CORNELIUS POSTOFFICE EXAMINATION IS SET

Will be held in Hillsboro, Saturday, March 14, 1914

OFFICE PAYS THOUSAND PER YEAR

People Residing Anywhere in District Served May Write

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that on Saturday, March 14, 1914, an examination will be held at Hillsboro, Ore., as a result of which it is expected to make certification to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of fourth class postmaster at Cornelius, Oregon, and other vacancies as they may occur at that office, unless it shall be decided in the interests of the service to fill the vacancy by reinstatement. The compensation of the postmaster at this office was $982 for the last fiscal year.

The age limit is 21 years and over, on the date of the examination, with the exception that in a State where women are declared by statute to be of full age for all purposes at 18 years, women 18 years of age on the date of the examination will be admitted.

Applicants must reside within the territory supplied by the post office for which the examination is announced.

The examination is open to all citizens of the United States who can comply with the requirements.

Application forms and full information concerning the requirements of the examination can be secured from the postmaster at Cornelius, Oregon, or from the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington at least 7 days before the date of the examination, otherwise it may be impracticable to examine the applicants.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A pleasant surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Klatt, at West Union, Friday evening, Feb. 20, the occasion being their 30th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in singing, conversation, etc. At a late hour refreshments were served, and the guests departed wishing the couple many more happy anniversaries.

Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Wm Graf, Peter Zureber, E Gyger, John Croeni, Julius Croeni, F Klatt; Mesdames Schmitt, Sam Graf, A Eggiman, Rufenacht; Messrs C Rich, Emil Stalder, H and Clarence Glaske, Ben Graf, Clarence and Jonathan Klatt, Will Pubols, Herman and Albert Schmitt, Solomon Gyger; Misses Martha Stalder, Alda Rich, Neoma and Esther Klatt, Clara Pubols.

SURPRISE PARTY

A delightful party was given Walter Keffer, of near Grove-land, Thursday evening, Feb. 19. The evening was spent in playing cards, music and dancing, and at a late hour a splendid supper was served. Those present were: Walter Keffer and wife, Mrs J Keffer, Ethel Keffer, Ed and Martha Kauffmann, Henry Emrick and wife, Myrtle Banker, Hubert Kies, Carl Jossy, Fred and John Wenger, Hickler and Oscar Feneststein, John and Fred Zureber, Art Huntley, Florian Hemny, Fred Grossen, Ambrose and Katie Landaur, Lesa Moore and "Uncle Tom."

Expert tree and shrubbery pruner; twenty years experience. Lawns mowed and kept in shape. Flower beds made and planted. If you desire the choicest of roses you should have your bushes properly pruned. How about your fruit garden? It also needs pruning. Everything furnished for the fruit and flower garden reasonable. Drop card or phone, J. M. Wickizer, Hillsboro, Ore., phone Main 392. 49-51

There will be a wrestling match at the Firemen's Gym, Saturday evening, Feb. 28, Walter Arndt, who has wrestled here before, will try the mat with Ben Page. Both men will go into the ring at equal weight, and the promoters say it will be worth while. Ringside tickets will cost 75 cents, and general admission will be 50c. There will be boxing preliminaries.

The rural carriers had a big load of mail, Tuesday morning, having enjoyed a holiday, Monday. This made three days of mail piled in one load, and, together with a big supply of parcels-post, the boys had a busy time delivering.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Galloway, of Corvallis, were here last of the week, attending the funeral of the late Ray Taylor.
