3 Act Farce Comedy

By The Young People Of ST. MATTHEWS CHURCH

CRESCENT THEATRE Wednesday Eve'g, Nov. 26

Prices, 50c, 35c and 25c.

This comedy is one big laugh from the opening lines until the curtain rolls down. Do not fail to see it.

An intense gripping play based on frontier life in the great Canadian woods.

The beauty of the stage setting, the intensity of the characterizations and the great moral of life stand clear cut, like a cameo.

CRESCENT THEATRE THURSDAY, NOV. 20

If you miss this you will miss the best of all road plays visiting the west.

ORENCO ANNUAL

Annual School Fair Will be Held in Conjunction With Exhibit

ENTRY OPEN TO ALL IN COUNTY

W. J. Head, Superintendent of the Poultry Department of the annual Orenco Exhibit, writes the Argus the following anent of Ocenco's annual show:

"On Friday, Nov. 28th, the Second Annual Orenco Poultry Show will be held at Orenco, in connection with their Annual School fair. At this exhibit will be shown work by the children in poultry raising, vegetables, flowers, seeds, work of the girls in domestic science, and the boys in mechanical arts.

At this show just preceeds the Oregon Poultry Show at Port land, it has been deemed advisable to open special prizes for adults in the poultry, open to any resident of the county. Birds taking prizes at this show can be shipped to the Portland Show. For this class of entries a small fee of 25c per pen will be made to cover expenses. To those having two or more pens, arrangements have been made whereby on payment of the 50c annual dues they may become members of the Orenco School Fair Association. Membership entitles free entries for as many pens as desired.
