TWENTY CITIZENS ARE ADMITTED BY CAMPBELL

Tuesday Was Big Day in Circuit Court for New Americans

COURT BUSY FOR SEVERAL HOURS

Applicants Born in England, Scotland, Germany and Switzerland

Tuesday was a big day in circuit court for those who had applications to become citizens of the United States. Judge Campbell passed twenty over the line of citizenship, while a number were not present with their witnesses, and two were denied, one without prejudice, and one with no conditions. Only for technicalities these would have gone through.

Wm. Hazard, of Seattle, was present as the United States Examiner, and his questions had much to do with government and opinions. Those who believe in polygamy or anarchy can not pass—and there was none in the bunch who followed Brigham Young or Johann Most.

Those granted full citizenship were:

The Forest Grove News-Times reported that the Forest Grove National Bank recently installed a new typewriter. The Oregonian quotes it, and wants to know if she is a blonde or brunette. This little bon mot sounds like Uncle William Cuddy, of Milkapsi, who is long on these little quips. For the benefit of Brother Scott, of the News-Times, the Argus will inform him that Uncle William, who is long on newspaper lore, but short on agriculture stunt, started a chicken ranch with the calculation to wind up with 3,000 hens and 10 roosters—some mathematical proposition in a state where the sex votes.

W. C. Smith, of Grand View, Wash., visited Sunday with his brother, F. S. Smith, in South Tualatin. The brothers had not met for 14 years, and as he brought a carload of hogs to Portland he concluded to take advantage of nearness, and came over to see his kinsman.

Chris Gertsch and A. V. Bergen, old time settlers at Garden Home, were in the city Tuesday. They have seen land down that way go from $40 per acre up to a valuation of over $1000 in some locations, since the advent of the electric line.

Sunday evening's six o'clock Oregon Electric train, bound for Portland with three coach loads of passengers, was laid out at this station for over an hour, with a breakdown.
