Applegate, Saturday night, at Banks, and lodged in Young Hall had stolen a $22 Colt revolver from a secondhand store at Tillamook, and sold it to Chas. Eastham, of Banks, for $3.50. He also stole a holster for the revolver, but had thrown it away. He also carried away a pearl handled dirk knife, worth several dollars. The Tillamook people do not feel like they want to prosecute, but are anxious to get the property back. Hall's father is dead, according to the boy's statement, and his mother's whereabouts is unknown to
