P. E. & E. GIVES LOOP EXCURSION

Five Electric Coaches Loaded Visit Valley Towns

OVER SCORE GO FROM HILLSBORO

Big Party, Guests of Commercial Club, Have Celebration

Nearly three hundred excursionists members and invited guests of the Portland Commercial Club, in turn all of them guests of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway, "sparked" out of Portland, Saturday morning, going south via Newberg, thence to McMinnville, and thence back to Portland via Forest Grove and Hillsboro. Stops were made at all towns and stations of import, and the big excursion had lunch at Newberg, and dinner at Hillsboro, leaving here at 8:20 in the evening. A big wind storm had put Hillsboro in darkness, and everything was candle light in the county seat, but the visitors took the condition with utmost good nature. After dinner the Portlanders gathered at the Commercial Club, where Mayor Bagley was introduced by John M. Wall. The Mayor made a five minutes' talk, in which he gave them a royal welcome, which was replied to by Edgar B. Piper, president of the Portland Commercial Club, and managing editor of the Oregonian.

The trip was made in celebration of electrification of the first big unit of the service now being installed by the Portland, Eugene & Eastern.

Hillsboro and Forest Grove, and other county towns, turned out to participate in the holiday, and all enjoyed the trip.

Those present from the county, as near as could be ascertained were:

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and gratefully acknowledge the many kindnesses shown us by friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement, the death and burial of our beloved wife and mother, Mrs. Mary J. Fitzsimmons.

Michael Fitzsimmons and Family.

Toni Sinay, of above Blooming, was in Friday. He says that he and his neighbors felt the tremor that shook up Seattle, some two weeks or more ago. He also says that he found a stump split open in the hills, and thinks the fault in the mountains may have caused it, as there was no other indications of a force that could have accomplished the feat.

Fred Schoen, of Cornelius, was a city caller Saturday. He says that Cornelius will have a wet and dry election, this Spring, and the old contest will be threshed out again.

A. P. Wilkes, of near Scholls, was in town Saturday.

Wanted—Girl for general housework. Phone, City 233.

Wm. Josse, of West Union, was a city visitor Friday.

Miss Althea Hembree visited her parents, in Portland, over Sunday.

Adolph Honzaik, of Oak Park, was transacting business in the city Friday.

I. C. Nealeigh, of Scholls, was a city caller Saturday, on legal business.

Gus Kleier, of Chealem Mountain, was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Frank Unger came in Saturday from Chealem Mountain, to attend to his week-end business.

A. W. Walker and wife, of South Tualatin, were in town Saturday.

Ernest J. Stauss, who has rented the Newton Womer place, at Laurel, was in the city Monday.

Loganberries were in bloom the last of the week—pressing the season, some.

T. A. Cary, of south of Reedville, was in the county seat Saturday.

Do not forget to ask for a Schiller when you want a good 10 cent smoke—no "cough dust" in the Schiller. 12tf

John Sinclair, of near Oreoc, was in town Saturday. A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair, Jan. 12, 1914.

Geo. Harrow, carrier on Route 5, has decided to give up his work if the department will let him have a substitute.

Spencer and other varieties of sweet peas—and all kinds of tested garden seeds and fertilizers, at Morton's Greenhouse, Hillsboro. 44-7

Freese Lillgard, of near Laurel, was in town Saturday. He is living on the Lillgard farm while his parents are visiting back in the Fatherland.

John Meier, Samuel Graf and Erwin Ritter, of Bethany, were in town Saturday, attending a board meeting of the German Mutual Fire Ins. Association.

The North Side Dairy will deliver you milk on city route. Pure milk and cream. Try us. Our product is first hand—we milk and then deliver. Tel. Farmer 436.—D. M. Gillenwater. 41-0

Frederick Peterson, of Bacona, was down to Hillsboro, Saturday. He says the roads between here and Bacona are something muddy these days.

For the best values in hardware of all kinds, call on Dave Corwin, who can sell you the best at the lowest figures. Plumbing given prompt attention. Second Street, south of Main.

Dave Doty, the McMinnville theatre man, was in town Saturday, making preparations for the McMinnville Dramatic Co., presenting Jimmy Valentine, that evening.

For Sale—Ten head milk cows, 4 fresh, and others fresh soon. Graded Jerseys. Selling on account of leaving the farm. Also selling one thoroughbred Jersey bull, coming 2 years.—D. Shaw, Beaverton, Ore., R. 4. 43-5

W. H. Reiling recently received a letter from his sister, Mrs. J. A. Ebener, whose husband is mining at Lenia, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Ebener were married several months ago, her husband having mined in the Yukon for several years.

Wanted: Will buy a light 2-seat spring wagon, and also some yearling heifers. Write B. Odarmatt, Hillsboro, Ore., Route 1, or phone Walter Bros. Farmer, 282. Three miles northeast of Hillsboro, on Grabel place. 42-4

F. A. Harberg, the cattle buyer of East Plains, and John McNew, of below Reedville, were in town Saturday. They report the roads as wet, but found Hillsboro the reverse. Mc says he was so dry, himself, that his clothing caught fire shortly after he entered town.

The K Hand Power Stump Puller is being demonstrated daily on the George V. James farm, four miles southeast of Cornelius. If interested, call or write for descriptive literature. Address—Gustav Krause, Cornelius, R. 2. 42-5

John Boeker Sr., who has been visiting in California for a month, returned Friday evening, and has been busy greeting his many friends. He says he is glad to get back to Oregon, although the weather was superb down in the South.

PYTHIAN ORDERS IN JOINT INSTALLATION

Large Crowd Attends Ceremonies at Hall, Friday Evening

ORDER NOW IN FIFTIETH YEAR

Big Banquet, Installation, and Addresses, With Program

The Pythian and Pythian Sister lodges held a joint installation at their Castle Hall, on Second Street, Friday evening, with a record-breaking crowd in attendance. The ceremonies were marked with unusual features and were pronounced the most brilliant in the history of the local orders. F. J. Williams, in charge of the military guard, escorted the Pythian officers in the floor work, under the softening effects of a huge spot-light, operated by L. W. House, and the effect was brilliant and spectacular.

Hon. W. N. Barrett, W. G. Hare and R. H. Greer made the addresses for the K. of P. Mrs. F. J. Sewell presided at the piano during the evening, and vocal music was rendered by L. Brown Sr., quartet, Messrs. Brown Sr., Brown Jr., Wm. Harris and F. J. Williams; piano solo, Mrs. F. J. Sewell; piano solo, Miss Florence Taylor.

Mrs. W. N. Barrett presided, and the officers installed by Mrs. E. L. Moore, assisted by Mrs. Janie Sewell and Mrs. L. A. Long, were:

Mrs. E. C. McKinney, M E C; Mrs. H T Koeber, E S; Mrs. Leonard Brown, Junior; Mrs. Wm Nelson, Manager; Elinor Wilkes, M of R & C; Mrs. T E Cornelius, M of F; Mrs. F J Williams, Protector; Mrs. L E Shute, O G.

After the installation, Miss Ruth Linklater, as Goddess of Flowers, with the following little girls as bearers, Isabel Turner, Evelyn Sewell, Ipha Wilkes, Ethel Linklater, Cecil Emmott, Ruby Young, Margaret Long and Helen Connell, presented the ladies with floral tributes.

The Pythian officers installed by L. A. Long, assisted by Wm. Nelson and W. G. Hare were:

Fred J. Sewell, C C; Jas. Anderson, V C; W N Harris, prelate; L. Brown, M of W; L. W. House, M of E; Geo Stevens, M of F; F A Everest, K of R & S; Earl Luther, Master at Arms; D C Blackburn, I G; Aug Tews, O G.

LIVE STOCK AND THE HOYS

No one in Oregon, and for that matter no live stock man in the Pacific Northwest, needs to be told that Dr. James Withycombe, of the Oregon Agricultural college, is a believer in live stock.

The doctor believes in live stock commercially, socially, morally, and one can not doubt but live stock plays an important part in his religious beliefs. So it is not surprising to hear him declare in the Pacific Homestead that "better live stock will do more to keep boys on the farm than all other agencies combined."

Spokesman Review. Mr. Withycombe is one of the real, conscientious, and practical college men in the Northwest, and his opinions on the above subject are being demonstrated every day in Washington County.

If you want a range that beats the world for the money, call on David Corwin, Bank Annex Building, and see his Quality Ranges, all the way from $25 to $55. These are the best ranges ever placed on the market in Hillsboro. Call in and see them.

J. T. Rooks, of upper Vine-lands, was in town Friday. Jos. is hanging on to several hundred sacks of fine Burbank potatoes, and says he is now sorry that he didn't put in the twenty acres he originally intended, the short price of last year influencing him not to plant the tubers.

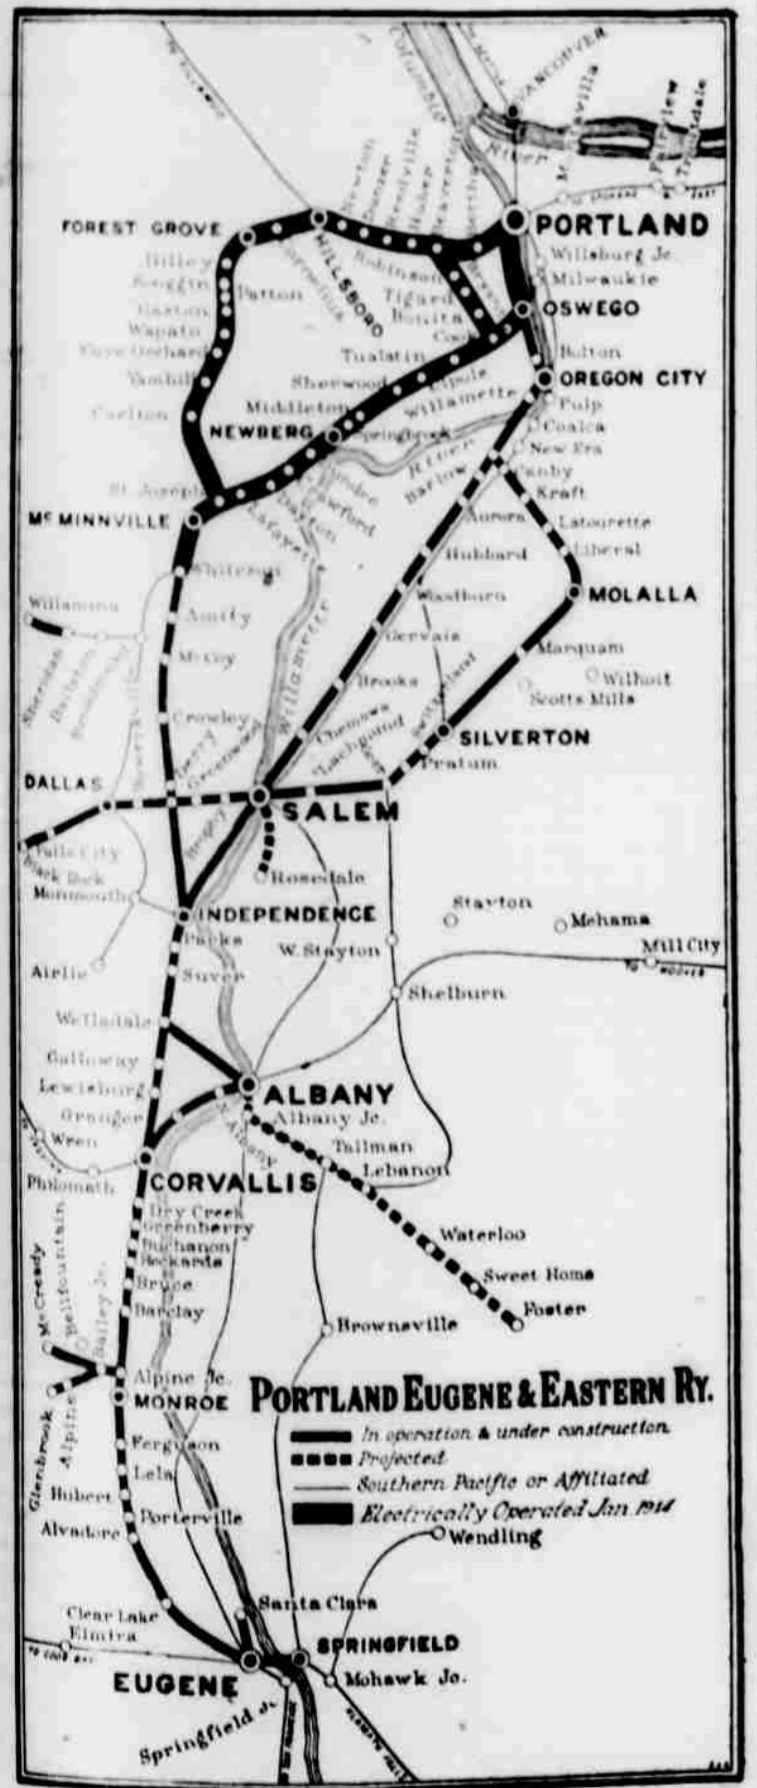

Will teach shorthand and typewriting in Hillsboro providing enough pupils will join a class. Address "School of Shorthand," 393 11th Street, Portland, Oregon. 41-4

W. J. Gregg, of Leisville, was hauling in potatoes for the Mercantile, the last of the week. He had a lot of tubers on his new hop ground, and the land cleared up over $100 per acre, hops, potatoes and all—pretty good for baby hop ground.

Born, to Chris Maurer and wife, of above Mountindale, Jan. 9, 1914, a son.

Portland, Eugene and Eastern Railway

The following map, showing the electrification of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway, will be of interest to Argus readers. The first unit, known as the loop, from Portland, south on the Yamhill division and from McMinnville, north via Forest Grove and Hillsboro, is completed, and service is now installed. The cars will be running through Main Street, Hillsboro, within ten days or two weeks.

I represent Spirella corsets—not sold in stores. Will call at homes on request, and do the fitting, and teach how to adjust and wear the corset. Our tailored made-to-measure corsets, including the latest front lace, with an experienced corsetier service, cost no more than high class corsets purchased in stores.—Mrs. M. E. Caudle, Hillsboro, Fifth and Jackson Streets, Phone No. 584.

B. Matthews, of Forest Grove, have been drawn on the federal jury, to convene at Portland, Jan. 26, to try out the land fraud cases brought against men in Southern Oregon.

Agent Shinnaberger, of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, furnishes the press with a brand new timetable this week.

Fred Goetze, J. D. Koch and Jas. Loudon, of above Blooming, were in town Saturday.
