

TAX COLLECTION TO START FEBRUARY 2ND

Treasurer Issues Call Under Law Passed by Legislature

REBATE A THING OF THE PAST

To Avoid Interest and Penalty all Tax Must be Paid by April 1

County Treasurer E. B. Sappington, now the duly bonded tax collector for Washington County, gives notice in another column that tax collection will begin on Monday, February 2. His announcement is in consonance with the statement made in last week's Argus, that no rebate will be allowed, as the law prohibits this. One is permitted to pay half of the tax by April 1, but the other half will bear one per cent interest each month, until Sept. 1, and then, in addition there will be a penalty of ten per centum.

If no payment at all is made by April 1, then the interest charge will be one per cent per month until Sept. 1, when the penalty then begins at ten per cent.

There is a world of complaint all over the county by those who have paid a half-tax for several years, paying the remaining half by the first Monday in October. Members of the legislature put the blame on the tax commission as an endeavor to shift responsibility. The people who have taken advantage of the three per cent rebate are also dissatisfied with the new law. From all indications the old law was very satisfactory, and it is thought that the next legislature will repeal the present law and substitute the old measure, and it is not unlikely that the measure will be on the ballot at the general election next fall.

HEIM GATES

Charles Heim, formerly of Hillsboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Heim, and Miss Helen Gates, also a former Hillsboro resident, daughter of Hon. H. V. Gates, were united in marriage at Philomath, Benton County, Ore., Jan. 14, 1914. Both are well known in this city and Portland, where they have resided for several years. The groom is a bright young man, trustworthy and industrious, and the bride, who spent her girlhood here, has many friends. They will make their home in Portland.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

Notice is hereby given that the 1913 tax roll for Washington County, Oregon, will be open for the collection and payment of taxes on Monday, February 2, 1914. No rebate will be allowed. All taxes are due and payable before the 1st day of April, 1914. Half payments can be made before the 1st day of April, 1914, but a penalty of 1 per cent per month will be charged on remaining half payment to be paid prior to September 1st, 1914. Where no payment is made before the 1st day of April, 1914, the tax becomes delinquent and a penalty of 1 per cent per month is charged from that date to prior to September 1, 1914, a penalty of 5 per cent, and interest at the rate of 12 per cent per year will be charged on all delinquent taxes.

E. B. Sappington, County Treasurer and Tax Collector of Washington County, Oregon.

MRS. BAILEY ENTERTAINS

Mrs. J. W. Bailey entertained, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of her guest of the week, Mrs. Dalton, wife of Dr. Dalton, of Valdez, Alaska. The features of the afternoon were an auction, bridge and a poem recited. Mrs. A. B. Bailey, of Portland, won the high score at bridge, and Mrs. J. P. Tamsieie on the poem prize. Dainty refreshments were served, the hosts being assisted by Mrs. E. B. Tongue, Mrs. M. Wall, Mrs. T. H. Tongue, Miss Stella Boscow and Miss A. Bailey. About forty ladies were present and a very enjoyable time was had. Mrs. Dalton departed for her home in the North this morning.

Henry Toelle, of Shady Brook, was a city caller yesterday.

Frank Holcomb, of beyond Mt. Union, was a city visitor yesterday.

Louis Stoller has bought the Wilson restaurant, and will change the name.

Mrs. M. M. Pittenger entertained a number of friends Saturday afternoon, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Merryman, of Hillsboro.

Sheriff Reeves returned last night from Yamhill, where he turned over the I. W. W. band to Sheriff Henderson, who is escorting them through Yamhill county. The troop made Yamhill early yesterday afternoon, making the seventeen miles in a hurry. Some of them wanted to stay all night at Gaston, but the sheriff insisted that they should get out of the county last night. The leader became rather unruly at the last, but Mr. Reeves would not listen to anything else than their leaving the county boundaries, thinking that this was the judicious thing to do, as there is no work among the farmers at this time of year.

For sale: White Leghorn chickens—a few choice cockerels and about 50 breeding hens; also eggs and day old chicks in season. Order early as supply is limited. Early chicks make the Fall layers. Write for prices and particulars.—Campbell & Rogers Poultry Farm, Route 4, Box 20, Beaverton, Ore. 40tf

Treasurer E. B. Sappington has selected the following to assist in tax collection: C. E. Deichman, cashier; C. A. Lamkin, ledgerman; collectors, Ed. Boos, Forest Grove, and Miss Mattie Wilson and Geo. Alexander, Hillsboro. As yet the treasurer does not know what quarters he will occupy, as the new annex has not yet been accepted. Contractor Foster was out the first of the week, but no agreement was effected as to taking over the structure. It is still up in the air, and settlement seems as far deferred as ever.

We have received an order for 40 carloads of potatoes for Texas shipment, and we will buy all merchantable potatoes you have to sell for the next 30 days, at the highest market price. Remember, we will not be in the market after Feb. 7 for any valley stock. Hillsboro Mercantile Co. 42-6

S. B. Starrett, a Forest Grove contractor, died at his home on Monday, January 12, 1914, from paralysis. He had been a resident of the Grove for many years. He is survived by two sons, C. J. and H. S. Starrett, Portland, a daughter, Mrs. S. G. Robinson, Hardman, Ore., and a son, P. C. Starrett, a councilman at the Grove. Deceased was a veteran of the Civil War, and attended the Gettysburg encampment, last year.

MEN'S CLUB

The Men's Club held an open meeting at the Christian church, Friday evening, and invited their wives, ladies and friends. After the order of business was dispensed, a debate on the proposition, "That Nature is More Beautiful than Art," was taken up, and a decision was given in favor of Nature. The affirmative was supported by Messrs. Creekpaum, McAlear and Kuratli, and on the negative were Messrs. Robb, Everest and Jack. The audience was very much interested and showed a keen desire to get every word, which was sometimes difficult by reason of the laughter, occasioned by points made by either side.

After the debate was concluded, Ray Sigler entertained with a solo, and responded to an encore. The male quartette, composed of Messrs. L. Brown Sr., Leonard Brown, Wm. Harris and Frank Williams, was well received, and responded to an encore. Henry Kuratli delighted the audience with a cornet solo. The meeting adjourned to assemble in the basement of the church, around the banquet table. Rev. W. N. Vallandigham presided as toast-master, and kept the banqueters smiling by his witty sallies and introductions. The membership of the club responded to toasts. Others who responded were Professors McKay and Burt, and Rev. Myers, of the M. E. church. About twelve o'clock the banqueters adjourned, and everyone went away feeling that they had been well and enjoyably entertained by the club. Between 50 and 60 were in attendance.

MEDICAL MEN BANQUET

The first annual banquet of the Washington County Medical Society was held at the Hotel Washington, Tuesday evening, Dr. Vollmer, of Forest Grove, the new president, presided as toast-master. Those present were: Dr. Vollmer and wife, Dr. C. E. Hines and wife, Dr. Brookbank and wife, Dr. Kaufman and wife, Forest Grove; Dr. Erwin and wife, Dr. Linklater and wife, Dr. Tamsieie and wife, Dr. Robb, Hillsboro; Dr. King, Aloha, and Dr. Anderson, Orenco. Toasts were responded to as follows: Dr. Linklater, "The Country Doctor;" Dr. Hines, "The Doctor as Postmaster;" Dr. Erwin, "The Honorary Members, the Ladies;" Dr. Brookbank, "Eugenics;" Dr. Tamsieie, "The Physician and the Community;" Mrs. Kaufman, "The Physicians' Wives;" Dr. Robb, "The Medical Society;" Dr. King and Dr. Anderson, general remarks. After the banquet the company retired to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Erwin, where they were entertained with vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. Erwin and Mrs. Brookbank.

This was the first affair of the society since reorganization.

HULDA ETHEL COCHRAN

Hulda Ethel Cochran, the four months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cochran, of Orenco, passed away, Jan. 13, 1914. The Cochran family are all down with the measles, except Mr. Cochran. The baby took cold, and could not survive the complications. She was buried in the Odd Fellows cemetery, Jan. 14, at 2 p. m., Rev. Cook officiating.

A bold hold-up, in broad daylight, was perpetrated early this week. Many such have been pulled off here before. The police seem powerless to prevent it. This is how it is worked: A high school girl buys a big bag of candy at the Den of Sweets, and she is no sooner out of the store than she is pounced upon by her classmates, who make her "divvy" up. This further proves the popularity of the candy made at the Den of Sweets.

The Social Circle of the Cong. Church will hold its next meeting, Thursday, Jan. 22, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Shorey, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Farm to rent: Cultivates 160 acres; house and barn; 1 1/2 miles from North Plains.—Inquire E. B. Tongue, Hillsboro. 38tf

FORMER HILLSBOROITE KILLED IN PORTLAND

William H. Fenton Struck on the Head by Falling Concrete Lift

WAS PASSING UNDER THE ELEVATOR

Pulley Broke and Carpenter was Instantly Killed, Tuesday

William H. Fenton, well known in Hillsboro, several years ago, was instantly killed, Tuesday, by the falling of a concrete lift, or elevator, while working on a building at Fifteenth & Hoyt, Portland. Fenton was a carpenter, and was employed by the J. P. Taylor Contracting Company. He was passing under the lift when a pulley broke, and the elevator, with its load, fell, striking Fenton on the head, crushing his skull to a mass of jelly.

He was the son of H. H. Fenton, well known here in the nineties. Deceased leaves a widow. The coroner's jury left the verdict open, fixing no blame. The widow will no doubt initiate a suit against the company to recover damages for the death of her husband.

The fact that "Alias Jimmy Valentine" was presented three nights to crowded houses at McMinville will assure the public of a good production. At the Crescent, Saturday evening, Jan. 17.

Miss Minnie Morrill, attending Monmouth, was given second prize at the recent oratorical contest at the Normal, in which there were twenty participants. Miss Morrill is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrill.

Mrs. S. Brisbine, well known here when she was Mrs. Agnes Campbell, writes to friends that she has just recovered from a severe attack of grip, contracted just after she returned to Moro, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Hoover.

The Commercial Club, of Portland, will make a trip over the Portland, Eugene & Eastern loop, Saturday, leaving Portland early in the morning. The newspaper men of both Yamhill and Washington counties were Tuesday sent invitations to join the party in Portland and make the trip.

A bold hold-up, in broad daylight, was perpetrated early this week. Many such have been pulled off here before. The police seem powerless to prevent it. This is how it is worked: A high school girl buys a big bag of candy at the Den of Sweets, and she is no sooner out of the store than she is pounced upon by her classmates, who make her "divvy" up. This further proves the popularity of the candy made at the Den of Sweets.

WANDERING ARMY PASSES THRO' COUNTY

Camp at Beaverton Over Monday Night, the Grove Tuesday Night

MADE NO VISIT AT HILLSBORO

Reached City Park at One O'Clock, and Then Hiked on to Forest Grove

Washington County was Monday afternoon invaded by an army of 75 men and one woman, calling themselves "unemployed," and the first night in the county was spent at Beaverton, where Mayor Hocken, at the expense of the city, furnished bread, sausage and black coffee as the menu, for supper and breakfast. There was no disorderly conduct, their spokesman, J. Rice, saying that they were all "broke," and they were simply asking, not demanding, something to eat, while enroute to Salem to see the Governor and attempt to find work to keep them going until Spring opened. Sheriff Reeves went to Beaverton to see that all was kept orderly, but as the men were under control of their leaders there was no attempt at scattering. All remained in the Grange Hall and there was no breaking of ranks. Rice and his wife came to Hillsboro, Tuesday, at 11:30, but were told that they could not remain in the city. Mayor H. T. Bagley was instructed to appoint deputies to see that no disorder followed the refusal. The band, or "army," as they call themselves, reached the city park at one, and after a half hour's rest, marched on to Forest Grove, after O. Phelps secured a picture of the bunch.

Sheriff Reeves and some of the county officials raised private subscription to help Forest Grove take care of the hungry horde, and they remained there all night. Yesterday morning they broke camp and went to Yamhill for last night. Sheriff Reeves was vigilant, and saw that the marchers expedited their trip through to the Yamhill line.

J. Rice and wife, in charge of the brigade made advance sorties to see that provision was made for the hungry stomachs.

Rice says that they were all broke in Portland, and it was necessary to get out. They will try the State Board of Control, and see if they can't get work enough to board them until Spring.

Rice alleges there are no I. W. W.'s in the crowd, which was a motley array. Some looked like working men, and there were probably a few crooks in the bunch. The two assistants of Rice had perfect control over the men and at no time was there any disorder. They came this route because other bands were taking the East Side, and it was considered it would be better picking this way.

Mayor Hocken has given notice in the Portland papers that no more armies will be fed at public expense, and Mayor Bagley says Hillsboro, as a unit, will not feed them. If another army should start, it is more than likely that they will be turned back to Portland.

Ernest Eggers, of near Cedar Mill, was a city caller today.

Louie Hamel, of near Orenco, was up to the hub yesterday.

John Friday, of Banks, was down to Hillsboro yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hartley, of Banks, were in the city Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. John Miller, of Portland, and her son, Rev. Harvey Miller, of Oakland, Cal., were in the city Tuesday, guests of Mrs. T. E. Cornelius. Rev. Miller was enroute home from Kansas City, Mo., where he attended a ministerial convention.

Today is the last daylight for shooting ducks, and many were out yesterday and today, after the finest water bird going. The visitors have not been very plentiful here this winter, for some reason or other, although several good kills have been made by the Hillsboro sportsmen.

There will be no Free Methodist meeting at the Hillsboro Evangelical Church, Sunday, Jan. 18, as the quarterly meeting for the Hillsboro and Forest Grove circuit will commence at Forest Grove, tomorrow. Rev. Coffee, district elder, will continue a revival at the Grove until after Sunday, Jan. 25. All are invited.

The Knights of Columbus, last night, entertained at the new Catholic School, the features being cards and dancing. John Boeker was awarded the bobby prize. Mrs. C. W. Rollins and Mr. Seus won the two first prizes. There was a good attendance and an enjoyable time. This is the second of a series of parties to be given by the Catholic young people, the Girls of Sodality giving the first one on New Year's eve.

ATTORNEY GEO. R. BAGLEY, REPRESENTING W. V. WILEY, AND DISTRICT ATTORNEY E. B. TONGUE WERE AT SALEM, TUESDAY, ARGUING THE HILLSBORO LIQUOR ELECTION CASE, WHICH WAS ADVANCED ON THE CALENDAR, AND A DECISION IS EXPECTED THE FIRST OF NEXT WEEK.

Several valley towns had like cases before the supreme court. The plaintiff asks that the election in November be set aside, contending that the law does not warrant a city election at that time. The notices, they allege were also insufficient, and many other points were raised, chief of which was the questioning of the local option petitions, which must have contained registered voters, if the law were followed. The various contentions are supported by many authorities, while the state contended that the will of the voters should prevail. The case was expedited very rapidly, the election being held in November.

Harry Kuehne, the Tigard liveryman, was brought to Hillsboro, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a cow. Kuehne states that he is not guilty of the charge, and says that a resident of Tigard brought him a cow to trade off for a better one, and Kuehne asserts he was to have some hay for making the deal. He made the trade, but the party of the first part refused to accept the cow Kuehne traded for. He says he tried to get the party to trade back, but he would not, and the filing of the papers followed.

Olave Johnson, who lives away at the head waters of East Dairy Creek, miles above Mountaineer, was in the city yesterday on probate business. Mr. Johnson went there over 27 years ago, and when he first took up a homestead he had deer meat about the year around. He says that this year only a few were killed in his section, the settlements scaring the venison away to other parts of the country, notably the Nehalem.

The Kuratli party, touring California, was in San Diego, last Friday. Emil Kuratli cards the Argus as follows: "Went out with W. E. Thorne to visit the old lighthouse. Thorne is prospering down here. San Diego is a great place for tourists. Spreckles, the big sugar king, has large holdings here. The city is making great preparations for the 1915 Fair. The weather is ideal. Loren Palmateer is on the police force."

Special meetings at the Baptist church every night, beginning Tuesday night, the 20th. The pastor, B. Clarence Cook, will speak each night at 7:30 p. m. until the 26th, when it is expected that Rev. E. A. Smith, of Oregon City, will continue for 10 days. Especially good music. Every one cordially invited to attend.

Cartoonist J. E. Murphy, of the Oregon Journal, was united in marriage at Verbort, Jan. 14, 1914. Rev. Father LeMiller, of the Catholic church, officiating. The bride was formerly Miss Tillie K. Crane, of Portland. Her parents reside at Fresno, Cal.

Washington County paid the state $1,001.50 for auto licenses and chauffeur permits last year. After the expenses are taken out the state will send Washington County the balance, $834.46 to be placed in the county road fund. This would rock about a third of a mile—possibly more.

Mr. Fickens, of near Sherwood, butchered a hog the past week, the porker weighing 700 pounds, dressed. Six men were required to handle the big fellow. That was some hog, but if Mr. Fickens had called on Jos. Galbreath and Jack Hess, the trio would have handled him like Cudahy experts.

Know what Denny's is? Let us introduce you. A ham or cheese sandwich free with each glass of Denny's, 10 cents. Every day at noon, from 11:30 to 1:30, at the Den of Sweets.

Henry Frank, of Reedville, was stricken with heart failure, Tuesday, Jan. 13, and expired suddenly. He leaves a widow and several grown children. Mr. Frank was highly esteemed, and had resided at Reedville for a number of years.

Have two drag saws with outfits, and will be in a position in about two weeks to take large jobs of cordwood and rickwood cutting. Those interested please write Chas. F. Robinson, Hillsboro, Ore., R. 5. 43-5

E. W. Dant, of Reedville, was up to Hillsboro, yesterday. He says that the population was increased largely for a few minutes, Tuesday, when the I. W. W.'s passed through the burg.

For Sale—Pure-bred Jersey bull, 20 months old. Eligible to registry. Tel. 52 Line S. Cornelius, R. 2, Box 44. 43-5

N. A. McConahay, of North Plains, has rented the Will Lighty place, on East Plains, and has taken possession.

Phil Masters, the Dilley veteran, a former resident of Hillsboro, was a city caller yesterday, greeting his old veterans friends.
