We sometimes think that we have high taxes here in the county—but if you'll just take a squint at Tillamook taxes, you'll see that we are not so badly abused. Tillamook, however, is desiring to expend a great deal of money on her roads—mostly, too, for her own use.

Well, it is to be a "dry" Hillsboro after Jan. 1. The case cannot be heard in the Supreme Court for at least several months. Happily, we have Sain Creek water!

The currency bill will pass at Washington inside of a few days—and business will then settle down to business.

C. F. Hesse, of Scholls, was up to the city this morning. J. J. McHale, of near Cooper Mountain, was a city caller today.

G. W. Whitmore, of Chehalis Mountain, was transacting business in town Wednesday.

Wm. Miltenberger, of Dallas, was down to Hillsboro last of the week, returning home Sunday.

For sale—A few choice chickens, S. C. White Leghorns, to sell from a pen of 33 hens, with a record of 5200 eggs, and average of $2.99 each for 12 months. Mrs. J. A. Hobbs, Varley Station, on Oregon Electric, Cornelius, Route 1. Phone, Cornelius, James Line 3.

Two young men from the South Tualatin section took John Boeker's horse from the chain, Monday night, and drove it home and then turned it loose. It was found by the deputy sheriff and brought home. The young men are known to the authorities, but no arrests have as yet been ordered.

Judge Smith this week fined Geo. Brittauer $25, the charge being that he drank intoxicating liquor on a train. Brittauer was on the train Nov. 22, and happened to sit down in the seat next to Sheriff Reeves. The passenger reached in his pocket and pulled out a flask, and proceeded to take a libation. When he concluded the sheriff reached over and confiscated the bottle, and swore to a complaint. Brittauer did not deny the charge, and is in jail, serving out his time, in default of payment. The law is strict in regard to drinking on trains—and it should be. Enforcement will soon stop the habit. A few more fines and there will be no annoyance of this kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Schulmerich returned the last of the week from an extended trip to the East. They visited in New York, Brooklyn, Washington D. C., and in several of the Southern and Western states. Mr. Schulmerich says they have some good country in the East—but Oregon for him, every time, climate and soil considered. He says that Kansas is going into the alfalfa industry with a vengeance, and that ricks were piled all along the lines of railways, showing that they are making a success of it. Cattle and hogs should be the chief industry back there, with the corn production. Mr. Schulmerich says that farm lands out here are considered too high by the average Easterner, and this impression is keeping many from coming to the state.

John M. Wall, who owns a tract of land up at Roderick Falls, a small tributary of Gales Creek, may soon be numbered with the Station and Lefroy mine owners, for he has a contract with two prospectors, who have already found gold bearing quartz that is assayed at $14 per ton. Another man, Dave Wheeler, some time ago found a piece of quartz just below the place, that assayed a figure so high that it would sound impossible to print it. Mr. Wall entered into a contract with Messrs. Henpanker & Martinovitch, they to prospect and develop, and the mine, if found paying, to be divided among the trio on percentage. So confident are the prospectors that they have a rich find that they are working like Trojans to develop, and they expect to become rich themselves and make Wall another John Hays Hammond. Wall's friends hope it will pan out. For years and years prospectors have talked of a rich mine in the coast range, on the east slope, where, they say, an old California miner found a rich surface prospect. This may be the location.

Death to headaches—glasses fitted by Drs. Lowe & Turner. F. A. Hohman, of above Blooming, was in the county seat yesterday.

Erwin Ritter, secretary of the German Mutual Fire Ins. Association, was in town yesterday ordering stationery for the annual meeting of the membership, which will take place in Hillsboro, January 12, at Krebs' Hall. As the membership is increasing all the time the convention will bring a large number of people to the county seat.
