

Cream of Tracts

Beaverton-Reedville acreage will soon have a better car service than any of Portland's various suburbs. Rapid transit is about to be established. The line is wired and the equipment on the way.

Now Is The Time To Buy

Beaverton-Reedville Acreage—is one of the substantial properties close in. It is suburban in every sense and is more accessible today than St. Johns or the Mt. Tabor district. Get in on —the— GROUND FLOOR

SOLD ON EASY TERMS

Tracts are sold on easy terms, with one payment down. If you are getting along in years and want to leave the farm, buy where you can get an acre for the price of a city residence lot. Three years hence the entire Beaverton-Reedville tract will be like a city.

M. C. Lincoln was out from Portland, Saturday.
Chas. Russell, of Gaston, was in town Monday.
Fred Berger, of Bethany, was in the city Saturday, greeting friends.
H. Scheurermann, of beyond Cornelius, was in the county seat Monday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, of North Plains, were in town the last of the week.
J. N. Flippen, of Buxton, was down to the city Friday afternoon.
Carl Pfahl and M. Sturm Sr., of above Blooming, were in town Saturday.

Miss Edna Gilkey has gone to the Coos bay section to spend the Holidays with relatives.

James Churchill, of Gales Creek, was in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Taggart went over to Tillamook, the last of the week, to be absent several days.

Roy Schroeder, who has been over on Grays Harbor this Summer and Fall, arrived home the last of the week.

George Harma, who always knows where to get a big, fine buck, every year, was down from Mountindale, Saturday.

Judson James, of Gales Creek, where he is engaged in dairying, was down to the county seat Saturday.

Sam Johnson and wife, of Shady Brook, were in town the last of the week, looking up Santa Claus for the grandchildren.

The Argus goes to press a day early this week, St. Nicholas having unceremoniously made his day of celebration arrive on press day.

Frank Monteith, a former Hillsboro printer, is now with the Wilbur, Wash., Register, a very likely looking eight page, five column paper.

J. Schmitke, who owns the old Delaney place above Mountindale, one of the best dairy ranches in the section, was in town Saturday.

Toni Sinay, of above Blooming, was in town Friday. He and his wife returned last Thursday from Eugene, where they attended the funeral of a relative.

Allen G. Olinger, of Reedville, has been appointed postmaster at that place, vice C. L. Baker, resigned. The new postmaster is engaged in the mercantile business at the old Borwick stand.

Fred Wilcox, of the Green-ville neighborhood, was in town the last of the week. He has lived up there for many years, and still thinks there is no section like his boyhood home.

Mr. Creekpaum, Ward and Claire Wilkes, Henry Danneel, Rhea Wilkes, A. G. Archbold and Robt. Davis, attending O. A. C., came down Friday night, to remain until after the Holidays.

C. C. Nelson, of Bacons, was down the last of the week, bringing in a brother of Martin Schuster, who killed himself. The brother had gone from Portland to attend to the burial of the unfortunate homesteader.

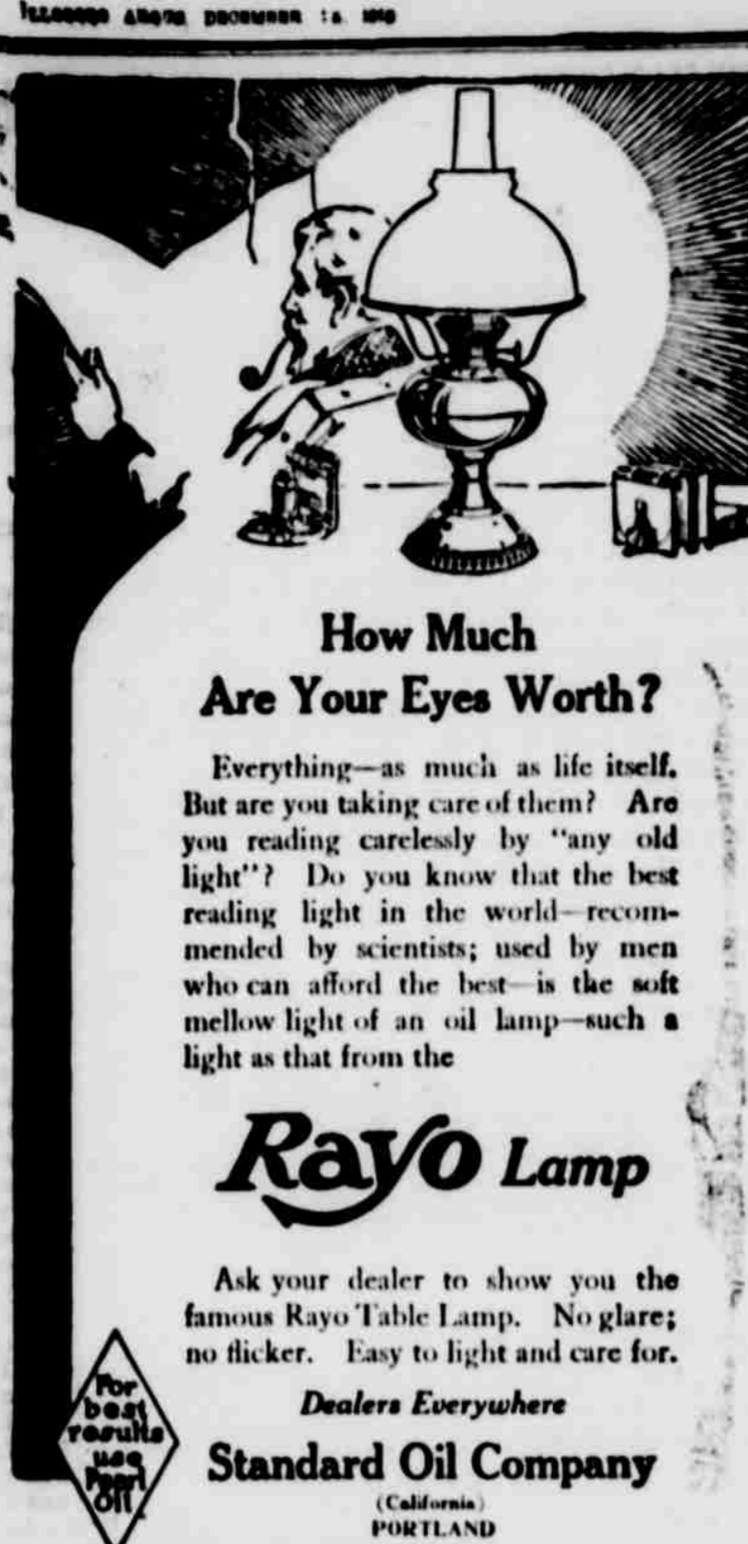

The Commercial Club will begin a campaign of activity after January 1, and as soon as the annual meeting is out of the way, the directors will go after capital for Hillsboro's manufacturing interests. There is no reason why some big mills, and other plants, should not be landed. Shipping from this city is on an equal basis with Portland, for the town can ship on the Southern Pacific, Great Northern, North Bank, and the O. W. R. & N., with equal facility.

Assessor W. E. Ball, of Toledo, Lincoln County, and T. J. Thrift, of Coquille, Coos County, were in town Sunday, guests of Assessor Max Crandall. Mr. Thrift comes from the town which a few weeks ago told the I. W. W. to move on, and deported them without any particular disturbance. He says that the I. W. W. were working to get the loggers and sawmill men to quit down in that section, and as the lumber industry is a big thing down there, a great majority of the citizens objected to their presence. As there is no statute to keep a man from shooting off his mouth, the citizens took things into their own hands, with the result that they are having a mixup with the State. Mr. Thrift does not think they will have any serious trouble, however.

FARMERS' WEEK

December 8 to 13, 1913
This will be a notable event in the educational history of Oregon. Farmers' Co-operation will be the leading topic of a stimulating series of lectures. The week will be crowded with discussions, and demonstrations everything that makes for the better of the farmer and home-maker.
WINTER SHORT COURSE
January 5 to 10, 1914
The College has spared no effort to make this the most complete short course in its history. A very wide range of courses will be offered in General Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, Dairying, Poultry Keeping, Mechanical Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry, and Music. Numerous lectures and discussions on Farmers' Co-Operation, at home and abroad, will be a leading feature. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition! Accommodations reasonable. Reduced rates on all railroads. For further information address
