Hillsboro will now have great need of a strong pull, "all together." There is no necessity of "laying down." Hillsboro must go forward. It is now up to the Commercial Club to go after them, and not only go after them, but to get them. The city taxation will be so high next year that the homeseeker will fight shy of purchase, and business men must make their profit, so as to meet these things. All should get into the harness. It is our town, and we should give it our best consideration.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks to the many friends who so kindly tendered aid and sympathy, also floral offerings, during our sad bereavement, the death of our husband and father, the late Edgar D. Summers. Especial thanks to Masons and Order Eastern Star.

Mrs. Mary Summers,
Robert Summers,
Guy Alexander and wife,
Beaverton, Ore.

CARD OF THANKS

We tender our sincere thanks to all kind friends and neighbors who assisted us, and to those who extended the hand of sympathy and love, and contributed so many beautiful flowers to enlighten the load of sorrow in our late bereavement, the death of our dear boy.

J. W. Goodin and family.

Notice of Final Settlement

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned executor of the last will and testament of James H. Sewell, deceased, has filed in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, his final account in the matter of said estate, and said court has designated Monday, the 8th day of December, 1913, at the county court room in Hillsboro, Oregon, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. of said day, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account and for the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this 6th day of November, 1913.
C. B. Oberbauer,
Executor of the last Will and Testament of James H. Sewell, Deceased,
Bazley & Hare, Attorneys for Executor.

J. Q. Johnson, of below Witch Hazel, was in town yesterday.

Albert Ford, of Umatilla, was in town this week, attending the funeral of his grandmother, Mrs. D. T. Phillips. His sister, Miss Ona, accompanied him home this morning.

Frances L. Gore has sued Paul and Helen Stassens, of the southeastern part of the county, for possession of 15 acres of land, and $500 damages for alleged wrongful withholding same.

Peoples Theatre—Friday and Saturday, "Shon, The Piper," Monday and Tuesday, "The Diamond Makers." Come and see them—something very fine. Both these are remarkable 2-reel features.

A whist party enjoyed the privilege of the Commercial Club rooms, last evening, and at the close Mrs. Geo. K. Bagley and Mrs. A. C. Shute were hostesses at a light luncheon. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Geo. R. Bagley, A. C. Shute, W. Mahon, J. W. Connell, L. A. Long, W. G. Hare; Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Tamiesie, Miss Lake and Mrs. E. C. McKinney.
