The new Fords, a carload of which have been unloaded by the Wilkes Auto & Garage Co., are being admired by those who are interested in the automobile business. The 1914 model has a rather neater appearance than the old models, and the little fellows are growing in popularity every day. The company sold one yesterday to a Tigard citizen, and the way things are looking the carload will suffer a depletion in numbers before the season is fairly on. The machine sells for $625 delivered. To help celebrate our 8th an-
