GRAND JURY REPORTS TO CIRCUIT JUDGE

Examined All Village and City Jails in the County

ADVISE MODERN BLDG. AT POOR FARM

Advise a More Fire Proof Jail at Beaverton

The grand jury empaneled last week, as follows:

"We, the Grand Jury, duly empaneled and sworn to inquire into all crimes committed or triable in this county and to inquire into the condition and management of the offices pertaining to the Department of Justice and to the condition and management of every public prison and public institution in this county respectfully report as the result of our investigation as follows, to-wit:

That we have returned 40 true bills, and 2 not true bills, and we have examined into the condition of the County Poor Farm and the house and buildings thereon and well kept, the inmates of which there are 8 satisfied that no further extensive repairs be made, but would recommend a more modern and fire proof building be built. We have examined the County Jail and find it clean and well equipped and the prisoners well provided for.

We have examined the city jails of the county and find them clean and sanitary, but recommend a more fire proof building for the town of Beaverton. We have examined the various county officers in County Court house and find all of the offices well and efficiently conducted as far as we were able to ascertain, and the officers courteous and obliging, but we made no attempt to report or to have the books of the different county officials examined.

We respectfully submit this as our report and request that we be dismissed. Dated this 20th day of Nov., 1913.

Albert Banning, Foreman, Chas. VanDoren, Ed. Murphy, L. P. Jackson, J. Schneider, A. Zwiener.

AUCTION SALE

Saturday, November 29, at 1 o'clock, having recently sold part of my place, I will offer at public auction at the Brown feed stable, Hillsboro, the following property:

One registered Jersey cow, fresh in 3 months; registered Jersey heifer, to freshen Jan 15; registered Jersey heifer, to Feb; registered Jersey heifer, 8 mo; registered Jersey cow, will be fresh in 3 months; 3 high grade Jersey heifers, coming in May and bred to registered Jersey bull; one barred rock chickens; 34 farm wagon; 2-seated hack.

Terms—Six months' time at 8 per cent, bankable note. Two per cent, discount for cash.

James Cruikshank, Owner. J. C. Kuratli, Auctioneer.

D. H. Willers, of Oak Park, came over Monday, with a consignment of apples.

Mouldings, mouldings, at wholesale. See the Hillsboro Planing Mill. 33-6

John McCallen, of near Farmington, was in the county seat Friday.

Mrs. Al. Wagner, of Tillamook, came over the last of the week, to join her husband, who has been running on this end, since the washout, above Buxton.

For sale: Four cows, graded; two in milk, one just fresh, other coming fresh in Feb., other two will be fresh in December.—Jas. Gooden, 6 miles south of Cornelius, Iowa Hill, Cornelius, Oregon, Route 2. 36-38

Geo. E. Waggoner, a Portland real estate man, again jumps on Washington County, in Sunday's Oregonian, kicking about that famous Rex-Tigard road. The Kuratli is noted for his "kicking," and the county court pays but little attention to him. The court spent more money on this road than they originally agreed, owing to the fact that the Portland Auto Club agreed to expend a certain sum, or, rather, build a certain street of the road, which they have not done.

E. B. Tongue's last work as district attorney for the Fifth Judicial District was the big Pender murder case at St. Helens. Pender was tried for the murder of Mrs. Daisy Wehrman and six year old son, near Scappoose, the crime being committed just before hop picking time, in 1911. Evidence against Pender was purely circumstantial, and the first trial resulted in a disagreement. The second case went to trial two weeks ago, and the County of Columbia retained Mr. Tongue to prosecute the case, as he was familiar with the evidence. He was pitted against the celebrated John A. Jeffreys and another Portland attorney who has a reputation in criminal cases. Final argument was heard Friday, Jeffreys talking for six hours. Tongue concluded with three hours of analysis of the evidence, and 18 hours later the jury came in with a verdict of murder in the first degree. This was the hardest fought criminal case for several years and those who heard say that the state prosecutor made one of the most brilliant and effective arguments ever heard in a murder trial where the evidence was purely circumstantial.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584. 5011

Col. Jas. B. Eddy, of Portland, died the last of the week, after an illness of several weeks. He was aged 57 years, and was at one time publisher of the Forest Grove Times, later merged to the News-Times. For several years he has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific and the Portland, Eugene & Eastern. He was railway commissioner in the old appointive days. Col. Eddy was a forceful writer, and a man of genial disposition. He probably had a wider acquaintance in Oregon than any other private citizen. The funeral took place Tuesday, at Portland, the Masons, of Forest Grove, in charge of the services.

When wanting an ice cream soda, why not get it at a modern, up-to-date fountain where the syrup is kept in sanitary wells, pumped into the glass by a sanitary pump. That's the kind of fountain you will find at Koeber's.

C. Schoenbacher, near Farmington, was in the city Monday. He says that he, also, is suffering from the piling of kale—a not uncommon complaint, even up this way. Schoenbacher says that he would like the kale thief to let his patch alone, as he has barely enough for his own stock—and, besides, the swine like that kind of green food in the winter time.

If you want a range that beats the world for the money, call on David Corwin, Bank Annex Building, and see his Quality Ranges, all the way from $25 to $55. These are the best ranges ever placed on the market in Hillsboro. Call in and see them.

B. A. Mitchell, with the Oregon Nursery, was up from Oreno, Friday, greeting friends. Mr. Mitchell says that the Nursery Company recently made a big shipment of nursery stock to Ireland, and also one to Java, East India, as well as a carload to Northern Michigan, for planting. This is some longitude for shipment.

We cut dimension lumber and timbers to order. Rough lumber, all sizes, on hand.—S. R. Cogan, on Jas. A. Sewell place, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 1. Phone, Farmers 468. 25-37

M. C. Lincoln, who is doing field work in Portland for a Chicago firm, spent Sunday in the city. He brought with him a $500 piano as a birthday present for his daughter, Miss Trella.

For sale—Pedigreed Duroc Jersey boar, two years old.—Box 6, Route 4, Beaverton, Ore., Tel. 551, Line 4. 34-6

Wm. Phillips, of near Roy, sent in a 34 pound turnip, Monday, by Commissioner Hanley. The vegetable is on exhibition at the Kuratli real estate office.

Why pay a big price for mouldings, when you can buy the best at wholesale? See the Hillsboro Planing Mill. 33-6

Fred Wesch, of Tualatin, was in town Monday. He again started his saloon at Tualatin, Wednesday, the council having granted him a license.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT

In response to the many requests for this service, we have now installed in our Book Department, a Circulating Library. This Library affords our patrons the opportunity to secure at small expense all the meritorious new books of fiction as soon as issued.

As many copies of a title as the membership warrants will be carried in the Library.

All books will be kept clean. All book wrappers being put on every time a book is used.

For further details, see Laurel M. Hoyt, Hillsboro, Ore.

Herman Koehnke, of Oak Park, was a county seat visitor, Saturday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gifford, of the Hotel Washington, Nov. 20, 1913, a daughter. The little lady is a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. George Wann, of South Hillsboro. The happy father has had smiles for all his guests at the big hotel.

I. W. Raymond, of near Banks, was a city caller Monday.

Wm. Schulmerich and wife have moved to the city for permanent residence.

E. J. Thomas, of near Beaverton, was a city caller, Monday, on probate business.

Chris. Johnson, of Mason Hill, beyond North Plains, was a city caller the first of the week.

R. B. Porter, one of the pioneer hopmen of the Forest Grove section, was greeting friends in town the first of the week.

F. W. Phillips returned the last of the week from a visit with his brother, Geo. W., at Cottonwood, Idaho, the great stock country of the Gem state. While there he saw John Smith, who learned dentistry under the late Dr. Adkins. Web says that Ed. Jobe is at Cottonwood, on a ranch, and that he is doing fine. He expects to return there and spend the winter in the high altitude.

WESTON LADY PIONEER VISITS IN HILLSBORO

Husband Was First Post Master in Umatilla County Town

DROVE AN OX-TEAM ACROSS PLAINS

"Mother of Weston," Her Familiar Name Settled in Wilderness

Mrs. Sarah McDougal, Oregon pioneer of 1863, and who drove an ox-team across the plains, yoking the animals herself, and walking the greater portion of the way, was in town Friday, accompanying James Ritchey and wife, of Cornelius. Mrs. McDougal settled in Weston, Umatilla County, when the country was nothing but a bunch-grass wilderness. Her husband, Thos. Lieuallen, was Weston's first postmaster, appointed in 1869.

Mrs. McDougal is well known all over Umatilla County, and her home in Weston was known as a hospital for the ill. She is known far and wide as "The Mother of Weston," and her pioneer acquaintance is extensive. She is a personal friend of Nancy Kees Jacobs, one of the survivors of the Whitman massacre. Her children are grown, and she now spends the most of her time visiting with friends and relatives. She is at present visiting with the families of James Ritchey and J. F. Kilgore, of Cornelius.

BIG DAIRY SALE

Friday, November 28, 1913, at 10 o'clock we will offer for sale 85 extra fine milk cows, free from tuberculosis; all have been tested. Also 2 fine Holstein bulls, 2 years old; one Durham bull, one year old, on the Palentine Hill place, 1 mile west from Revera Station, on the Southern Pacific Railroad, Oswego, Oregon. Lunch at noon.

Terms—$10. cash; over $10, 6 months time, at 8 per cent bankable note.

John Naegeli, John Arnet, Owners.

J. C. Kuratli, Auctioneer, Christ Naegeli, Clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Davis, of North Plains, were city visitors Saturday.

James Cruikshank, of near Laurel, was a city caller the last of the week.

J. M. Miller, of Banks, was in the city Monday morning, on business.

Tares for sale, mixed with quarter wheat, quarter oats, and vetch, all cleaned and ready for market.—Wm. Schulmerich.

The German Speaking Society will meet at Krebs Hall, Hillsboro, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday, December 6. The Society invites all German speaking people to attend this meeting.

Editor Scott, of the News-Times, and Attorney L. M. Graham, of the Grove, returned Sunday from a hunting trip over on the Tillamook waters, coming through Hillsboro on the P. R. & N.

Wm. Schendel, of Cornelius, was in town Saturday, making arrangements for the coming meeting of the German Speaking Society, which takes place here the first Saturday afternoon in December.

W. A. Tupper, of Portland, was in town Sunday, a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tupper. He is secretary of the Portland Civil Service commission, and after Dec. 1 will receive $150 per month.

Fred Stark, of below Scholls, was in town Monday and Tuesday, appearing before circuit court, for citizen papers. After he was ready for court he discovered that his father had taken out papers, when Fred was a youngster, and he was not really required to go through court, as he was already a citizen. The Argus reporter and John Witt were his witnesses.

Perry Davidson, who married Mrs. Agnes Hocking, at Vancouver, Wash., says the county $390 a year on the widows' pension law. The bride had four children, and drew $32.50 monthly. She wrote Clerk Luce the following letter—"Dear Sir: I will drop you a line in regards to the pension. As I was married Nov. 15 I will inform you so you can stop the pension."

A CHECK IS SAFER THAN A PADLOCK

You always lock up your house at night; you see that the padlock is on your barn door; of course you do. But how about your business? Are you as cautious and prudent in regard to money matters? If you have no commercial bank account your system is lax, and there is apt to be a leak somewhere.

The man who can boast of a commercial bank account is the one who pays all bills by check, in a systematic manner, and can tell at a glance how much money he has on hand, at any time.

Open your account with us and put a padlock on business.
