EX-SENATOR BOURNE TALKS ON GOOD ROADS

Makes a Hit With the Hillsboro Commercial Club

SPEAKER HAS FINE GRASP OF IDEA

Wants Oregon to Have Sixteen Million for Good Roads

Ex-Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr. to whom is due the credit for the enactment of the Parcel Post law, delivered an address before the Hillsboro Commercial Club, Monday evening, explaining his very comprehensive and elaborate plan for Federal aid to good roads, President George R. Bagley, of the Club, presided.

As outlined, the Bourne plan proposes that the several states shall be permitted to raise highway funds at the lowest possible rate of interest by utilizing the superior credit of the government. His plan is based upon the fact that the Government can borrow money at 3 per cent. while states must pay 4 per cent. or more, and counties must pay per cent.

The suggested bill authorizes billion dollar highway fund, apportioned among the several states in proportion to their area, population, assessed valuation and road mileage, each factor being given equal weight and no state being permitted to draw more than one-fifth of its share in any one year. When a state desired to use its share of the fund, it would issue its 4 per cent. 50-year bonds and deposit them in the Federal Treasury. Whereupon the Secretary of the Treasury would issue and sell at par a corresponding amount of S. 3-per cent. 50-year bonds and turn the proceeds over to the highway commission of the state for use in constructing roads under state laws and under state control. When the state paid its annual 4 percent interest, threefourths of the amount would be applied to payment of the interest on the Federal bonds and one-fourth would be deposited in a sinking fund, which, with acwould amount to the face of the bonds in a little less than 50 years. At the expiration of that time, if all interest payments have been made when due, the state bonds would be cancelled and returned to the state without any payment of the principal except as it is paid in the sinking fund taken out of the 4 per cent.

Hillsboro, Washington county, as the place for hearing objections to said account and the final settlement of said eathle.

If Oregon should borrow $16,000,000, of highway funds in the open market she would have to pay at least 4 per cent. interest, which, in 50 years, would amount to $33, 200,000 and Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an execution decree and order of sale principal of $16,000,000, making a total of $49,800,000.
