Saturday is St. Valentine's Day, and already the little god of love, or devil of envy, as the case may be, has been sending out his shafts of love or darts of vengeance. Postmaster Lamkin and force, as a result, have been so busy they haven't had time to read their own post cards, let alone those sent to patrons.

State Treasurer Thos. Kay, of Salem, who holds the office of vice president of the State Highway commission, was here Saturday, holding a road meeting. With him was Rev. Dunsmoor, of Independence, vice president of the Willamette Valley Good Roads Assn. Both delivered interesting lectures on the road problem, and a branch for Washington County was formed. John A. Thornburgh was elected vice president, and he appointed John M. Wall and Wilbur K. Newell to act with him as an advisory committee. The idea is to get a main permanent road, preferably of hard surface, through the main body of the West Side counties. John M. Wall presided at the session.

CORONER'S JURY SITS ON LINKLATER FATALITY

Evidence Warranted Fixing no Blame on Railway Company

MOTORMAN SAYS NO SIGNAL GIVEN Evidence Superinduces Idea That Physician Was Struck by Last Car

Coroner Dr. Ira E. Barrett, of Beaverton, impelled a jury Tuesday, to investigate the facts surrounding the death of Dr. Linklater. The jury, after hearing all the evidence, found that Dr. Linklater came to his death by being struck by an Oregon Electric train. The motorman swore that no lights were on at Elmonica, but that he saw Dr. Linklater at the east end of that station, but that he did not signal for a stop. Testimony showed that the body was found within about eight feet of the rails, but the brakeman said when he returned he saw no one, and the train therefore proceeded.

The jury viewed the premises at Elmonica, Tuesday evening, and it is thought that the doctor must have been struck by the rear car—the freight-express car that is switched out at Hillsboro. The jury selected were: Edw. Schulermerich, R. C. Vaught, E. L. McCormick, Willis Ireland, J. C. Kuratli and J. H. Garrett.

The jury had three sessions—one at Elmonica, one yesterday morning, and one yesterday afternoon, after the funeral services. Deputy District Attorney Tongue attended as counsel for the state, and Attorney Geo. R. Bagley examined for the railway company.

The church has received 88 new members, of these 24 have been baptized. The church now has about 170 members. HILLSBORO NOW ON MAIN ELECTRIC LINE

Portland, Eugene & Eastern Now Running Through County Seat

RED CARS PASS THROUGH TOWN Agent Shinnaberger Moves Desk to the City Office on Main

The dream of three years ago has been realized—the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway is now running its electric cars through the old county seat, Hillsboro. Agent Shinnaberger yesterday moved his desks to the uptown office, and with this morning the red cars of the new service commenced running up North Range, thence on Main, and thence out to the main line. The freight offices are yet held at the main line track, and the Western Union office still stays down at South Hillsboro, the uptown and South Hillsboro offices being connected by telephone only.

A new schedule is to be arranged and published in a short time, as there will be some difference in time, owing to the half mile extra distance caused by making the detour. Passengers can now get into the Fourth Street district in Portland, direct, and land in the center of Hillsboro upon their return. Conductor Chas. Cline, who for over 30 years has run past Hillsboro, and who during all that time has but once seen the main street of the city, now sees what old Hillsboro has in the business district. Here's to you, Chas. E., and may your shadow never grow less.

Kenneth Robb was the first to buy a ticket at the new up-town office.

PHYTHIAN GOLDEN JUBILEE Phoenix Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will entertain Knights of Pythias and their families and the Pythian Sisters, Thursday evening, Feb. 19, at the Castle Hall, on Second Street, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the order. There will be seventeen numbers on the program. W. G. Hare will deliver an address, and then Past Grand Chancellor John M. Wall will present veteran awards to five Knights who have been members of the order for 25 years—R. H. Greer, L. W. House, L. A. Long, T. S. Weathered and John Northrop.

A minstrel entertainment will be given under the direction of E. L. Moore, and a Pythian orchestra will furnish the music. The boys are determined to have a session that is full of brilliant entertainment, and the evening will close with a splendid luncheon.

A snap—new house, five rooms and bath, on large lot close in, for $1250. Terms.—C. S. Parker, Heidel Bldg. 47

Fred Cornelius is now cashier at the collection window over in the taxpaying department at the treasurer's office.

Ward Downs returned last Saturday, from Tillamook, where he has been experting the county's books.

New Spring styles and fabric for men's and ladies' suits and coats arrived and on display at Christ Wuest's.

Mayor H. T. Bagley departed Saturday for New York and other Eastern points. He will be absent several weeks.

The county court will soon have new quarters, the rooms of the old offices of the assessor and school superintendent having thrown into one.

The new Spring and Summer styles and goods for ladies' and men's suits have arrived at Christ Wuest's. Tailored suits from $15 up.

T. P. Buzhard, the carpenter, suffered a paralytic stroke at his home, Fourth and Jackson Sts., last evening, and is under the care of Dr. Robb.

Wednesday evening, Feb. 18, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Cowles, a missionary, will lecture at the Cong. Church, on her experiences in Africa. Everybody is invited.

E. B. Tongue, district attorney, was at Salem, yesterday, arguing a case for the Elmore Packing Co., in the Supreme Court.

Not being in a position to put on a sale we will go one better by giving something away on our eighth anniversary, Feb. 28. Watch the papers and our windows for further announcement.—Den of Sweets.

J. B. McNew, of below Reedville, was up this morning. Some miscreant stole a young pig from his pen, the other night, and J. B. says he can keep it if he will only stay away and not molest the rest of the youngsters.
