A large crowd of prominent young people, married and single, had a jollification, Monday evening, when they indulged in an old-fashioned charivari, using as instruments of auricular torture, everything from a bell to a cross-cut saw. The young married people visited were Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Hartrampf, Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Pollock, and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Reiter. After the demonstration all of the party were taken to Koeber's, where they were given a reception, with refreshments.

Mrs. Mary Pearson, wife of H. C. Pearson, of Iowa Hill, was brought in Monday and examined by Dr. F. A. Bailey for her sanity. She was ordered committed, and taken to the asylum Tuesday. Mrs. Pearson's health failed several years ago, and she was sent to her old home in England, by the husband, in the hopes she would be benefitted. The trip, however, proved of no avail, as the improvement was only temporary. Her peculiar mental trouble is a fear that some one is planning to destroy her. She is aged 51 years.

REDUCED PRICE

Family Washing At 5 Cents Per Pound

This price may be obtained by those who take advantage of our coupon plan. Books contain coupons to the amount of $5.00, which must be paid for in advance. We keep the books at our office and with every bundle delivered to customer we send coupons from book for the amount charged for package. This makes the customer pay in advance for the work, but with the price we are making it is the most economical way of having family washing done. On account of the increased operating expenses, which are all cash, we are compelled to place our business on a strictly cash basis commencing January 1st, 1914. This coupon system saves us all the work of bookkeeping and collecting and gives us cash to meet our expenses. This is why we offer this extremely low price.

Our Price to those who do not purchase coupon books will be 8 cents per pound for rough dry, and the following prices for flat work.
