The foreign policy of Bre'r Wilson is giving the $25 per week cartoonists much to do these days. But cheap skates always are found something to do by their superiors.

One of the things that keeps the world together, and prevents annihilation, is the opinion of every man in a cabaret restaurant that the nicest looking girl is addressing herself to him when she sings her sweetest and smiles.

And so Jonathan Bourne is to run for Senator, and shut out all other possible candidates, and he is, so it is now whispered in select circles, to have the support of the Oregonian and the cuckoo press, in order that one T. Roosevelt may be sent to the everglades of Oregon politics. Well, well, wouldn't that jar you—you have fought Jonathan neck and ear; hip and thigh; eye and ankle, for lo! these many years?

The H. M. Terry, who has sued Clackamas County, was arrested yesterday in Portland, charged with burning up an auto in order to get insurance. The machine was burned on the Linton road, Oct. 28.

Oregon Agricultural College

FARMERS' WEEK

December 8 to 13, 1913
This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon. Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home-maker.

WINTER SHORT COURSE

January 5 to 30, 1914
The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-Operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all rail roads. For further information address H M TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon. Farmers' Business Courses by Correspondence without tuition.

EMRICK HALL.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated Wednesday, Nov. 12, 1913, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of the bride's father, M. F. Hall, Groveland, when his daughter, Lou, was united in marriage to Henry S. Emrick, Rev. O. Hoffner officiating. Walter Tews, of Hillsboro, acted as groomsmen, and Martha Freudenthal as the bridesmaid. After the ceremony the wedding party was seated to light refreshments. The happy couple will reside on the Emrick Farm, near West Union, and will be at home to their friends after Dec. 1. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames C W Emrick, W A Robertson, Ed Hall; Misses Martha Freudenthal, Estella and Lois Robertson; Messrs Daniel Emrick, Perry Hall, Raymond Robertson, Walter Tews.

The Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, of Portland, caring for hundreds of Oregon children, sends out its appeal for Thanksgiving contributions. They call for canned goods, groceries of all kinds, vegetables and fruits. The railroads will headhale all contributions, when properly packed and plainly marked, "Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, Portland, Ore." The Hillsboro schools generally make a big shipment, and will probably again take up the matter this year.

The splendid Reeves pheasant raised by Dr. Wood has been sent out of town to the Zina Wood ranch, where he will have the swing of the fields. He became a regular "rounder" in town, and one of his points of observation was the top of the court house. The Dr. became alarmed for his safety, as many were eager to get a crack at him with a "22." He will now be safe until Spring, at least, unless he takes a notion that he is better satisfied in town.

Hillsboro has grown the largest chrysanthemum ever placed on exhibition in the Pacific Northwest. At the flower show in the Rose City, the last of the week, Clark's greenhouse, east of the city park, won 13 prizes out of 14 entries. Their manager, Frank Chervenka, was photographed with a giant "mum," and the huge flower, stem and all, went nearly to his head. As the manager stands six foot-two, you may imagine that it was some representative of what Hillsboro can do when it gets busy.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Superintendent R. W. Barnes closed the annual teachers' institute, yesterday, at noon. The registration was 183, and there were several who failed to sign cards. The State Normal sent its best lecturers and demonstrators, and the evening programs were instructive and well attended. Monday night the teachers were entertained at the Commercial Club. John M. Wall welcomed the visitors, and Hon. W. N. Barrett delivered an interesting address on school work, comparing the present methods with those of thirty years ago, when he presided as a teacher in Washington County schools.

Tuesday night's lecture was held at the M. E. church, and Dr. Wm. House addressed the audience on social hygiene. The list of instructors: M. S. Pittman, Instructor in State Normal School, Monmouth; S. F. Ball, Principal Arleta School, Portland; Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson, Salem; Hopkins Jenkins, Principal Jefferson High School, Portland; Dr. C. F. Hodge, State University, Eugene; Dr. C. J. Bushnell, President Pacific University, Forest Grove; Frank K. Wells, Assistant State Superintendent, Salem; Rosa B. Parrott, Instructor in Oregon Normal School, Monmouth; L. P. Harrington, Field Worker Industrial Farms, Crosswell; Agnes M. Jones, representing N. A. Palmer Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
