The tree mentioned in my former ad., topworked, 4 years ago last April, produced 125 pounds of dried nuts that can be sold easily for 20c per pound, wholesale, making an income of $25,00. We have acres here in the northwest that are producing over $300, net income, trees averaging less than 17 years old. It is time that Washington county was waking up to this new industry. My first and second plantings, 5 and 6 years old are beginning to bear.

I also have vetch seed in small or large quantities.-Ferd Groner, Hillsboro, Oregon, route 2, phone Scholls 555 line 16.

Portland auto men are still kicking about that Rex-Tigard road. If the gentlemen will look up the road law they will find out that the road has already received as much or more as is possible for the county of Washington to outlay on the highway. The people down there had a chance to vote a special tax, but did not think it advisable to expend any more on that thoroughfare—and the people of the im-mediate vicinity should be excellent judges.

The non-poisonous matches, conforming to the Federal law, are now on the market, and they are not at all easy to strike. The law was passed, ostensibly, to protect the children. Besides being hard to strike they contain nothing injurious in case Young America concluded they were good to eat.
