

HILLSBORO'S FIRE CHIEF IS THE BENEDICTS

Miss Lienetta Blanche Sewell, last evening
AS SURPRISE TO FRIENDS OF BOTH
Reside in Robt. Hartmann House
After Short Wedding Trip

Eduard Hartmann, Chief of Hillsboro Fire Department, made a march on his bachelor friends, Wednesday evening, Dec. 10, 1913, and was wedded Miss Lienetta Blanche Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sewell, of South Hillsboro. The wedding came as a surprise to friends of the bride and groom.

It was considered that the man was a confirmed bachelor, the wedding was a quiet affair, and took place at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Fisher, of the Evangelical Church, officiating.

The groom is well and favorably known here, where he has engaged in the machinery auto business for years, and bride is a highly esteemed lady. Some time ago she was employed in the telephone central office, where she made many friends by her courteous treatment of the public.

After a short wedding trip he will return to Hillsboro, and a few days will be at home to his friends in the Robt. Hartmann residence, just across the court west from the court

ANNIVERSARY

A unique event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bailey, Monday, Dec. 8, when a number of friends spent the day with them, celebrating the fortieth anniversary of their marriage. Among the guests were Mrs. Hanley's brother, H. Fowler, of Portland, who was present at the wedding forty years ago.

After a splendid banquet was served, an appropriate program rendered, consisting of songs and several speeches by neighbors and friends, who paid many tributes to their sterility.

Several valuable presents were received, among them a new wedding ring to replace the one that had worn out, a brace of chums as a mark of appreciation from neighbors, Mr. Hanley realized the necessity of moving into town in order to attend to his duties as county commissioner, and when he leaves the farm for good. So the occasion was a farewell.

CARD OF THANKS

undersigned desires to thank all who kindly tendered sympathy during the obituary of the late Mrs. A. E. Greer.

shop for sale, at $26 per month.

Cornelius, Or., R. 2.

Attorney John M. Wall is making an attempt to get the State Game commission to turn over a shotgun, owned by the Bissner ranch, south of town. The gun was taken from one of the hired men, who went out to hunt without a license, and when the deputy took him in, he also took the gun away from him. The offender then asked permission to go in the house and get his hunting license—he had none—and made his getaway through the back door. Bissner wants his gun, as the hired man took the fowling piece without permission. Finley has answered that he will keep the weapon and there the matter stands.

For sale: Horse, 900 pounds, drives single or double. Good farm or work animal for weight. Or will trade for stock, or exchange for work.—G. F. Cramer, near Rood Bridge, southeast of Newton, City R. 5. 38-8

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held Tuesday, Dec. 9, 1913, at the home of the President, Mrs. Lucy Sigler. A very interesting meeting was held in which the devotional was conducted by Mrs. Sigler, assisted by Mrs. Spicker. Mrs. Cora Mason acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Shirley. It was decided to have the meetings at the homes instead of at the churches, through the winter. It was decided to have a special program at the next meeting, but there will be no meeting till January 13th. Some other business was attended to and the meeting adjourned.

Taken Up—Buckskin horse. Owner please pay charges, advertising, etc., and take same away. Peter Golleb, Hillsboro, Route 1—two miles north of the city.

Col. H. S. Huson and son, John Huson, of above Cornelius, were in the city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Huson is still satisfied with the "simple life," after an active career for many years as the chief engineer of the Northern Pacific Railway, in all their construction, from St. Paul to Portland. Huson was the first chief to have his corps make a lengthy tunnel meet to the very eyelash, with construction heading from both ends—the Stampede tunnel, between Seattle and Ellensburg.

For sale—9 head cows, graded Jersey, all in milk, one fresh with calf at side, others to freshen from now on until Spring; new cream separator, milk cans, etc.—O. L. Graff, 1-4 mile north Reedville.

James H. Kilpatrick, of Weiser, Idaho, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Kilpatrick brought down two carloads of Idaho's mammoth hogs, the first of the week, and while down in the valley dropped down to Hillsboro and the Grove to revisit old scenes. He at one time worked for J. H. Wescott, at Forest Grove, when that gentleman conducted a meat market.

No special Saturday sale about this, but at all times we sell White Loaf flour, $1.25 per sack, or $4.75 a barrel; every sack guaranteed. We are sole agents, Greer's. 34-1f

Grover Combs has furniture sales the year around—because he undersells his competitors. His regular prices are cheaper, value considered, than alleged "special sales." Come and see him for that Christmas present. Big reduction on all articles until Christmas.

Want some one to grub and clear three acres of land for me. Can furnish house and barn for party. See D. H. Willers, mile north of Oak Park Station, southwest of Hillsboro.

Wm. M. Hermens, Josie Bernard, Martin and Christine Van-Handel, of Verboort, departed the first of the week for a visit at DePere and Little Chute, Wisconsin.

If you want to move your household effects, pianos, etc., see me. Have piano truck.—C. R. Hodgdon, Hillsboro. Telephone City 14. 37-8

Friday and Saturday evenings, at the People's Theatre—"The Cowboy Magnate"—a story of the West, with plenty of action. Raleigh Walker will play the violin at this theatre every Sunday evening.

Ask for Cash value Home industry stamps, with every purchase. Get your premiums at Hillsboro's stores.—H. R. Emmett.

Fred Goetze, of above Bloomington, was in yesterday, and says that nearly all the potatoes are harvested out his way. As a rule the crops are fine, he says.

A large assortment of men's and ladies' handkerchiefs at Greer's. 38-39

W. C. Gardner, of Sellwood, in the general merchandise business, was out Tuesday, the guest of his brother, Chas. Gardner.

For Sale—Two fresh milk cows.—Carl Gribner, Banks, Ore., R. 2. One mile north of Banks. 39

Candies and nuts of all kinds at Greer's. 38-9

MOOSE BUILDING BONDS ARE NEARLY ALL SOLD

Members of Building Committee Expect to Sell all in Two Weeks

LACK BUT A LITTLE OVER $2,000

Will Give a Smoker Tuesday Evening, December 23, With all Attending

The members of the Moose building committee, appointed to sell bonds for the construction of the three-story Moose building, on the corner of Second and Washington, reported Tuesday evening that they had sold all of the bond issue with the exception of a little over two thousand dollars, and the Order is to give a big smoker in the Hartramph Rink, Tuesday evening, December 23, to wind up the bond sale in a burst of good feeling and good fellowship.

The members have contributed largely to the purchases, and there are but a few of them who have not taken at least one bond.

Every member is requested by the Dictator, G. M. Turner, to be in attendance at the big smoker, for there will be some good speeches, and some good numbers on the program.

The committee desires to finish up the bond sale by the first of the year, so that building operations can begin early in the Spring. The plans drawn are modern, and the structure is to be an ornament to the town.

CALL FOR BIDS

Bids will now be received for immediate razing and removal of material of the present wooden tower situated on the Second Street, property of the Washington Oregon Corporation.

SURPRISE PARTY

A birthday surprise was tendered Mrs. Henry Stoffers, East Hillsboro, on her 76th birthday, the other evening. A number of friends were present, and all report a fine time. Those present were: Host and hostess, Messrs and Mesdames Malchow, J. P. Shirley; Rose Stoffers, Mr. Recher, Bertha and Lydia Malchow, Mabel Recher, Will Greenbaum, Frank and Ralph Wolf, Mesdames Sandin, Sophia Wolf.

HUSBAND WANTS BIG DAMAGES FROM NAYLOR

Suit of Miles Watrous for $25000 Now in Circuit Court

CASE IS SALACIOUS TO THE LIMIT

Wife Testifies That she Kissed Husband When Pungled a Dollar

Judge Cleeton has been hearing the case of Miles Watrous versus Geo F. Naylor this week, and the case has been sufficiently salacious to draw a considerable crowd. Watrous asks for $25,000 for alienation of his wife's affections. He went on the stand and testified that he and his wife had lived happily together until Naylor entered the household as a boarder, and, after years of this condition he finally concluded he was not wanted around the place and left. Naylor was last spring convicted of unlawfully living with Mrs. Watrous, and the case is now on appeal to the Supreme Court. Bagley & Hare are the attorneys for Watrous, while John F. Logan is counsel for Naylor, with John M. Wall assisting him. After the prosecution had testified and closed the case the defense moved a nonsuit, but this was denied by Cleeton. The jury hearing the case—John McClaren, August Blank, Dudley Stowell, Geo. M. Hines, D. Wilcox, Andrew Pierson, Wm. Parsons, J. J. Adkins, J. Frank Stroud, J. L. Byrom, W. J. Gregg H. T. Koebel. The case will probably be concluded this
