he resided for a year or so, has filed a petition in the federal bankruptcy court. He gives his liabilities at $2233.38 and his assets at zero.

Jas. Cruikshank, of near Laurel, was a city caller Monday. Weekly Oregonian to Jan. 1, 1915, 75 cents.

Charles Schultz, of north of Scholls, was in town Saturday, and called on the religious weekly.

Mrs. H. W. Spooner, of Portland, has been the guest of her brothers, E. L. and C. W. James, of near Varley, the past week.

Mrs. E. A. Snodgrass, whose husband recently bought the C. Delsman place, near Farmington, was in town Saturday.

Wm. J. Smith, of near the Bellingier Bridge, beyond Forest Grove, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Theodore and Thomas Nissen, of near Scholls, were in the city Monday, on business with County Clerk Luce.

C. T. Young, who has been spending the Summer over at Raymond, Wash., came over the last of the week to visit his family, returning Sunday.

For Sale—Fresh milk cows. Herd of good cows from which to select.—C. H. Epler, Iowa Hill, or Cornelius, Route 2—six miles south of Cornelius. 26-8

Frank Weisenbeck and wife, of near Oregon City, were in town Friday, on legal business, their first trip back to Washington County since leaving four months ago.

A bargain—Seven room house, large lot, close to new school house. Can be had for $925. Owner needs the money. Apply to Kerr Brothers, next door post office, Third Street. 27-29

Harlan Kelly, of beyond North Plains, was in town Saturday. He has bagged his annual buck this season, but says that they still keep well under cover, owing to the great growth of the half mile more on the Taylor Ferry route. The crusher at Cedar Mill starts this week and one mile will be added to the road leading towards Hillsboro—thus leaving but 5 1/2 miles of highway between here and Portland to be macadamized, going in via the Cornell route.

The Burkhalter steam drill will start this week, to turn out rock for rocking the Jackson hill, south, where a 5 per cent. grade has been made this Fall.

The Luck quarry, above Mount-aindale, also started this week, and one mile of rock will be laid up on Upper Dairy.

The world is moving, and Washington County is right in the procession. The mile of new macadam, from the Thurston place, near Beaverton, on the Walker road, also helps some. The Newton mile of macadam, joining with the Hillsboro rock street is another stretch that is worth while of mention.

F. M. Heidel was displaying some apples raised by L. L. Crawford, of Manning, the other day, showing what that section can do. The fruit was about as perfect as could be, and that without spraying, as the pests have not as yet raided that particular section.

E. W. Dant, of Reedville, was up Saturday. He states that some one stole a canvas, 28x30, from one of his haystacks, a short time ago, and he says he will give a reward of $25 cash for the information that will lead to the recovery of the property and arrest and conviction of the party who stole the cover.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hoffman, of Bacona, were in town Sunday and Monday. Mr. Hoffman says that the hill road to Bacona has been fine all Summer, and that even now the hill is not at all bad. They live up in the heart of the deer country, but the "kills" up there have not been numerous this season, owing to dense undergrowth.

J. W. Cave is peeved at the Oregon Electric freight service. He dreamed that he made a bunch of money and was going back to the world's series. His trip across the continent was one round of pleasure, and he animadverted upon the poor fans in Hillsboro, as he entered the polo grounds with a grandstand ticket. The opposing pitchers were announced, and just as Matthewson wound up to shoot one over—the Oregon Electric freight pulled down Washington Street and awakened "Cavey."

Since that time he is sore at all freight trains, and he is still wondering whether the Phillie batter would have whanged that ball out of the lot if that freight hadn't whistled. 27-30

MACADAM ROAD WORK NOW BEING HURRIED

Activity All Over County Will Shape up Bad Places This Fall

ROCK ROADS HERE TO GASTON

Also to Gales Creek Head, and to Upper Scoggin Valley—Tom Sain's

The first of the story is the best—there are rock roads now completed between Hillsboro and Gaston; between Hillsboro and the head of Gales Creek; between Hillsboro and Scoggin Valley, clear to Tom Sain's place; and rock road to within a quarter of a mile of Cherry Grove—and like the old sewing machine—"that's going some." The Baseline improvement between here and Cornelius, made under the direction of Supervisor Grant Mann, was completed this week—three cheers and a Tiger lily—and this means some nice stretches of road.

Rock is now being shipped in on the United to North Plains for 300 feet of rock at the J. C. Beach place, south of North Plains; 550 feet on the Giencoe fill, near North Plains.

Material is also being shipped to Davis', on the United, for 800 feet of rock near the Schomburg place, Mountaindale.

The Rex-Tigard road will be top-dressed for four miles, the Scoggin Valley crusher now being installed at Tigard. Rock will also be crushed and laid for a half mile between Tigard and the Taylor Ferry bridge.
