

NEW ELECTRIC LINE

The Portland, Eugene and Eastern started its new Electric Service on January 18th, 1914. This electric line runs through the now famous

Beaverton - Reedville

Acreage, one of the select suburban tracts within a few minutes of Portland. Rapid transit means a great growth in values, for it means homes close in. Call, or write to us.

SOLD ON EASY TERMS

Tracts are sold on easy terms, with one payment down.

If you are getting along in years and want to leave the farm, buy where you can get an acre for the price of a city residence lot.

Three years hence the entire Beaverton-Reedville tract will be like a city.

J. C. HENRY

J. C. Henry, for a number of years a resident on East Tualatin Plains, lately a resident of Monmouth, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wm. McIntire, Portland, No. 300 East Fifty-Second Street, Feb. 9, 1914, and interment was in the West Union cemetery, last Thursday. He was born in Germany, Feb. 20, 1848, and came to the United States at the age of 19. He married Elizabeth Detzenred, who, with the following children, survive: John Henry, Waubay, S. D.; Edward Henry, Joseph, Eastern Oregon; Mrs. L. J. Hamel, near Hillsboro; Mrs. Wm. McIntire, of Portland; Mrs. Lynn Shattuck, Lincoln County, Ore.; Mrs. Alfred Holcomb, of Polk County; Miss Jessie, Jessie and Gladys, at home.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to those who so kindly tendered us aid and sympathy in our bereavement, the death and obsequies of our husband and father, the late J. C. Henry. Mrs. J. C. Henry and Children

Adam Beil, of Centerville, was a city caller the first of the week.

C. H. Freer, of West Union, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hamel, of West Union, were in town Saturday.

Marshall Baker, the South Tualatin thresherman, was city visitor the last of the week.

W. T. Johnson, of north of town, was in the city the last of the week.

J. W. Bailey, of the Commercial Bank, went to San Francisco last week, on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Mandel, of near Middleton, were in the city the first of the week.

Prof. Skelton, of Corvallis, was in town Friday, on his tour of road lectures over the state.

Henry Toelle, of Shady Brook, was in the city the last of the week.

Andrew Kostur, of Buxton, was a county seat caller the last of the week.

C. L. Brown, of above Manning, was a city caller, Monday, on business.

John Koehnke, of above Blooming, was a city caller the first of the week.

W. J. Butner, of near Beaverton, was in the county seat Saturday, greeting friends.

C. Berggren, of beyond North Plains, was a city caller Friday morning.

J. E. and Geo. Zimmerman, of the Wallace settlement, beyond North Plains, were in to the road meeting last Friday.

Born, to J. B. Beeler and wife, of Ninth and Baseline, Feb. 14, 1914, a son. The parents are quite pleased over their valentine.

J. A. Johnson and J. J. Shevlin, Beaverton, and Chas. Geiberger, of Tualatin, were in the city Friday.

O. H. Crabb, a lineman of Portland, is the guest of his brother, E. J. Crabb, of North Hillsboro.

Gilgian Hager, of above Mountindale, was in the city Monday, transacting business and greeting friends. Mr. Hager formerly lived out near Phillips.

Alex Gordon, of North Plains, was in town Friday. He has been suffering from rheumatism for some weeks, but is now on the mend.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Everett, of Hillsboro, Feb. 16, 1914, a daughter. Franklin says that the new arrival will have a vote, in due time, if it isn't a boy.

S. A. D. Meek, of beyond North Plains, was down to the city Saturday. Mr. Meek is improving in strength, and is about recovering from his accident of several weeks ago.

Joseph Williams, of Forest Grove, one of the original pioneer hopmen of the Pike country, above Gaston, was in town Monday, accompanied by his son, Chas.

J. R. Bailey, of Buxton, was in town the last of the week. He says Buxton has had a mild winter, with but little snow. Fruit trees promise a heavy bloom provided frosts do not interfere.

The weather was a little chill, although bright, last week, and Oregonians were hoping for rain. In contrast the Mississippi Valley states were enjoying (?) two feet of snow and a howling blizzard. Who wouldn't live in Oregon.

Hillsboro is getting some advertisement, anyway, as a result of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern running through town. Many on the train are heard by Hillsboro passengers to remark that "Hillsboro is some town, anyway—and quite pretty from a car window."

OUR LOSS IS YOUR GAIN

In a very small way nearly eight years ago we started in the grocery business in this city and by close application to business and fair dealings without the aid of green trading stamps or premiums of any kind have been able to remain and have succeeded fairly well yet we believe the time has come that a great many people are looking for and expecting something as an inducement for their CASH trade and we propose to go the limit, beginning December 1, we are going to give back 5c out of every dollar CASH spent with us. Get a receipt from the register and keep them until you get $5 or more; bring them in and get 5 per cent of their face value in CASH.

SUMMONS

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Ada L. Nunn, plaintiff, versus John L. Nunn, defendant.

To John L. Nunn, defendant:—
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court, made and filed on the 15th day of January, 1914, within six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint on or before the 27th day of February 1914, for want thereof the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as to the Court shall seem just and equitable.

This summons is published pursuant to an order of Hon. J. U. Campbell, judge of the above entitled court, made and filed on the 15th day of January, 1914, through a newspaper of general circulation, published at Hillsboro, Oregon.

First publication, Jan. 15, 1914.
Last publication, February 25, 1914.
L. B. Roster, Attorney for Plaintiff.
907 Wilcox Bldg., Portland, Oregon.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Washington County.

Fessie Avains, plaintiff.
To Joseph Avains, the above named defendant:—
In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear on or before Friday, the 27th day of February, 1914, which is six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other relief as to the court may seem just and equitable. This summons is served upon you by publication in the Hillsboro Argus, by virtue of an order of the Hon. J. U. Campbell, Judge of the county court for the County of Washington, State of Oregon, and said order prescribes the first publication as a newspaper of general circulation as January 15, 1914, and the date of the last publication as February 25, 1914.
Harry Yankwich, Attorney for Plaintiff.
