

THIRTY-THREE YEARS IN WASHINGTON CO.

Family Reunion at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Toelle Sr.

Seven Sons and Two Daughters Visit at Home Coming

An interesting family reunion was held a few days ago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Toelle Sr., of Bethany, when their nine surviving children made the parental home a visit. Mr. Toelle was born in Lippe, Germany, December 11, 1838, and came to America in 1863. Mrs. Toelle was born in the same province August 16, 1842, and arrived in America in 1865. They were married in Missouri, Nov. 11, 1865, moving to Kansas ten years later. In 1880 they crossed the Rockies and settled at Bethany, Washington County, settling in one of the richest sections of the Northwest. The nine surviving children are: Mrs. Jos. C. Schulmerich, of Banks, Henry C. Toelle and Mrs.

W. H. Jones, of North Plains; Fred C. Albert, M. Ferdinand G. and William H., of near Bethany, and John C. and Herman W., of Portland. At the reunion all the children and grandchildren were present, with the exception of one granddaughter. Mr. and Mrs. Toelle are highly esteemed in their community, and a large circle of friends wish for them many years of life in their adopted home.

J. C. Kuratli, Auctioneer.

Alex Sweck, born and raised down at Tualatin, now a well known Portland attorney, has been nominated as Minister to Siam.

Attorney John M. Wall and District Attorney E. B. Tongue have filed suit in circuit court to escheat about an acre of land to the state of Oregon, the property in question way back in 1836 belonging to one Chas. W. Tarlton. In May of that year Tarlton left his home near Beaverton to go to Portland, and since that time not a word has been heard from him. In 1897 the Beaverton people believed him dead, and Alfred Davison was appointed administrator. Davison nursed the little place along, and succeeded in getting enough from rentals, and the sale of a few dollars worth of tools, to keep the taxes paid. He was discharged from further liability in 1897 and since then the acre, with its little house, has been in various hands. Frank Hovendon is now on the place, and has been there for several years. Tarlton had no relatives so far as known, and the State of Oregon now asks that the property escheat to the commonwealth. Whether Tarlton was killed in Portland, or whether he died in some lonely place, and the body never recovered, or whether he shipped to sea, will probably never be known, unless Tarlton is alive somewhere, and makes his present whereabouts known. He was aged about 30 years when he so mysteriously pulled out of Beaverton.

BOHEMIAN WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE BY BURNING

Woman Long Mentally Distressed and Had Made Attempts Before

RUSHED FROM HOUSE, CLOTHES A FIRE

Husband Came Through at Second Examination, After Accident

Mrs. Anna Vavrin, aged 26 years, wife of Thos. Vavrin, a Bohemian, was Friday adjudged insane, and ordered committed to the asylum as soon as she is able to be transported from the Gardner sanitarium to Salem. She is now being nursed for wounds caused by setting herself on fire last Thursday afternoon. Vavrin was away from the house a short distance, when he noticed his wife coming out of the home with her clothes blazing. She was caught and the flames extinguished, but not until she was badly burned. The woman had put coal oil on her dress and then ignited it. Three weeks ago she tried to kill her little son—the only child they have—and the husband, thinking she might recover, would say nothing when she was arrested on an insanity charge. He now admits that she threatened to burn herself up three weeks ago, in order that she might "go to Heaven by fire." Homesickness is one of the causes attributed.

The husband, when she was examined a few weeks ago, refused to say anything, but after the terrible accident, came through and said she had attempted suicide before by throwing herself on the railway track in California; and that she had also threatened to jump from a window.

BIG DAIRY SALE

Friday, November 28, 1913, at 10 o'clock we will offer for sale 85 extra fine milk cows, free from tuberculosis; all have been tested. PYTHIANS PREPARE FOR GOLDEN JUBILEE

Grand Chancellor Grant Organizes a Big Demonstration

ALL COUNTY LODGES WILL WIRE EAST

February 19, 1914, Will be Date Set for Meeting of Lodges in State

The Knights of Pythias Order will celebrate their Golden Jubilee on the night of February 19, 1914, and the grand chancellor, Frank S. Grant, has made arrangements to have every lodge in the state meet and telegraph to Washington, D. C., where prominent members of the order will congregate—even in the very room in the capitol where Justus H. Rathbone founded the order.

Every lodge in Washington County is asked to get together, and keep the wires busy in sending in messages, and knights will be on hand.

Here in Hillsboro the Pythian Sisters will be invited in to the festivities, and if the Western Union does not get swamped it will be a miracle.

John M. Wall, himself a past grand chancellor, is taking an interest in the big golden jubilee session, and it goes without saying that it will be the big historic event in Pythianism in Hillsboro. Every Knight belonging to Hillsboro lodge, and there are about 125, is requested to be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Imbric, of near Orenco, were in town Friday evening. Mr. Imbric is figuring on putting in a pipe line to carry Sain Creek water from Orenco to his home. Several other residents of his neighborhood are thinking of joining in the project, as storage can be easily arranged.

Frank Klineman, aged 60, while plowing a half mile from Forest Grove, was killed in a very peculiar manner. The lines were about his neck, and when the plow struck a root the double-trees broke. The team started to run and Klineman was dragged over, the implement, from which he received injuries that caused death a few hours later, the unfortunate man never regaining consciousness. Geo. Sloan and Art Caples, who were close by, took the injured man to town for medical aid, but to no avail. The dead man is a native of Ohio, and lived with the Sloan family for some time. He had no family. Dr. Ira E. Barrett, coroner, went to the Grove today to investigate the death. Deceased was an uncle of the Klineman Brothers, of North Hillsboro.

Franquette walnut trees grafted on California Black Root—the kind that grows vigorous and bears heavy crops here in Western Oregon. The tree mentioned in my former ad, topworked, 4 years ago last April, produced 125 pounds of dried nuts that can be sold easily for 20c per pound, wholesale, making an income of $25.00. We have acres here in the northwest that are producing over $300, net income, trees averaging less than 17 years old. It is time that Washington county was waking up to this new industry. My first and second plantings, 5 and 6 years old are beginning to bear.

I also have vetch seed in small or large quantities.—Ferd Groner, Hillsboro, Oregon, route 2, phone Scholls 555 line 15.

A. C. Archbold has a hen that must be suffragette, for the roosters fight her just as though she were a full-fledged chanticleer. The pullet—if such she be—lays eggs just about the size of those from a quail. The strange thing about the affair is that the suffragette fights back like a Turk, but the male portion of the family were too much on the muscle for her, and she gets in some mighty bad "scrap." A. C. has named her "Mrs. Pankhurst."

Estray Notice—At my place, near Tualatin, white horse, branded ring on right shoulder, wire blemlishes about shoulders, weight about 1400 lbs. If no rightful owner is found, the same will be auctioned according to law on the 26th day of Nov., 1913, 2 p m to satisfy damages, cost of keeping, all expenses incurred, including justice fees, cost of advertising, and sale, and such other cost and expenses as may have been regularly made.—J. C. Martinazzi, Tualatin, Or. 33-5

L. P. Harrington, of Creswell, connected with the State Board of Education, was here yesterday, and addressed the Teachers' Institute in behalf of the proposition of having children become interested in making exhibits at county and street fairs, as well as the State Fair. He went out in the country yesterday to visit schools, in company with Supervisor Jack, to awaken schools on this important matter.

For Sale—150 Thoroughbred S. C. White Leghorn hens, 20 mo. old. These hens, with 200 others, averaged 158 eggs each from Sept. 1, 1912 to Sept. 1, 1913. Low price for immediate sale. Will exchange part for 1250 lb. horse.—Campbell & Rogers Poultry Farm, Beaverton, Oregon, R. 4, Box 20. 33-5

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Minott, of North Hillsboro, Tuesday evening, Nov. 11, in honor of their twenty-third wedding anniversary. The evening was enjoyed in conversation, and light refreshments were served at the close. A handsome set of dishes was presented host and hostess. Those present were Messrs, and Mesdames Minott, F. J. Williams, R. H. Greer, C. T. Young, Clifton Gillette, O. Gillette; Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. A. H. Blassig and Lee Minott.

Taken up: Bay team geldings, stars in forehead; one has white left hind foot. Owner prove property, pay charges, and take same away.—Fred Meyers, Laurel, Oregon. 33-5

The monthly Missionary Tea, of the Baptist church, was held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Everest. The president, Mrs. D. B. Emrick, presided. A short program and refreshments consumed the time. Twenty-three ladies, including several visitors, were present, making a very interesting gathering.

For sale—9 head cows, graded Jerseys, all in milk, one fresh with calf at side, others to spring; new cream separator, milk cans, etc.—O. L. Graff, 1-4 mile north Reedville.

Attorney W. G. Hare is suffering from a badly injured foot. He will not say whether his machine ran over the extremity, or whether he fell while trying to catch one of those China roosters that awakens him every morning.

All kinds of fresh fish in season. We deliver.—Fay Harrington, successor to W. H. Bentley, Main Street, opposite Hotel Washington. 33-5

Dance, at the W. O. W. Hall, North Plains, Saturday night, Nov. 29. Toelle's orchestra. Tickets, including supper, $1.25. Vic Potter, floor manager.

Wm. T. Dodson and Hazel Theresa Hillyer, and Harry H. Johnson and Hazel B. Merrill, all of Timber, were the principals in a double wedding, November 8, 1913, Hon. D. B. Reasoner officiating.

For Sale—Registered Holstein bull calves. Also improved Chester White boar, 20 months old, registered; and lot of grade Chester White pigs. Two work horses.—Water Zetzman, Cornelius, Or., R. 1. 33-5

D. R. Wheeler, of Aloha, and J. W. Vandervelden, of Roy, were in the city this morning.
