FALLING LIMB HIT
RAYMOND TAYLOR
 No One Witnessed the Accident Which Cost Young Man His Life
FUNERAL SERVICE HELD SATURDAY Was Young Man of Exemplary Habits and Universally Esteemed

A falling limb from a tree on which he was working was the cause of the death of Raymond Taylor, last Thursday afternoon.
 The limb was several inches in circumference, and it struck deceased on the head, rendering him unconscious from a fracture of the skull. He died before a physician reached the scene.

Raymond Taylor was born in Fillmore County, Neb., Nov. 9, 1887, and was the second son of Walter E. and May Taylor. He came to Oregon with his parents when he was two years of age, the family locating at Hillsboro, making this his home ever since.
 His mother died at Reedville several years ago.

When a young man he worked with his father and learned the trade of masonry and cement contracting. He was married to Miss Bertha Galloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Galloway, August 25, 1907, to which union two children were born, one of which, a boy, died in infancy. The widow and one child, Helen, aged three, survive. Of his immediate family he leaves to mourn his loss his father, W.
 E. Taylor, two brothers, Clyde and Lawrence, his sisters, Mrs.
 Effie Willis, of Lebam, Wash., Mrs. Ethel Watson, Newport, Ore., and Nellie, at home.

A large circle of friends attested the esteem in which the young man was held by attending the services, Saturday, at the United Evangelical Church, conducted by Rev. Fisher, interment following in the Odd Fellows' Cemetery.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Galloway, Corvallis; Mrs. Plowman, Mrs.
 Spinner and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kleeman, of Portland.

A Persistent Poisoner
 By LOUISE B. CUMMINGS

The doctor took both pieces of flesh to his home, and on cutting them into bits found in each a small needle not half an inch long. Whether there had been poison in either of them he could not tell, but the evidence was strong enough against Luchese to insure his conviction. He was searched as soon as arrested, but nothing incriminating was found on him. His house was searched, and in it were found a variety of poisons and a little box containing needles similar to those that had been put into Demetrio and his friend.
 The instrument with which he had shot the needle into the flesh was picked up on the street near where the attack had been made. It was simply a small brass tube with a spring in it which could be loosened by a pressure of the thumb.

Luchese was tried and executed.
 Demetrio suffered but little from the effects of the puncture, but his friend was ill a long while.

The fact that Mantel had doubtless been poisoned by the man who wished Bianca for himself was kept from her. Indeed, she was not informed that Luchese had tried to poison her second lover. After Luchese's execution she and Demetrio were married, and great interest was manifested in the wedding, for every one except the bride knew that one lover had been murdered and the second had nearly met the same fate.

But it was not to be expected that what was common property could be kept from her always. She learned in time and in consequence always dreaded that her husband might fall at the hands of some secret enemy.

 American railroad gross earnings last year were $298,000,000 in excess of those of the year before.
 An appropriation of no less than $400,000,000 is sought by the Russian state railways for the repair shops.
 This, if granted, will make them virtually large locomotive and car works.
 China's railway history began in 1876, when the Woosung line, built by foreign enterprise, was opened. In 1877 the road was redeemed by the Chinese and the rails torn up and the equipment shipped to Formosa. In 1887, however, a railway was in operation between Tientsin and Tongshan.

Tales of Cities.
 St. Louis has property within its limits valued at $20,331,224 which is exempt from taxes.
 The township of Brookhaven, N. Y., claims to be the richest in the world.
 In its three banks farmers have $16, 000,000 on deposit. The per capita worth of the residents, counting man, woman and child, is $1,500.
 In the course of improvements in Li-moges, including the widening of many streets, a serious blow to local history will be delivered, for many houses from 200 to 500 years old which have always been an attraction to the visiting public will disappear.

FAMOUS AETNA BRAND
of Lime and Sulphur Spray

That made Washington County famous. W. K. Newell, President of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture says: "I have used it in my orchard for years, and I am sure you are making a good use of it." A. C. Goodrich, Commissioner of the First District, says: "I have used it and have found every barrel full up to test and very free of insect." H. C. Atwell, ex-president Oregon State Horticultural Society, says: "I don't think there is a better spray made." S. J. Galloway, Inspector, says: "After severe tests I find the Aetna Brand O. K." Worsley, Fruit Inspector for Clatsop Co.: "I desire to congratulate on the supreme article of lime and sulphur solution, the Aetna brand, which gives results and universal satisfaction." Absolute guarantee to stand to do the work if the operator does his part. Failure is no fault of the Aetna brand.
