

To Please You

Is our aim. In OUR GOODS In OUR PRICES, In OUR STORE SERVICE we must satisfy you and not wholly curselves.

Unless your satisfaction is complete, we have achieved nothing at all. Good will is an asset we guard most zealously. It is the corner stone of this successful business.

It is your money that pays for your groceries and you owe it to yourself to get your money's worth. You can't lose if you buy groceries at Grand Marca.

Administrator's Notice

In the County Court of the State of Ore-gon, For the County of Washington.

Notice is Hereby tilves that the under

Dated October 2nd, 1945, M.F. Johnson,

Haynes, dec'd E il Tongue, attorney for administrator

Administrator of the estate of James M.

Notice of Sale of Hill shore Stree

Improvement Bonds

Notice is hereby given that the City of

A. Hestel, City Recorder,

SI WHONS.

IN THE CHECUIT COURT OF THE

STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHING TON COUNTY.

State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. Edward C Luce, County Clerk of Wash-ington County, Oregon, E. B. Sap-plusion, County Treasurer of Wash-pington, County Treasurer of Washington County, Oregon D. R. Reasoner, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon and all persons who claim to be heirs at law or next of him of Huns Neison, deceased, and all persons calipping an interest of all persons claiming an interest of

This matter coming on to be heard

This matter coming on to be heard upon the application of the State of Oregon, by E. B. Tongue, Fistivet Attorney for the Fifth Judicial District of Oregon, and by John M. Wall, special attorney for the State of Oregon, specially appointed by the Governor for the purpose of filing information and complaint to escheat to the State of Oregon the Year and personal prop-

of thegon the real and personal prop of thegon the real and personal proporty owind and formerly in the possibility of the possibility of the control and in the possibility of the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, in custodia bath, but a large aring to the todia legis, and it appearing to the Court that the said Hans Nelson died touri that the said Hans Nelson died intestate in Washington County, Oregon, on the 11th day of September, 1811, leaving no beits at law or next of kin, that the said Hans Nelson at the time of his death was a resident of said Washington County, Oregon, and at the time of his death left an estate consisting of real and personal property, and described as follows, to Tract known as 101, being the S. E.

acres, more or less. Second tract Lot known as the W half of No. 8, block 1, in the Town of Spitzenberg, according to the duly recorded plat thereof, all of

H. T. Bagley, Mayor, C. A. Heidel, Recorder,

Dated Oct. 8, 1913

Notice of Final Settlement

To County Court of the Name of three matter of the estate of E % Callen

a siministrator in the fact and spirit has been appointed administrator of the sate of James M Haynes, decreased, by order of the county court of the state of Oregon for Washington county (region, is the place of the lab day of bepten to the and place administrator of the county county of the state of Oregon for Washington to the many place of the lab day of bepten to the county of the county e, and that want the 10th day of No said day, and the Oregon, is her, little and has duly qualified a such almost and piece and piece and possible duly duly desire.

Now Therefore, all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified and required to present the same together with the proper vonthers there into to the undersubted at his residence together sort the undersubted at his residence together sort the undersubted at his residence together sort the undersubted at his residence together with the proper vonthers there into a subtraction of the undersubted at his residence. ns, Oregon, as E. J. Michigan, Michaelster of aferroach estate. being & Hare, attorneys for addition-

SUMMONS

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE WASHINGTON COUNTY. will Handy, Placethill, L'Quinn and Anna Quinn, Bum Darety, and it is Sain, Trustee in Black tapley of the Hank supe His sale of W. J. Quinn. Defauctants.

16 Anna Quinn, one of the above named Hillstone, thegen, will receive hids for the purcha is of three many of street in the Name of the State of Gregory was a state of the Same of the State These bonds are besued under the prothe publication of the summants the int publication thereof being Thursday, below 90, 1915, and if you fail so the same, for want thereof the partitiff will als judgment against year as prayed for a ha complaint, bound These bonds are besued under the protistoms of the tharter of Hillsdayre, Ore got, in demonstrations of first each series which is for a smaller amount, and series of the Chart of the bord thereof the series of the Chart of the small of the small of the small of the chart of the series of the chart of the series of the chart of the series of the ch

Agrat 18, 1911, and the further sum of 18,198 altoracy's fees and the contained for each separate issue. The city reflectments of this wait.

That the morigage described in said topically the formulation of the three issues of a gregate amount of the city reflect or a gregate amount of the city reflect or a gregate amount of the city reflect or a great or a great amount of the city reflect or a great or a great amount of the city reflect or a great or a mentioned and described as folwa, to wit. All of lot if of and in bed Bof and in North Plains, as shown so the duly recorded map and plat-bered, in Washington County, tre-pos, he sold by the Sheriff of Wash-legion County, Oregon, in the man-her prescribed by law for the sale of and upon execution, and that from the precede of said sale there he paid: First-The costs and expenses of said

Second—The costs and expenses of this

Third-The sum of $1: 0.00 with intertherein at the rate of six per cent sanguaines August 18, 1911, to the plaine with-That the overplus, if any there routh—That the overplus, if any face, a, be paid to the defendant, R. L. Sabin, Pruise in Bankrupt of the Bankrupt issue of W. J. Quinn.

That the mortisate of the plaintiff here-labeling and decreed to be a item upon the real property described in said complaint prior to the said complaint prior in time and superior in right to any right title, interest, claim or lies in and to said premiars of any and all of the defendants beroin, and for such other and for such the Court to be equitable in the Premises.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Hilbstoro Ar-ras pursuant to an order of the Honora-ble B. B. Reasoner County Judge of the Base of Oregon, for Washington County, Base and subsred on the 7th day of Oc-lober, 1913, and said order requires that you appear and answer said complaint on or before the 24th day of November, 1913.

Pirst publicet o Attorney for Plaintiff.

To settle estate of the late Dr. W. P. Via, one acre and resi Jence, Pacific Avenue and B. St., Forest Grove, is offered for sale. Frontage, 200 ft., paved; one of the nicest homes in city, and is offered at sacrifice. Address Dr. G. F. Via, Buxton, Or. 28-32 snamly full compensation for all dam-ages to land or improvements is guar-anteed, and a strip it feet wide is reserved off one side for realway. Also personal property consisting of money in the sum of $874.10

And it further appearing to the cut) that the catate of said Hans Nelson, deceased, is solved in fee ample of the said real property and of the shole thereof, that on the 15th day of November, 1911, one Valdemar Lidell was appointed ad-ministrator de bonis non of said ex-tals and thereafter said administrafor proceeded to take possession of the property of said estate, and effor fully administering thereon and paying off. all legal claims and demands something over $4,000.

Mr. Miller has been running a salound there was shown to be on hand at said time the real salound the refused a license last. close east estate, discharging said administrator and his bondmen from further limiting therein.

IN THEREFORK ORDERED that the defendants above named and all persons who claim to be helra at all persons who claim to be law or nest of him of east Hans Net and depended, and all persons claim ing an interest in said estate, appear and show cause. If any they have, within six weeks from the date of the first pushbeation of this order, to wat one or before wix weeks from the fild day of in toker, 1912, why the title

Argus, a newspaper published curgon, and of general circula-

Dated at Hillshore, Oregon, this 20th day of October A D. 1913 Ivate of first publication October 23, 1913 date of last publication, December 4, 1812 J W CAMPBELL, Jude E B TONGUE JOHN M. WALL.

SHERIFF'S SALE. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that by to make sale of the real property hereinafter described, and heretofore attached in this action, I have levied upon, and pursuant to said attachment execution, I will, on Tuesday, the 15th day of November, 1913, at the south door of the Courthouse in Hillshore, Oregon, at the hour of ten crick A M of said day, sell at public the Bad r he auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand all of the following described real property, lying, being and silvate in Washington County, tregon, described as follows to wit: Lot numbered 6, in section 6, T. 2 L. R. J. W. Will, Mer., containing

Degianing at a point in the center the county road 54 rods E of the W corner of section 21, T 2 N. 1 W Will Mer, running thence S. rods, thence E St. rods, thence 12 rods, thence W St. rods to the N. 19 rods, thence W. 835 rods to the place of beginning, containing 13-26 acres, more or less.

Beginning at a point in the center of the county road 455 rods E of the N. W. corner of section 31, T. 2. N., R. 3. W. Will Mer., and running thence S. 19 rods, thence E. 845 rods, thence N. 19 rods, thence W. 845 rods to the place of beginning, containing to the place of beginning, containing 13-70 acres of land, more or less. 13-20 acres of land, more or less.
Also beginning at a point 21 rods, 6 feet S of the N W corner of section 31, T 2 N, E 3 W Will Mer., thence S 4 rods and 16 feet; thence E 18 rods and 11 feet; thence N, 32 deg 18 min. W 18 rods, thence S, 19 rods, thence W 9 rods to the place of beginning containing 714-1000 of an acre, more or less. To satisfy the hereinbefore named sums, and for the costs and expenses of sale and of said writ. Said sale will be made subject to redemption as per statute of Oregon.

Dated this 22d day of October, 1913 J. E. REEVES, Sheriff of Washington County, E B. TONGUE, Attorney for Plaintiff.

DR. SIZER

No Kuife, No Drugging. He treats all kinds of diseases in scientific and successful manner. Comes with good references and also refers you to B P Cornelius, T M Kerr and W O Donelson, by permission. 1 Blk N of Hillsboro P O

For Sale-Team horses, 8 years old; sound and true; work single or double; gentle and easily handled. Weigh 2900.—Louie quarter of the S W quarter of the N E quarter of section 20, T. 4 N., E. quarter of section 20, T. 4 N., E. w. Will Mer. containing 10 Stoller, Sixth and Washington, Hillsboro, Argus and Oregonian, $2.25.

BANKS HOTEL BURNED LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Blaze Caught From a Defective

Insurance is Carried of Between Four

The hotel of J. M. Miller, of tions for fifty guests burned last Friday night, about ten or eleven ry little way he had: o'clock, the blaze catching from a defective flue, Mr. and Mrs. tired, and nothing was saved, as yours." there was no time to even get their clothing excepting that

Mr. Miller did everything he spread rapidly, but it was use-

He was severely burned trying to save the building. The structa total loss within a short time girls. She said little and worked hard. after the flames burst over the main building.

The loss is estimated at about eight thousand dollars, while the tel, and he refused a license last his petition did not carry a maif $574.19 that said court on the jority of the legal voters. He proved said final actions and made an arder requiring said administrator of his application, with over 40 property on hand and fully settle and petitioners, but just what he petitioners, but just what he will now do is conjecture.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 20. Mr. George R. Bagley, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Dear Mr. Bagley: I am in receipt of your letter of the 18th informing me of hearing an explanation of my plan for Federal Aid to good roads, and I wish to thank you end thoughtfully as the girls wen to know in connection with announcements which you say will be made through the papers that in this case, as in the case of the Parcel Post, I have spent many comprehensive, and specific plan steps! Who is she?" which I believe, if adopted, will virtue of an attachment execution which I believe, if adopted, will issued out of and under the seal of bring satisfactory results for a the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County, dated August 19th, 1912, in favor of Henry Vogt, plaintiff, and against Mike Schransel, H. A. Davies and W. E. Davies, defendants, for the sum of Davies, defendants, for the sum of the Schransel, in United States gold cott. With interest thereon in like gold with interest thereon in like gold. with interest thereon in like gold the expiration of my term in orleft partly done, but I am doing so without compensation and pay my own expenses. I have been

Bad rural roads mean isolation to rural residents, and more particularly to the women of the farming districts. They are even more interested in good roads than are the men. I would like it if the newspapers could extend to them an invitation to be

Notice of District Road Meeting

tax payers of road district number 46, of Washington County, Oregon, give notice that there will be a meeting of the legal voters of said road district number 46, held at the District School House of School District number 76, on the fifteenth day of November, 1913, between the hours of 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. The above stated meeting is called for the purpose of voting an additional five mill tax for general road improvement in road district num-

October, 1913,
J. R. Bailey, M. Genzer, R. R. Couples, Rlon C. Willson, Richard Ulrici, L. P. McCroskey, Thos H. Stewart, I Straub, J. M.

in the hop business in his section, was up from Farmington, Monday morning.

The Grand Marca is the most wholesome "two for a quarter" smoke on market-made in Ore-

M. Henderson, of Cornelius, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Henderson had a 44 days thresh-

LITTLE BRIGHTEYES

She Came Into Her Rightful 1 Place at Last.

By LOUISE NURRIFIELD.

-----That was what Davis had nicknamed her at the first rehearsni of "Flimflam." She was the scrawnlest, homeliest girl in the chorus when the girls lined up for first inspection and hap-Banks, containing accommoda- pened to land in the middle at the lineup. Davis spotted her and called out before everybody in the pleasant, mer-"That will do for yours, Little Bright-eyes. Never mind about taking the center. We'll save the spot light when you're around. The back row for Everybody turned to take a good look at Little Brighteyes before the back row swallowed her forever. She which they wore. Had the little was about thirty, a slim little woman with big gray eyes and dark hair. It was a point of beauty in its own way. that hair, soft and brown and straight County of Columbia State of Oregon, and he might have perished in as Minnehaha's ever was, but she had said conveyance being subject to air mineral rights reserved, but if nec. the flames. home applied curling fron to make her could to stop the flames, which look professional, and it was a sight But she took her medicine bravely, and evec Davis recognized the grit in her. It was her best asset in the after days, that grit. It carried her through all the Davis major and minor tanure and all its furnishings were trums and the tensing from the other but the nickname that Davis had given > out the costumes to the girls she tossed a bunch across the room and called out cheerfully: "Here you go. Brighteyes!" And Little Brighteyes just laughed good naturedly, although she had drawn the least artistic clothes in the lot. It didn't matter when one was her that first day stuck fast. Even Jennie Reynolds, the wardrobe woman, enught it, and when she was handing and kept out of the spot light. "That girl's an old timer," Davis remarked to Vida Dorne as the two stood in the first entrance the opening night and watched the girls take a big encore on the "Rattlebang" song. There were sixteen picked out from the little ones in the crowd, and Brighteyes was one of them. It was a joily, swinging. drummer boy chorus and took the minete it hit the house. The girls were all in scarlet and black, with snare drums, and Little Brighteyes was beating hers for sure, no make believe. The rouge helped her lots, and so did the red and Her head was held the manager, watched the skinny little fig "She's all right," he said. "Put on to lead tomorrow night in chorus. Davis, and see how she goes. She's on to the ropes all right." Vida leaned forward to get a better

"I've seen that girl somewhere, Nick," she said. "Look at her now months working out a concrete, with that drum. And the way she shortly. "That's all she is now anyway, but she's an old timer all right." Vida laughed, too, as Marshall walked around with her to the big white automobile in which she made her first entrance. The first act showed a mountain scene in a country anywhere between Italy and China. The beautiful American heiress was doing the touring stunt all over Europe, and the prince of the country was in love with her. He had followed the lead of the white automobile all over the map and finally had induced the girl to pay a visit to his own land. She feared possible banditti. He assured her the red and black drummer boys and the army behind them could protect her. And all the time, of course, he merely wanted to get her over the border, ab duct her, shut her up in the castled steep fortress (act 2) and starve her into marrying him and filling his stingy little treasury with codles of American coin. It was a rehash, but it went with a bang. Even before Vida's entrance the thing was a sure success, and Marshall was solidly joyous. "Be careful and don't lose your head when you take that run," he said as he stood beside the auto while Vida was helped in. It was a good trick, that first entrance of the American girl. They had a mechanical arrangement for the auto to scorch down the mountain pass, and it looked as though it was going straight over the footlights. There were four turns to the run, and then it brought up short right in the center of the stage in a self locking frog and made a mighty effective picture.

"Little Brighteyes," laughed Davis

"There isn't a bit of danger," answered Vida, drawing on her white gauntlets. "I'm just as cool as can be. Not a bit rattled. Let her go."

There was the second's pause in the orchestra, then the crash of entrance music, and they released the machine. It took the incline like a boy's coaster smooth and swift and easy. Davis was white, but Marshall stroked his vandyke and frowned ever so slightly as he watched the car and its occupant. It was a dangerous trick, but it brought down the house.

Marshall stared at Vida. Under the rouge her face was dead white, and he knew she was scared. When she came off the stage she sent for him. "Nick, I won't go through that again.

not if the whole show coes to pieces. I simply can't. It is terrible. Why, it would be like dying every night. I won't ride in that thing again."

Davis suggested a dummy, but Marshall wouldn't stand for any fake. The girl in the machine must be alive, and suddenly Davis suggested Little Bright-

"She's got the same air and build as Miss Lorne, and you can hide the face with a veil. Change the scene so as to carry off the auto long enough for the two to change places after the run, and there you are. And she's the only girl I know who has the grit to do it." She had the grit. It meant a dou-run night after night, with never a tremor of fear. No one knew the difference. The two women were the same size and the same carriage, and Vida was delighted.

"It's lots of fun," she told Marshall. "It's like hiring some one to die for you, don't you know."

The laughing words flashed across Marshall one night when "Filmflam" was on its third month. He happened to be standing at the foot of the stairs leading up to the platform where the machine stood. As she came by to take her place in it Little Brighteyes had to pass him, and for the first time their eyes met. Marshall never moved when she had gone up the stairs. He had forgotten "Flimflam" and New York. Somewhere, some time, so long ago that he didn't like to remember it or have other people either, one Nick Marshall had run a little one ring circus through the country towns-about thirteen years back-and there had rode a horse in the parade and drove a charlot in the funny, shabby little grand entry, and after a couple of years of the one ring circus Nick Marshall had decided his talent lay in New York and had left the circus and the little country towns and other handicaps behind him. The burst of applause from the front of the house recalled him. The machine was released, and the American "stunt" And suddenly there was a dull, stran " crash, and the music stopped. Marshall spoke over his shoulder as he made for the stage. and they rang down the curtain and that the paper's brilliant advocacy of started up the music again, for the public must not see unpleasant things when it takes its gayety, and there was a most unpleasant thing lying under the automobile that had turned turtle

"She isn't dead," said Davis as he and Vida bent over the slim figure in securing the greatest circulation and the white suede cloak. "Get her to the consequently the greatest income from hospital and she will pull through. It's advertisements, only the shoulder smashed."

Marshall pushed the two to one side and lifted the figure in his arms. As stand. It was supported by many and he did so Little Brighteyes opened her eyes and smiled up at him. "Hello, boy," she said faintly. Marshall bent his head and kissed her before the whole crowd. "Never mind the hospital, Davis," he said quietly. "I'll take Mrs. Marshall home myself." And the rest watched him as he strode across the stage with his burden out to where a carriage waited at the side door to the theater. Then Vida looked up at Davis and laughed as the stage was cleared for the curtain raising "I've known it for weeks," she said. "I tried and tried to think where I had seen her before, and then all at once it came to me. Nick married her back in the circus days and then left her out west in some dead and alive hole be came on to New York to try out in Frisco eight or nine years ago.

She made a big success in 'Fatinitza.'

I remembered her all at once watching her play that drum. But it was her own affair, and I didn't tell. Nick

TWORIVAL SYSTEMS

By EDNA WARFIELD

Mr. Penfield was the proprietor and sditor of a newspaper called the Unon. He had his own notions as to how a newspaper should be conducted. His plan was to please as many persons as possible. Miss Williams was a "new woman" who was supporting perself by teaching. Mr. Penfield met her and was attracted to ber largely account of her force of character and intellectual abilities. Miss Wil-Hams was attracted to Mr. Penfield largely on account of admiration for a man in power, for he was a man of been a girl, a pretty, piquant girl, who authority, having under him subeditors, clerks, printers, etc.

There are as many kinds of newsp pers as there are kinds of men. Mr. Penfield's policy was with a view to making his paper pay or what he cossidered the best method of making it pay. Miss Williams' idea of a newspaper was an intellectual engine to mold opinion. That is what she supposed Mr. Penfield's paper to be, because she supposed that to be what heiress in og. was doing her nightly newspapers are for. They became ongaged

One of the triumphs of the Union was the election of the governor of the state, for it was generally conceded the governor's side and stinging coademnation of his opponent and his principles had secured the election. But when the campaign was over the Union returned to its independence, which meant that it was at liberty to please the greatest number, thereby

A question of moment came up, in which the governor took a decided opposed by an equal number. Miss Williams supposed that her lover would stand by the man if he thought him right and oppose him if he thought him wrong. One day an editorial appeared in the Union, written in the style of the editor in chief. It read as follows:

It is perhaps too early to discover whether the governor has acted wisely in whether the governor has acted wisely in the matter or whether he has been indis-creet. No one will doubt that he has been freet. No one will doubt that he has been influenced by the highest motives, though there are those who will deny this, considering that his object is to fill his pockets. Even these will admit that his previous record has been free from making money by virtue of the official positions he has held. There is but one charge against him that has never been satisfactorily answered, and this is balanced by many acts that have redounded to the many acts that have redounded to the welfare of the state. These who support the governor's policy have the entiafaction of knowing that in the many important political questions with which he has been possible of the control of the identified he has usually been right Only Williams read this leader

e into her cheek and an t flashed in her eye. Was played fair at the climax, didn't he?" Davis nodded. But as he watched the laughing, pretty face beside him, taken that first ride down the run, he knew that one other besides Nick had played fair, too-fair to Little Bright-

Verona's Amphitheater.

More than 15,000 people were turned away from the performances of "Alda" recently given in the Roman amphitheater at Verona in honor of the Verdi centenary. This amphithe-ater holds 30,000. There are more than 800 performers in the orchestra. The scenery for the amphitheater cost nearly $100,000. The artists' dressing rooms are subterranean chambers which the gladiators used in ancient

********** PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Many women are troubled with dry hair and would like to know how to relieve this condition First try shampooing once every two weeks with an egg shampoo. Then twice a week rub into the scalp, being careful not to touch the hair more than is absolutely necessary, a bit of white vaseline which has been gently heated until liquid. Salt is good for lusterless hair. Rub it well into the roots of the hair at night, then tie the hair up in a large handkerchief or wear a nightcap. Brush out the salt in the morning. Several applications of this treatment will bring about a great improvement in the appearance of the hair.

**********

Now it is proposed to make the lifeboats on the Atlantic liners of much greater size, each capable of carrying 250 persons, being partially decked over and driven by gasoline. Sacrifice of romance for safety in this manner will be generally approved.

Americans are about to build a hotel in Tokyo which will be a reproduction of the best New York has to offer. This is rather a cruel way of getting even with the Japs for all the annoyance they have been causing about California, Magdalena bay, etc.

The purchase of a $2,000,000 art collection at Frankfort-on-the-Main by "an unknown American" constitutes another raid of the American dollar on the art treasures of Europe. Will Europe yet class millionaire American collectors as undesirable immigrants?

Meat and eggs that have been in a Philadelphia cold storage house since 1908 have been condemned, and thus another jolt is given to some shrewd dealers, who thought that they would help to boost the high cost of living by holding indefinitely for the top of the market.

head of "On Both Sides of the Fence," quoting from his own editorial and comparing it with the one on the came subject in the Sentinel. Never had Mr. Penfield seen himself so ridiculed in the columns of any of his competitors. So stinging were many of the phrases used that everybody would say: "That's the painfu est sting the Bee ever gave. Ha, hal" Inquiries were made at the Bee office as to who wrote the article, but no information on the subject was given out. Mr. Penfield was not serie troubled about the article. He had his policy and considered it the only policy on which a newspaper should be but he began to feel uneasy about his flancee. He expected to meet her casnally, but did not

One morning the Bee appeared in a new dress, and the first article on the editorial page was an announcem that Miss Elizabeth Williams had bought the paper and would thence forward be the editor in chief. When Mr. Penfield saw this an nouncement a light was turned on in his brain that revealed several things. He knew that by his attempt to please everybody he had disgusted his flances He knew that Miss Williams had written the article ridiculing him in the Bee. And he was destined to learn that there were more ways than one of running a newspaper.

When Mr. Penfield met Miss Williams again neither of them referred to their past relation; they met as proprietors and managers of two differ newspapers. The editress adopted a policy of not troubling her readers with her own opinions, but when she did it was after mature consideration and investigation, and it usually turned out in the end that she was right. She gradually drew away from her rival and former flance, though both were successful under their own peculiar methods.

Mr. Carnegie's world's peace palace erected at The Hague at a cost of $1,-500,000 is completed and dedicated. All that is lacking now is world's peace.

The Wells-Fargo Express company proposes to get even with parcel post by cutting rates, and the people will view the fell design with the street equanimity.

Cheer up, all you hard working, plain people! Another blow at the high cost of living is about to be struck. The government has started in to bust the jewelry trust

NOTICE

Flue and Everything Goes LOSS IS NEAR EIGHT THOUSAND and Five Thousand

Miller and little child had not refellow gone to bed without trouble, he would have been upstairs, at said time the real estate above tel, and he refused a license last described of an estimated value of September on the ground that the and estate moneys in the sum his petition did not carry a ma-only the fourth girl in the last row back. She did as Davis had told her

LADIES INVITED

under the case of the Commercial Club for the purpose of for your courtesy in the matter. It may be of interest for you willing to do this because of the magnitude of the subject matter and its importance not only to Oregon but to the entire United present.

Yours very truly, Jonathan Bourne Jr.

We, the undersigned and resident

Signed this the 17th day of Brown, D I, Smith. John Boge, one of the pioneers gon, by E. Schiller. When you indulge in a good smoke buy a ing run this year, the largest in his history as a thresher, and he turned out oats running all the way from 50 to 98 bushels per