

Cream of Tracts

Beaverton-Reedville acreage will soon have a better car service than any of Portland's various suburbs. Rapid transit is about to be established. The line is wired and the equipment on the way.

Now Is The Time To Buy

Beaverton-Reedville Acreage—is one of the substantial properties close in. It is suburban in every sense and is more accessible today than St. Johns or the Mt. Tabor district. Get in on —the— GROUND FLOOR

SOLD ON EASY TERMS

Tracts are sold on easy terms, with one payment down. If you are getting along in years and want to leave the farm, buy where you can get an acre for the price of a city residence lot. Three years hence the entire Beaverton-Reedville tract will be like a city.

CYNTHIA JANE JULIAN

Mrs. Cynthia Jane Shaw Julian died at her home on Iowa Hill, 6 miles south of Cornelius, Nov. 19, 1913, after an illness of several months. Cynthia Shaw was born near Springfield, Mo., Jan. 28, 1848, and crossed the plains to Oregon with her parents, in 1853, the family settling near McMinnville. She was married to Thomas London, Jan. 28, 1863, at Fort Walla Walla, Wash., and they shortly afterward settled near Glencoe, north of Hillsboro, where they resided until 1884 when they moved to Corbett, Ore., where Mr. London died in 1888. Seven children were born to the union—S. T. London, of Eddyville, Ore.; Chas. W., of St. Cloud, Florida; Jas. N., of Cornelius, Route 2; Mrs. Florence Hatcher, of Portland; T. H., of Governors Island, N. Y.; Mrs. Elizabeth Willis, of San Diego, Cal.; all surviving; and Oliver J. London, deceased.

Mrs. Julian felt the end coming some time ago, and disposed of her property, giving her husband, Mr. Julian, a life lease on the place, and the personal property to her son, J. N. London.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our kind friends and neighbors for the sympathy and aid extended to us during our bereavement, the illness and death of our mother, S. T. London, J. N. London, Florence Hatcher, Cornelius, Ore., Nov. 24, 1913.

WILL BUY STOCK FOR CASH

We have a client who will buy all of the stock on a ranch and rent the place. If interested, kindly write us the price and list of the stock, amount of rent wanted with full description of the buildings, implements, and improvements, also stating how long the lease can run, number of acres under cultivation, distance from town, school, etc. Ralph Ackley Land Co., 204 Failing Bldg., Portland, Or.

SURPRISE PARTY

A very pleasant surprise was given Miss Hazel Goodwin, by Miss Louise Langue, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodwin, 2 miles east of Oreno, Nov. 17, the event being her fourteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was enjoyed with games, music and dancing. Light refreshments were served at midnight. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. William Goodwin; Misses Bertha Reed, Helen Anderson, Ida Meier, Ruth and Mary Stuecki, Marie Berger, Victoria Schmidt, Predetta and Hazel Goodwin, Mary Donavoy, Flora Berger, Louise Langue; Messrs. Fred Stuecki, Joe and Richard Donavoy, Harry and Jesse Hansen, Nels Johnson, Arnold, Fred, Henry and Ernest Berger, Walter Stuecki, Albert Meier, Thomas Larsen, Claude Goodwin, F. Langue.

Jack Killin, of above Thatcher, was a county seat visitor the last of the week.

L. C. Hoeffle, of near Reedville, was in the county seat the last of the week.

John Berger and son, Simon, of near Bethany, were in the city Friday.

Do not forget to ask for a Schiller when you want a good 10 cent smoke—"rough dust" in the Schiller. 12tf

Fred Green departed Saturday for Monroe, Wash., where he will take charge of the processing at the condenser. Fred has been with the local condensers, here and at the Grove, for several years.

Brakeman E. Downing, of Salem, fell under the tender of an engine in the Hillsboro yards, about three o'clock Friday morning, and had an arm so badly crushed that Dr. Erwin found it necessary to amputate. Downing was a "student" and had been on the road but a short time. The engine was detailed to take the young man through to Portland, Dr. Erwin accompanying. Downing's people reside at 725 East 18th Street, in the capital city.

Franquette walnut trees grafted on California Black Root—the kind that grows vigorous and bears heavy crops here in Western Oregon. The tree mentioned in my former ad., topworked, 4 years ago last April, produced 125 pounds of dried nuts that can be sold easily for 20c per pound, wholesale, making an income of $25.00. We have acres here in the northwest that are producing over $300, net income, trees averaging less than 17 years old. It is time that Washington county was waking up to this new industry. My first and second plantings, 5 and 6 years old are beginning to bear. I also have vetch seed in small or large quantities.—Ferd Groner, Hillsboro, Oregon, route 2, phone Scholls 555 line 16.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY
N. C. Lilly, Plaintiff, vs.
Chas. Hill and Matilda Jane Hill, Defendants.
To Charles Hill and Matilda Jane Hill, the above named defendants: You are hereby commanded and required to be and appear to the above entitled court and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause, on or before the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons in the Hillsboro Argus, the date of the first publication thereof being on the 6th day of October, 1913, and the date of the last publication thereof being on the 27th day of November, 1913, on or before the 27th day of November, 1913, and you will please take notice that if you fail to appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment against you and each of you for the sum of $25.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 30th day of January, 1913, and the further sum of $30.00, with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 30th day of November, 1913, and for the costs and disbursements of this action. And you are further notified and advised that the plaintiff has also the real property described as follows: An undivided one half interest in the following described real property, to-wit:

A portion of the homestead claim of James McLellan described as follows: Commencing at a point 5 chains south of the northeast corner of Lot 7 in section 6, township 1 north, range 4 west of the Willamette Meridian, and running thence south 25 1/2 chains to the northeast corner of a tract of land sold by James McLellan to J. F. Lilly by deed dated January 2, 1911, and recorded on page 110 book "F" of Records of Deeds for Washington County, Oregon, and running thence west on the north line of said Lilly's land, 20 chains to the west line of said McLellan Homestead Claim, thence north on the west line of the said claim to a point 5 chains south of the northwest corner of said lot 2 section 6, thence east to the place of beginning.

This summons is served upon you by publication by order of Honorable D. B. Keasler, county Judge of Washington County, Oregon, made and dated at Hillsboro on the 9th day of October, 1913, and order prescribing the first publication as October 9, 1913, and the date of the last publication as November 30, 1913. J. F. Lilly and Harry Vanek with Attorneys for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.
Geo. Trantow, Plaintiff,
vs.
Edwin Trantow, Defendant.
To Edwin Trantow, the above named defendant: In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear in the above entitled court and cause on or before Friday, November 29, 1913, which is six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons and plead to the complaint herein filed against you, and if you fail to so appear and answer or fail to answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and hereafter existing between you and the plaintiff, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem most and equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication in the Hillsboro Argus by virtue of an order of the Hon. D. B. Keasler, Judge of Washington County, and said order prescribing the first publication as October 9, 1913, and the date of the last publication as November 30, 1913. H. J.
