

Cream of Tracts

Beaverton-Reedville acreage will soon have a better car service than any of Portland's various suburbs. Rapid transit is about to be established. The line is wired and the equipment on the way.

Now Is The Time To Buy

Beaverton-Reedville Acreage—is one of the substantial properties close in. It is suburban in every sense and is more accessible today than St. Johns or the Mt. Tabor district. Get in on —the—

Chas. Walters, of Glencoe, was over to the city Saturday.

G. A. Wehrung returned the last of the week from a trip to California.

Alex Gordon and daughter were in from North Plains, Saturday.

Perry Stream, of near Oreco, was in the county seat the last of the week.

C. F. Grabel, of South Tualatin, was in town the first of the week.

H. Cop, of North Forest Grove, was in the Hillsboro caller the first of the week.

Max Behling, of south of Cornelius, was in the city Monday morning.

C. E. Fluke, trainman on the P. R. & N., was a Portland visitor Monday.

H. Tober, the Rood Bridge hop grower, was up to the city the first of the week.

One of the largest stocks of shoes and dry goods in the county, at Greer's. 34-1f

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ornduff, of Laurel, were in town Monday, on a Christmas shopping trip.

Edw. Boge, the Farmington thresherman and baler, was in town the first of the week, greeting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Henton departed the last of the week for their home in the Eastern Oregon section.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Wilkes are the proud parents of another child a daughter, born at Mountaineer, Dec. 14, 1913.

Ralph Imbrie, who has been over at Garibaldi, all Summer, returned last week, to spend the Winter in this section.

D. H. Willers, of Oak Park, was in the city Monday. He is clearing up a piece of land this Winter, for crop next year.

Arnold VanDomeon, of Roy, was in town the first of the week Arnold is breaking into Holsteins for dairying, and will soon have a nice herd.

D. W. Bath, of Tacoma, Wash., former editor of the Independent and later publisher at North Plains, was in the city this week transacting business and greeting oldtime friends.

J. A. Zimmerman, of Roseland Farm, was up to the city the last of the week. J. A. pays a good tax, but says that withal, he is sorry they beat the special tax down in his road district.

Robt. Simpson, of Buxton, and Will Jack, of Hillsboro, have purchased a saloon at Beaverton, and have taken possession. Mr. Simpson withdrew his petition for license at Buxton, last week.

Attorneys Geo. R. Bagley and T. H. Tongue went to McMinnville, Saturday, to try the divorce case of Mulloy versus Mulloy. The husband, A. C. Mulloy, was given the decree. The case was heard before Judge Webster Holmes.

Announcements have been sent out by the Bankers & Merchants Mutual Fire Relief Association of Forest Grove, that they have taken new offices in the First National Building, at Forest Grove, and will be at home to their patrons, after Dec. 25.

Your Uncle Samuel is turning out some new stamp books at the postoffice that beat the old ones for convenience. The book contains 24 two-cent stamps, and 24 one-centers, making a total of 72 cents worth of letter postage, and you pay 73 cents for the bunch.

Hon. O. E. Edson, who has been at Goldendale for several years, in charge of a big flouring mill, arrived home the last of the week. O. E. is suffering from an affection of his vision, and has nearly lost the sight of one of his eyes. His many friends here hope that he will recover, and be able to use his optics as before.

Why be bothered with two pairs of glasses. Call at Hotel Washington, Saturday, Dec. 20, and let Drs. Lowe & Turner show you the new invisible bifocal glasses, which enable you to see both far and near. No unsightly lines in the lens to strain the eyes, catch dirt, or come apart. Free demonstration. Call forenoon if possible. 38-9

E. A. Wolf, of Aloha, was up to the county seat Monday, and called on Chas. McFadden, the cigar manufacturer. Mr. Wolf is an old cigar maker, and followed the trade for many years. While he is 73 years of age he thinks his hand has not yet lost its cunning, and he would like to "roll" a few, just for the sake of olden times.

Agent Shinnaberger, of the Southern Pacific, is very proud over the record of the road for 1913. This record shows that for the year, 1,373,815,327 passengers were carried a distance of a mile, without a single death from accident. The road received the award of safety medal, from a fund which covers the liability of all steam railways. This is some feather in the cap of the management.

Oregon Agricultural College
FARMERS' WEEK
December 8 to 13, 1913
This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon. Farmers' Cooperation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations in everything that makes for the welfare of the farmer and home maker.
WINTER SHORT COURSE
January 5 to 30, 1914
The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-Operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address H. M. TENNANT, Registrar, Corvallis, Oregon. Farmers' Business Courses by Correspondence without tuition.
